December 31, 2009 and 2008
The Crom Corporation Profit-Sharing/401(k) Plan

NOTE 1 – DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

The following description of the Crom Corporation (the Corporation) Profit-Sharing/401(k) Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering all employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries who are 21 years old. Eligible employees may begin making salary deferrals immediately and qualify for the employer's contribution after completing 1,000 hours of service. Participants must be employed as of the last day of the plan year to receive an employer contribution. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Contributions

The employer contributes an amount determined annually by the Corporation's Board of Directors. The Plan also features a cash or deferred arrangement under Internal Revenue Code Section 401(k). Participants may elect to defer up to 15% of compensation for contribution to the Plan.

Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with participant contributions, investment account earnings, and an allocation of the Corporation's contribution and forfeitures of terminated participants' nonvested accounts. Allocations are based on participant's earned wages, salary deferrals or account balances, as defined by Plan provisions. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's account.

Vesting

Participants are immediately vested in their voluntary contributions plus actual earnings thereon. Vesting in the Corporation contributions portion of their accounts plus earnings thereon is based on years of service as follows:

Years of Service	Employer Contributions
1	0%
2	20%
3	40%
4	60%
5	80%
6	100%

NOTE 1 – DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

Payment of Benefits

Upon retirement, death, or termination, the participant or beneficiary may receive the vested value of his account, in either a lump sum payout or payments in equal monthly, quarterly, or semiannual installments, over a period not to exceed ten (10) years. The method of payout is determined by the employer.

Forfeited Accounts

At December 31, 2009 and 2008, forfeited nonvested accounts totaled $13,549 and $2,870. These accounts are to be allocated to the remaining participants according to formulas specified in the Plan document. No forfeitures were allocated to participants in 2009 and 2008.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The Plan uses the accrual method of accounting. Under this method of accounting, contributions to the Plan are recognized when due from the employer. Revenues are recognized when earned and expenses when incurred.

Investment contracts held by a defined-contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined-contribution plan attributable to fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the plan. The Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits presents the fair value of the investment contracts as well as the adjustment of the fully benefit-responsive investment contracts from fair value to contract value. The Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits is prepared on a contract value basis.

Investments

Investments are recorded at the fair market value on the last business day of the Plan year. Increases and decreases in market value of the investments are reflected in the statements of changes in net assets available for plan benefits.

Excess Contributions

The Plan records a liability for contributions that have been determined excessive after antidiscrimination tests. The excess contributions reduce the current-year contributions total.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

Uncertain Tax Positions

Effective January 1, 2009, the Plan implemented the new accounting requirements associated with uncertainty in income taxes using the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) ASC 740, Income Taxes. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the positions will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities. It also provides guidance for derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. As of December 31, 2009, the Plan has no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

NOTE 3 – INVESTMENTS

NOTE 4 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Financial Accounting Standards Board has established a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 Inputs to the valuation method include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;

NOTE 4 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;

- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2009 and 2008.

Common/collective trusts: Valued at the net asset value of the shares held by the plan at year end.

The common/collective trusts that hold portfolios of equity securities and/or debt securities base their net asset value on quoted market prices or on values obtained by an independent pricing service. Pricing services use valuation matrixes that incorporate both dealer-supplied valuations and valuation models.

The trust that invests in guaranteed investment contracts (GICs) has holdings that include traditional GICs (issued by an insurance company and relying on the credit worthiness of the general account) and separate account GICs (issued by an insurance company and relying on the credit worthiness of the separate account). It also holds synthetic GICs that are a combination of a portfolio of securities plus a wrapper contract issued by a financial institution.

GICs issued by an insurance company (both traditional and separate account) are valued by calculating the present values of all projected future cash flows of each investment using a discount rate provided by other similar maturity investment contracts. Synthetic GIC wrapper contracts are valued by determining the replacement cost of the wrapper contract and the present value of the contractually obligated payments in the original wrapper contract.

NOTE 4 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value as of December 31, 2009 and 2008:

Assets at Fair Value as of December 31, 2009

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Common/collective trusts	$ -	$ 14,556,116	$ -	$ 14,556,116

Assets at Fair Value as of December 31, 2008

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Common/collective trusts	$ -	$ 11,667,220	$ -	$ 11,667,220

NOTE 5 – GUARANTEED INVESTMENT CONTRACTS

The benefit-responsive guaranteed investment contracts invested with Wilmington Trust Fiduciary Services Company, one of the Plan's two trustees in 2009, is credited with earnings on the underlying investments and charged for participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. The guaranteed investment contract issuer is contractually obligated to repay the principal and a specified interest rate that is guaranteed to the Plan.

Because the guaranteed investment contract is fully benefit-responsive, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits attributable to the guaranteed investment contract. The guaranteed investment contract is presented on the face of the statement of net assets available for benefits at fair value with an adjustment to contract value in arriving at net assets available for benefits. Contract value, as reported by Wilmington Trust Fiduciary Services Company, represents contributions made under the contract, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. Participants may ordinarily direct the withdrawal or transfer of all or a portion of their investment at contract value.

NOTE 5 – GUARANTEED INVESTMENT CONTRACTS

There are no reserves against contract value for credit risk of the contract issuer or otherwise. The fair value of the guaranteed investment contract held by Wilmington Trust Fiduciary Services Company at December 31, 2009 and 2008 was $567,086 and $2,031,564, respectively. The crediting interest rate for Wilmington Trust Fiduciary Services Company is based on a formula agreed upon with the issuer, but it may not be less than zero. Such interest rates are reviewed on a quarterly basis for resetting. The key factors that could influence future crediting rates are changes to market interest rates, changes in the market value of securities, changes in the duration or weighted average life of securities and deposits or withdrawals to investment contracts.

Certain events limit the ability of the Plan to transact at contract value with the issuer. Specifically, any event outside the normal operation of the Plan which causes a withdrawal from an investment contract may result in a negative market value adjustment with respect to such withdrawal. Such events include, but are not limited to, the following: (1) complete or partial legal termination of the Plan, (2) tax disqualification of the Plan, and (3) certain Plan amendments if issuers' consent is not obtained. The plan administrator does not believe that any events which would limit the Plan's ability to transact at contract value with participants are probable of occurring.

Average Yields	2009	2008
Based on actual earnings	1.06%	2.65%
Based on interest rate credited to participants	0.75%	1.27%

NOTE 6 – PLAN TERMINATION

The Corporation has the right to permanently discontinue its contributions to the Plan or to partially or completely terminate the Plan in the future. If that occurs, all participants then become fully vested and are not thereafter subject to forfeiture. The Administrator may continue the Plan or direct that all assets be distributed to the participants, and the Administrator's decision is binding on all participants.

NOTE 7 – TAX STATUS

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Corporation by letter dated June 3, 1994, that the Plan is qualified and the trust established under the Plan is tax-exempt under the appropriate sections of the Internal Revenue Code. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. However, the Plan administrator believes that the Plan is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Code.

NOTE 8 – RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Plan invests in various securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participant account balances and the amounts reported in the statement of net assets available for benefits.

NOTE 9 – RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Certain Plan investments are units of common/collective trusts managed by either Wilmington Trust Fiduciary Services Company or John Hancock Life Insurance Company, the trustees as defined by the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions. Fees paid by the Plan for investment management expenses were $25,747 and $201,380 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

The employer absorbs certain administrative costs of operating the Plan.

On January 1, 2010, the Plan was restated and adopted a John Hancock Life Insurance Company prototype Plan.

In preparing these financial statements, the Plan has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through September 23, 2010, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
