1. Description of Plan

The following description of the Mediacom 401(k) Plan ("Plan") is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan available to all eligible employees of Mediacom Communications Corporation ("MCC") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Company"), the Plan's sponsor. This Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA").

In accordance with the provisions of the Plan, each full-time employee becomes eligible to participate in the Plan upon reaching the age of 18 and completion of one-half of one year of service.

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., formerly Wachovia Bank, N.A., is the Plan trustee and recordkeeper.

Contributions

In accordance with the provisions of the Plan, a participating employee may elect to make a regular contribution on a pretax basis, up to a maximum of $16,500 during 2009, as defined by the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC"). Participants 50 years of age and older may elect to contribute a catch up contribution. The limit set by the IRS for catch up contributions during 2009 was $5,500. Participants are not permitted to make after-tax contributions to the Plan.

The Company will make matching contributions on behalf of all participants in the amount of 50% of the first 6% of earnings that the participants contribute to the Plan. In addition, if the Plan administrator determines that the Plan primarily benefits "key employees", or is a "top-heavy plan", the Company may make certain top-heavy minimum contributions on behalf of nonhighly compensated employees in an amount equal to 3% of each employee's compensation to his or her account. There were no top-heavy minimum contributions made in 2009.

The Company may also make discretionary contributions, which shall be allocated to each eligible employee in proportion to his or her compensation as a percentage of the compensation of all eligible employees. The Company made no discretionary contributions in 2009.

Participant Accounts

Each participant's individual account is credited with the participant's contributions, the Company's discretionary and matching contributions, Plan earnings and/or losses, and eligible rollover distributions from other qualified plans. Allocations of investment earnings and losses are based on individual participant account balances as defined in the Plan's provisions.

Vesting
Participants are fully vested immediately in their own contributions plus actual earnings thereon. The participant's interest in employer matching contributions vests as follows:

Years of Service*	Vested Percentage
1	20%
2	40%
3	60%
4	80%
5	100%

*One year of service is equivalent to 1,000 hours worked. However, participant's can only vest up to 20% per fiscal year.

Participant account balances not yet vested at the time of the participant's termination of employment are forfeited by the participant and used by the Company to reduce future employer contributions. In the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits, employer contributions are shown net of forfeitures in the amount of $45,718. There were $3,370 and $964 of forfeitures available at December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

Distributions
Upon termination of service due to death, disability, or retirement, a participant may elect to receive either a lump-sum amount equal to the current value of the vested portion of their account, or annual installments over a ten-year period. The normal retirement age is 65. For termination of service for other reasons, a participant may receive the current value of the vested portion of their account as a lump-sum distribution.

Withdrawals and Loans
In accordance with the Plan provisions, participants may make withdrawals or obtain loans from their accounts. To qualify for a withdrawal, participants must attain age 59-1/2, establish permanent or total disability, or demonstrate financial hardship as defined under the Plan.

Participants may obtain up to three loans equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of his or her vested account balance, with a minimum loan amount of $1,000. Loans are secured by the remainder of the participant's account balance. The interest rates on participant loans during 2009 ranged from 4.25% to 9.25%. Interest rates on the loans are determined by the prime interest rate plus one percent on the date of the issuance. Principal and interest are paid ratably through payroll deductions over a defined period up to 120 months.

Funds available for a hardship withdrawal are limited to a participant's need and may not exceed the total of the participant's contributions, certain Company contributions, and earnings in the Plan, as defined. Eligibility for a hardship withdrawal is defined as the need for uninsured medical expenses, purchase of a participant's principal residence, payment of post-high school tuition, to prevent the loss of residence, payments for burial or funeral expenses for a parent, child, spouse or dependant, or expenses for the repair of damage to the employee's principal residence under Internal Revenue Code Section 165.

Rollovers
The Plan allows rollovers by participants from their pre-existing 401(k) accounts that were established when employed by other companies. Rollover contributions are 100% vested at the time of contribution.

Plan Termination
The Company intends to continue the Plan indefinitely but reserves the right to amend or terminate it at any time. In the event the Plan is terminated, each participant shall become fully vested in his or her account balance. Disbursements to participants shall be made in accordance with the Plan document and applicable ERISA regulations.

Investment Options
Contributions are invested by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo" or the "Trustee") according to the options elected by the participants. All participant and employer contributions are directed by the participant among the available investment options which currently include a variety of mutual funds and a common collective trust. Investment earnings are automatically reinvested in the fund or portfolio from which they were derived. Participants may change their investment elections at any time through an automated phone response system or by accessing the internet web site of the Plan's recordkeeper.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting
The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting.

As described by Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 946-210-45 through 946-210-55 (formerly referred to as Financial Accounting Standards Board Staff Position AAG INV-1, Reporting of Fully Benefit-Responsive Investment Contracts Held by Certain Investment Companies Subject to the AICPA Investment Company Guide and Defined-Contribution Health and Welfare and Pension Plans), collective trusts relating to fully benefit responsive investment contracts held by a defined contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined contribution plan attributable to fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the plan. The Plan invests in investment contracts through a collective trust (the Morley Stable Value Fund). As required by the ASC, the statement of net assets available for benefits presents the fair value of the investment in the collective trust as well as the adjustment of the investment in the collective trust from fair value to contract value relating to the investment contracts. The statement of changes in net assets available for benefits presents the investment in the collective trust on a contract value basis.

Use of Estimates
The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities included in the Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits and the reported amount of net additions and deductions in the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition
The Plan's investments are stated at fair value except for participant loans. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Participant loans are recorded at cost, which approximates fair value. The Plan's interest in the Morley Stable Value Fund is recorded at contract value and the fair value and contract value are based on the fair value and contract value of the underlying investments as reported by the investment advisor using the audited financial statements of the Morley Stable Value Fund at year end. The Morley Stable Value Fund has daily redemptions, trading terms varying from one to three days for participant directed transactions and up to one year for plan sponsor directed transactions, such as a withdrawal from the CCT, and has no unfunded commitments at December 31, 2009. Shares of mutual funds are valued at quoted market prices which represent the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year-end. See Note 7 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Net appreciation (depreciation) in the fair value of investments consists of realized gains or losses and the unrealized appreciation or depreciation on those investments.

Administration
The Plan is administered by the Company. The expenses of administering the Plan are paid by the Company except for investment management fees and loan maintenance fees. Investment management fees and loan maintenance fees, which are charged to the individual participant accounts, are included in the net appreciation amount.

Benefit Payments
Benefits are recorded when paid.

Adoption of New Accounting Standards

Accounting Standards Codification
In 2009, the FASB established the FASB Accounting Standards Codification as the source of authoritative U.S. generally accepted accounting principles recognized by the FASB.

Fair Value Measurements
Effective January 1, 2008, the Plan adopted new ASC guidance for its financial assets and liabilities which establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure requirements about fair value measurements. During August 2009, the FASB issued further guidance on how to measure the fair value of a liability. This guidance did not have a material effect on the Plan's financial statements.

In 2009, the Plan adopted amended ASC guidance for the fair value measurement of investments that calculate NAV per share. This guidance permits, in certain circumstances, the measurement of the fair value of an investment on the basis of NAV per share of the investment. This guidance also requires disclosure by major category of investment about the attributes of investments and the investment strategies of the investees. This guidance did not have a material effect on the Plan's financial statements.

During 2009, the Plan adopted new ASC guidance which requires enhanced disclosures around major security types and changes in valuation techniques and related inputs, if any, during the period (See Note 7).

Subsequent Events
In 2009, the Plan adopted new ASC guidance for subsequent events. This guidance establishes general standards of accounting for and disclosure of events that occur after the date of the Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits but before the financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

Recent Pronouncements
In January 2010, the FASB issued guidance which requires enhanced disclosures about transfers between levels of the three-level fair value hierarchy, requires separate disclosures of purchase, sales, issuance, and settlements in the rollforward of activity relating to Level 3 fair value measurements, and provides clarification of existing fair value disclosures. This guidance is effective for the Plan's annual reporting period ending December 31, 2010, except for the requirement to provide expanded disclosure in the rollforward of activity of Level 3 fair value measurements, which will be effective for the Plan's annual reporting period ending December 31, 2011. The Plan Administrator is currently evaluating the impact of this guidance on the Plan's financial statements.

3. Party-in-Interest Transactions

Plan assets are invested in investments managed by the Plan's trustee. Certain plan assets are invested in mutual funds which are managed by the Plan's trustee. These transactions, as well as participant loans, qualify as party-in-interest transactions. In 2009, the Plan paid Wells Fargo $251,763 for administrative services. These fees are charged directly to individual participant accounts and therefore are not shown on the face of the financial statements, but are reflected in the "net appreciation in fair value of mutual funds" amount shown on the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits.

4. Federal Income Tax Status

On March 31, 2008, the Internal Revenue Service stated that the prototype plan adopted by the Plan, as then designed, qualifies under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC"). The Plan has been amended since the receipt of the prototype letter and has not received a determination letter specific to the Plan itself; however, the Plan administrator believes the Plan is designed and is being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

5. Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Market values of investments may decline for a number of reasons, including changes in prevailing market and interest rates, increases in default, and credit rating downgrades. Due to the level of risk associated with such investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks or investment values in the near term could materially affect a participant's account balance and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits and the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

6. Information Certified by the Trustee

As of December 31, 2009 and 2008 and for the year ended December 31, 2009, the investment and investment income information included in the Plan's financial statements has been derived from information certified as complete and accurate by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. 7. Fair Value Measurements

The following table sets forth the Plan's financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis at December 31, 2009 and 2008. These assets have been categorized according to the three-level fair value hierarchy established by the FASB, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value:

- Level 1 valuation is based on quoted prices for the asset in active markets.
- Level 2 valuation is based on inputs that are observable other than quoted market prices in Level 1, such as quoted prices for the asset in inactive markets or quoted prices for similar assets.
- Level 3 valuation is based on unobservable inputs reflecting the Plan's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the assets.

See Note 2 for the valuation methodology used to measure the fair value of these investments.

At December 31, 2009		Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

(c) Comprised of the Vanguard Mid Cap Index Fund and the Fidelity Advisor Mid Cap Fund T.

(d) Comprised of the Columbia Acorn Fund A.

(e) Comprised of the Vanguard Small Cap Index Fund and the Evergreen Special Values Fund A.

(f) Comprised of the American Funds EuroPacific Growth Fund. This mutual fund is invested primarily in the equity securities of European and Pacific Basin companies.

(g) Comprised of the T. Rowe Price Health Sciences Fund. This mutual fund primarily invests in domestic equity securities of companies primarily engaged in the research, development, production, and/or distribution of products and/or services related to the health sciences industry.

(h) Invested in a mix of equities and bonds based on target retirement year. Consists of the T. Rowe Price Retirement 2010 Fund, the T. Rowe Price Retirement 2020 Fund, the T. Rowe Price Retirement 2030 Fund, and the T. Rowe Price Retirement 2040 Fund.

(i) Comprised of the Morley Stable Value Fund Safeco Omnibus common collective trust (the "Morley Stable Value Fund") which invests in conventional, synthetic, and separate account investment contracts issued by life insurance companies, banks, and other financial institutions. The overall objective of the Morley Stable Value Fund is to provide stable returns; the contracts that it invests in are expected to have principal values that remain stable regardless of the volatility of the financial markets. At December 31, 2009, the assets of the Morley Stable Value Fund were invested as follows: 64% in synthetic investment contracts, 7% in conventional investment contracts, and 29% in cash and cash equivalents. The underlying assets of the synthetic investment contracts were primarily invested in asset backed securities, corporate bonds, mortgage-backed securities, securities issued or backed by the U.S. Government or related entities, money market instruments, and mutual funds and commingled pools invested in similar assets to those noted above.

For the year ended December 31, 2009, the Plan adopted new ASC guidance which requires enhanced disclosures around major security types. As a result, the presentation for the table at December 31, 2008 does not reflect the adoption of this guidance.

At December 31, 2008	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Mutual funds	$ 23,872,080	$ -	$ -	$ 23,872,080
Common Collective Trust	-	24,547,659		24,547,659
Participant loans	-	-	4,082,930	4,082,930
Total	$ 23,872,080	$ 24,547,659	$ 4,082,930	$ 52,502,669

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The valuation methodology used to measure fair value described in Note 2 may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair value. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The table below set forth a summary of changes in the fair value of the Plan's Level 3 assets for the year ended December 31, 2009.

	Participant Loans
Balance, beginning of year	$ 4,082,930
Purchases, sales, issuances and settlements (net)	429,250
Balance, end of year	$ 4,512,180
