Note 1 – Description

Duarte Nursery, Inc., is a California Corporation involved in agriculture in the area surrounding Hughson, California. The Corporation has established a program of benefits constituting an "Employee Welfare Benefit Plan" under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The effective date of this plan is February 1, 1996. The purpose of the plan is to provide for the payment or reimbursement of all or a portion of eligible medical expenses of a covered employee or dependent. Duarte Nursery, Inc. is the named fiduciary and Plan Administrator. The contract administrator of the plan is Transwestern Insurance Administrators, Inc.

General Description of the Plan

The plan pays all eligible participants and their dependents as per a table of benefits in the plan document, including life insurance son the life of the employee and dependents and medical and hospital benefits. Employees and their dependents are eligible for coverage on the first day of the month following completion of 3 months of continuous paid labor by the employee. Life insurance is purchased to pay death benefits; health benefits are paid with an annual maximum of $50,000.

No post retirement benefits are provided.

Effective February 17, 2009, the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA) was signed into law. The ARRA included changes to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA) to continue health coverage for individuals who have lost their jobs through involuntary termination. The ARRA includes a 65% subsidy for the cost of health care continuation coverage for up to nine months for eligible individuals. The health premium subsidy is provided only with respect to involuntary terminations that occur on or after September 1, 2008, through December 31, 2009. ARRA was amended on December 10, 2009, to extend the period for involuntary terminations through February 28, 2010.

Under the ARRA, the COBRA subsidy amount is received directly by the Plan sponsor and not the related Plan. The net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2011 and 2010 , and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended does not reflect any amount associated with the COBRA subsidy as the Plan is not directly entitled to the subsidy.

Note 2 – Summary of Accounting Principles

Accounting Method

The Employee Group Health Benefit plan is on the accrual basis of accounting. Claims are recognized as payables or expenses of the plan when received by the administrator. When a claim is received and processed, within the plan limits, a contribution receivable from the employer is established.

Plan Benefit Obligations

Plan obligations for claims paid after year end and related to the prior year have been properly accrued. The amount of such accrual is determined based upon the actual claims reported after year end through the date of the audit report.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those of estimates.

Subsequent events were evaluated through June 24, 2012, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 3 – Funding Policy

Under the Plan the Company is to make payments to the Plan for the employee claims which the company is responsible to pay. Re-insurance is purchased to provide coverage in excess of specific and aggregate claim amounts. Life insurance is purchased to pay death benefits.

The Company, from time to time, evaluates the cost of the plan and determines the amount to be contributed by the Company and the amount to be contributed by each covered participant.

The Plan sponsor (employer) absorbs all the costs of Plan administration.

Note 4 – Termination of the Plan

The Company reserves the right at any time to terminate the Plan by a written instrument to that effect. All previous contributions by the Company shall continue to be used for the purpose of paying benefits under the provisions of the Plan with respect to claims arising before such termination or shall be used for the purpose of providing similar health benefits to covered participants until all contributions are exhausted.
