RE: Reasonable Cause Letter /Form 5500

To Whom It May Concern:

I must first apologize for our failure to file Form 5500 by its submittal date. As our company's General Manager and head of Human Recourses I am bombarded by sales and irrelevant emails on a daily basis. To be honest the emails regarding the submittal were dismissed as junk mail as there was nothing in regards to the subject matter or sender's name on the email that differentiated it from the dozens of spam emails I get every day. It wasn't until the term "Final Notice" was used that I took notice.

An email from "RS-Admin, RE: Form 5500 is ready for review and submittal" (as the emails were displayed in Lotus Notes (our company's email software)) is very similar to the format of sales and spam emails. Additionally this is my first year being wholly responsible for the review and submission of Form 5500 as my assistant who handled this matter is no longer with the company.

Now that I am aware that RS-Admin is in reference to ADP and the Form 5500 is in reference to our company's retirement plan. I will be able to differentiate these emails from spam and junk emails that use official sounding, but nonspecific wording, in order to entice readers into opening their emails (often subjecting one's computer to a virus at the same time). I'm hopeful that in light situation the late fee for remittance can be waived in this case, regardless I'll be submitting Form 5500 immediately pending review.

Sincerely,

Janice K Usui
