1. DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

The Southern California Aviation, LLC 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan (the Plan) is a qualified retirement plan under the appropriate provisions of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. A general description of the Plan follows and further explanation of the Plan's activities are explained in the plan document. Participants should refer to the plan document, which can be obtained from the Plan's management, for a complete description of the Plan's provisions.

The Plan is a defined contribution plan, covering all eligible employees of Southern California Aviation, LLC (the Company) who have completed 90 days of service and are 21 years of age or older. Plan participants may defer, tax free, up to 100% of their qualified annual compensation into their plan accounts subject to legislative limitations. Additionally, the Company may make a discretionary matching contribution for all active participants with one or more years of service. For the year ending December 31, 2011, the matching contributions were $101,574.

Participants are immediately vested in their tax-deferred contribution. The Company's contributions to Plan participants vest within the first year of service, and are allocated to participants based on compensation.

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right to terminate the Plan. In the event of termination, participants become 100% vested in their accounts.

Participants receive lump-sum distributions equal to the value of their accounts upon termination of employment, death or disability. More detailed information can be obtained from the plan document.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting records of the Plan are maintained on the accrual basis of accounting. The accuracy of these financial statements, notes to financial statements and supplemental schedule of assets held for investment purposes are the responsibility of the Plan's management.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financials statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Management has used estimates principally to determine the fair value of investments.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Investments

The Plan's custodian is John Hancock Life Insurance Company (U.S.A.) (the Custodian). The Plan entered into investment contracts with the Custodian. The Custodian maintains contributions in a pooled separate account.

Pooled Separate Accounts

These funds are credited with earnings on the underlying investments, which are principally regulated by investment companies, and charged for Plan withdrawals and administrative expenses. The contract is included in the financial statements at the net asset value of the shares held by the Plan at year end, which represent contributions made under the contract, plus earnings, less Plan withdrawals and administrative expenses. Although the assets held under the contract are the property of John Hancock USA, Plan participants may direct the investment of their accounts among various investment portfolios operated under the contract. The fair value of the investment contract at December 31, 2011 was $837,358, which represents more than 5% of net assets.

For further disclosure of certification and fair value measurement on these investment options, see the following Notes 4 and 6.

Notes Receivable From Participants

The Plan allows for participants to borrow from their fund accounts, not to exceed the lesser of $50,000 or one-half of the related participant's vested account balance in the Plan. The trustee of the Plan notifies the Company of past due or delinquent loans. If a note receivable becomes uncollectible, it is Plan policy to deem the defaulted loan a distribution, which according to the plan document may be taxable to the participant. The Plan's management expects that all outstanding loans will be collected by the Plan. There is no allowance for doubtful accounts as of December 31, 2011. As of December 31, 2010 the outstanding notes receivable from participants were $101,280, which approximate fair value of the loans. The loans bear an interest rate of 5.25%.

3. PROSPECTIVE BENEFIT PAYMENTS

As of December 31, 2011, there were no participants who had elected to withdraw from the Plan but had not yet been paid.

4. INVESTMENT INFORMATION CERTIFIED BY JOHN HANCOCK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY (U.S.A.)

The Custodian certified the following information included in these financial statements:

4. INVESTMENT INFORMATION CERTIFIED BY JOHN HANCOCK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY (U.S.A.) (continued)

Description	Value at 12/31/11	Value at 12/31/10	Net Change In Value
Pooled separate accounts	$ 837,358	$ 700,935	$ 136,423

The net change in investment value of $136,423 was the result of Plan activity. Increases in value include participant contributions, interest earnings, realized and unrealized gains on investments, rollovers of participant account balances into the Plan, and participant directed transfers between investment options. Decreases in value include benefit payments, realized and unrealized losses on investments, loan withdrawals, participant directed transfers between investment options and administrative expenses. More information and detail on the above increases and decreases can be obtained from the Plan's management.

5. INCOME TAX STATUS

The plan sponsor has adopted a pre-approved plan created by the Custodian. The Plan received a determination letter on December 5, 2002 in which the Internal Revenue Service stated that the Plan, as then designed, was acceptable under section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Plan was amended in 2009, reducing the vesting period for the Company's contributions to less than a year of service. The plan administrator believes that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The Plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan and has concluded that for the year ended December 31, 2011, and for all previous tax years subject to investigation by the relevant taxing authorities, there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is no longer subject to investigation from the relevant taxing authorities for tax years before 2008.

6. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820 establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements).

6. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS (continued)

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described as follows:

Level 1 — Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 — Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 — Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Pooled Separate Accounts: Valued at the net asset value (NAV) of shares held by the Plan at year end.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The Plan uses fair value measurements to record fair value adjustments to certain assets to determine fair value disclosures. The valuation technique used in measuring fair value of investments is determined by the plan administrator, which is consistent with valuation techniques used in the industry.

Assets Recorded at Fair Value on a Recurring Basis

The following table presents by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2011.

	Investment Assets at Fair Value as of December 31, 2011
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Assets
Pooled separate accounts	$ -	$ 837,358	$ -	$ 837,358
Total investments at fair value	$ -	$ 837,358	$ -	$ 837,358

Level 3 assets were 0.0% of total investment assets at fair value.

7. DIFFERENCES BETWEEN FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND SCHEDULE H OF FORM 5500

There were no material differences between the financial information on the accompanying financial statements and the financial statement information on the Internal Revenue Service Form 5500.

8. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through October 8, 2012, the date in which these financial statements were available to be issued. As of this date, there have been no significant events that occurred for which the Company has deemed such disclosure necessary.
