Note 1. Plan Description and Related Information

The following description of The Clarke Group, Inc. Cash or Deferred Profit Sharing Plan and Trust (formerly the Clarke Mosquito Control - Cash or Deferred Profit Sharing Plan and Trust) (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General: The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering substantially all employees of The Clarke Group, Inc. (the Company). Employees are eligible to participate after six months of full-time employment or 1,000 hours of service as defined by the Plan. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Contributions: Participants may contribute an amount from 1% to 100% of their pretax annual compensation, as defined in the Plan, up to the maximum allowed by Internal Revenue Code (IRC 401(g)(i)) (Code), adjusted annually for the cost of living. This amount was $16,500 for the year ended December 31, 2009. Participants who have attained age 50 before the end of the plan year are eligible to make catch-up contributions up to $5,500. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined benefit or defined contribution plans. Participants direct the investment of their contributions into various investment options offered by the Plan. The Plan currently offers participants a common/collective trust and several mutual funds.

The Company contributes a match determined by the Company's board of directors, which is equal to the lesser of 50% of the amount the participant contributed or 2% of the participant's compensation. Additional discretionary amounts may be contributed at the option of the Company's board of directors. The employer match contributions are paid into the Plan with each payroll period along with the employee deferrals. Discretionary amounts are paid in arrears in the third quarter of the following year. The Company's contributions of $278,750 included a discretionary contribution of $102,077 for 2008 which included the use, in 2009, of $20,947 in forfeitures. There was no discretionary contribution for the 2009 plan year.

Participant accounts: Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of (a) the Companies' contributions and (b) plan earnings; and is charged with an allocation of administrative expenses. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Vesting: Participants are immediately vested in their contributions plus actual earnings thereon. Participants vest in the Company's matching and discretionary contribution portion of their accounts plus actual earnings thereon at 20% after two years of continuous service and an additional 20% for each year thereafter, with full vesting after six years of continuous service.

Loans to participants: Participants may borrow from their accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their vested account balance. Loan terms range from one to five years; however, loans used to purchase a primary residence may be up to 15 years. A loan is secured by the balance in the participant's account and bears interest at a rate commensurate with market rates for similar loans, as defined (3.75% to 8.75% for the year ended December 31, 2009 and 4.50% to 8.75% for 2008). Principal and interest is paid ratably through payroll deductions. Participants may have only one loan outstanding at any time.

Note 1. Plan Description and Related Information (Continued)

Payment of benefits: On termination of service due to death, retirement, disability or termination of employment, a participant may elect to receive either a lump-sum amount equal to the value of the vested portion of their account or a distribution by other methods as described in the Plan. Distributions are subject to the applicable provisions of the plan agreement. Effective September 22, 2009, the Plan no longer allows in-service distributions for participants, unless the participant elects to withdraw funds maintained in a segregated account attributable to a rollover from another plan.

Forfeitures: Forfeitures are available to offset contributions which would otherwise be payable by the Company in accordance with the plan agreement. The Company used $20,947 of forfeitures to offset the 2008 contributions paid in 2009. At December 31, 2009 and 2008, the forfeiture account balance totaled $6,797and $20,947, respectively.

Administrative expenses: In general, administrative expenses of the Plan are paid by the Company. Investment management fees, recordkeeping and loan charges are paid by the Plan.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting: The Plan's financial statements are presented on the modified cash basis of accounting. Under this method, interest and dividend income are recognized when received rather than when earned, contributions are recognized when received, benefits are recorded when paid, and administrative expenses are recognized when paid rather than when incurred.

Investment contracts held by a defined contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined contribution plan attributable to fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the plan. The statement of net assets available for benefits presents the fair value of the investment contract as well as the adjustment of the fully benefit-responsive investment contract from fair value to contract value at December 31, 2009 and 2008. The statement of changes in net assets available for benefits is prepared on a contract value basis.

Investment valuation and income recognition: The Plan's investments are stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 5 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Net appreciation includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

New accounting pronouncements: The Plan follows accounting standards established by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the FASB) to ensure consistent reporting of net assets available for benefits and changes in net assets available for benefits. References to Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) in these notes to the financial statements are to the FASB Accounting Standards Codification™, sometimes referred to as the Codification or ASC. The Codification is effective for periods ending on or after September 15, 2009.

In July 2006, the FASB issued an interpretation regarding Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. This guidance clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements. Under this interpretation, the Plan must evaluate income tax uncertainties, assess the probability of the ultimate settlement with the applicable taxing authority and record an amount based on that assessment. The Plan adopted this interpretation effective January 1, 2009. Prior to adoption of this interpretation, the Plan evaluated its uncertain tax positions and related income tax contingencies under the Accounting for Contingencies guidance. The Accounting for Contingencies guidance required the Plan to accrue for losses it believed were probable and could be reasonably estimated. No such losses were accrued in the statement of net assets available for benefits at December 31, 2008. Adoption of this interpretation did not impact on the Plan's net assets at December 31, 2009 and 2008, or changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2009. Management has evaluated the Plan's tax positions and concluded that the Plan had maintained its tax-exempt status and had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements. Therefore, no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the financial statements. With few exceptions, the Plan is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S. federal, state or local authorities for the years before 2006.

During the year ended December 31, 2009, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2009-12, Investments in Certain Entities That Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or Its Equivalent), which, among other things, provides new guidance on valuing and classifying these investments within the fair value hierarchy. As a practical expedient, the Plan may now measure these investments on the basis of the net asset value per share of the investment (or its equivalent) if it is calculated in a manner consistent within the fair value measurement standards of ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures. See Note 5 for the impact of the adoption of this amendment.

Pending accounting pronouncements: In January 2010, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2010-06, "Improving Disclosures about Fair Value Measurements." The update clarifies existing disclosures and requires additional disclosures regarding fair value measurements. Effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2009, entities will be required to disclose significant transfers into and out of Level 1 and 2 measurements in the fair value hierarchy and the reasons for those transfers. Effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2010, entities will need to provide separate disclosures about purchases, sales, issuances and settlements relating to Level 3 investment measurements. As this update relates only to financial statement disclosures, management does not expect it will have an impact on the statement of net assets available for benefits and the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

In September, 2010, FASB issued an amendment, Plan Accounting--Defined Contribution Pension Plans (Topic 962: Reporting Loans to Participants by Defined Contribution Pension Plans (ASU 2010-25), which provides guidance on how loans to participants should be classified and measured by defined contribution pension plans. This amendment requires that participant loans be classified as notes receivable from participants, which are segregated from plan investments and measured at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. This amendment was effective for periods ending after December 15, 2010, with early adoption permitted. This amendment requires retrospective application to all periods presented. This amendment has not yet been adopted. We are currently evaluating the impact of this amendment.

Subsequent events: The Plan Administrator has evaluated subsequent events for potential recognition and/or disclosure through October 4, 2010, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 3. Information Certified and Provided by the Plan's Trustee

On September 14, 2008, the boards of directors of Merrill Lynch and Bank & Trust Co., FSB (Merrill Lynch) and Bank of America, N.A. (Bank of America) approved the purchase of Merrill Lynch by Bank of America, effective 2009. Accordingly, the Plan had a change in trustee during the 2009 plan year. The following is a summary of the investment information as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and for the year ended December 31, 2009, included throughout the Plan's financial statements and supplemental schedules, that was prepared by or derived from information provided by the Plan's trustee (Bank of America for 2009 and Merrill Lynch for 2008) and furnished to the Plan Administrator. The Plan Administrator has obtained certifications from the trustee that information provided to the Plan Administrator by the trustee related to the following investments is complete and accurate. Accordingly, as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, the Plan Administrator instructed the Plan's independent auditors not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information which appears throughout the financial statements and supplemental schedules related to the following investments:

	2009	2008
Investments held by the Plan's trustee at fair value
Common/collective trust funds	$ 1,997,221	$ 1,695,326
Mutual funds	7,602,633	5,613,894
Loans to participants	229,930	208,961
	$ 9,829,784	$ 7,518,181

The Plan's trustee also certified to the completeness and accuracy of $1,565,816 of net appreciation in fair value of investments and $142,713 of dividends related to the aforementioned investments and $15,592 of interest on participant loans for the year ended December 31, 2009. In addition, the Plan's trustee certified the contract value of the shares of the common/collective trust of $2,153,700 and $1,969,025 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

Note 5. Fair Value Measurements

ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under ASC 820 are described below:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in active markets
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair market value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2009 and 2008.

Common/collective trust funds: Valued at the total of the unit prices quoted by the fund, representing the fair value of the underlying investments. The Plan's interest in the common/collective trust funds is based on information reported by the investment advisor using the audited financial statements of the common/collective trust funds at year end.

Mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value ("NAV") of shares held by the Plan at year end.

Participant loans: Valued at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following tables set forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets measured at fair value, as of December 31, 2009 and 2008:

	$ 5,613,894	$ 1,695,326	$ 208,961	$ 7,518,181

The table below sets forth a summary of changes in the fair value of the Plan's Level 3 assets for the year ended December 31, 2009.

	Loans to Participants
Balance, beginning of year	$ 208,961
Purchases, sales, issuances, repayments and settlements (net)	20,969
Balance, end of year	$ 229,930

At December 31, 2009, for Level 2 and 3 investments in certain entities that calculate the net asset value per share as the investment's fair value measurement, the following table provides an overview, by major category, of the nature and risks associated with such investments as well as whether it's probable those investments will be sold at amounts different from their reported net asset value per share based on redemption restrictions, if any.

Investment	Fair Value	Unfunded Commitments	Redemption Frequency (if currently eligible)	Redemption Notice Period
Common collective trust fund (a)	$ 1,997,221	-	N/A	30 Days

(a) This category includes a common/collective trust fund whose objective is to provide preservation of capital, liquidity and current income at levels that are typically higher than those provided by money-market funds and similar to short or intermediate term bond funds without the volatility, before deduction of expenses. The common/collective trust fund invests in traditional guaranteed investment contracts ("GICs") and wrapped portfolios of fixed income investments ("synthetic GICs"). Collectively, these are referred to as "investment contracts." Investments in the common/collective trust fund within participant accounts can be redeemed daily at the net asset value per unit. The Plan can withdraw its investments in the common/collective trust fund at a date approximately 30 business days following advance written request to the trustee.

Note 6. Parties-In-Interest Transactions

Bank of America (formerly Merrill Lynch) manages certain funds for the Plan and is the trustee as defined by the Plan. Therefore, these are party-in-interest transactions.

The Plan is administered by the Administrative Committee appointed by the Company. In addition, certain employees of the Company are responsible for administration of the Plan. The employees are compensated by the Company and do not receive compensation from the Plan.

Note 7. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of plan termination, participants would become 100% vested in their employer contributions.

Note 8. Tax Status

Effective June 29, 2006, the Plan had adopted a Volume Submitter Profit Sharing Plan with CODA (VSPSP) of Chuhak & Tecson PC DBA Washington Enterprises. The VSPSP has received an opinion letter from the Internal Revenue Service that the form of the Plan is acceptable under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code and the Plan has relied upon this opinion letter to operate within. The Plan has been amended since the adoption date. The Plan's sponsor/administrative trustees believe that the Plan is designed and is currently operating in compliance with applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

Note 9. Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risks associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statement of net assets available for benefits.

Note 10. Subsequent Event

On April 23, 2010, the Plan was amended and restated, effective January 1, 2002.
