MMC 401(k) Savings and Retirement Plan
Notes to Financial Statements
For the Year Ended December 31, 2009

A. Description of Plan

The following description of the MMC 401(k) Savings and Retirement Plan provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

1. General. The Plan is a multi-employer defined contribution plan covering substantially all employees of Medical Management Consultants, Inc., Medical Management Consultants International, Modern Medical Consultants, Inc. and other adopting subscribers (together the "Company"). Employees must at least be 21 years of age and complete one month of service to be eligible for elective deferrals. Additionally, employees must complete up to one year of continuous service to participate in matching contributions and discretionary profit sharing contributions. The Charles Schwab Trust Company serves as the trustee and custodian of the Plan. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA).

2. Contributions. Each year, participants may contribute up to 25% percent of pretax annual compensation, as defined in the Plan. Participants who have attained age 50 before the end of the plan year are eligible to make catch-up contributions. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined contribution plans. Participants direct the investment of their contributions into various investment options offered by the Plan. The Plan currently offers approximately 30 mutual funds as investment options for participants. The Company may also make employer matching and profit-sharing contributions. Since inception of the Plan in 2002, the Company has not made any contributions.

3. Participant Accounts. Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of Plan earnings, and charged with an allocation of administrative expenses. Allocations are based on participant's earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

4. Vesting. Participants are vested immediately in their contributions plus actual earnings thereon. Vesting in the Company's contribution is based on years of continuous service and a participant is 100 percent vested after six years of credited service.

5. Participant Loans. Participants may borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum of $50,000 or 50 percent of their account balance, whichever is less. The loans are secured by the balance in the participant's account and bear an average interest rate of 6.00% per annum, which is commensurate with local prevailing rates as determined by the Plan administrator. Principal and interest is paid ratably through payroll deductions.

6. Payment of Benefits. On termination of service due to death, disability, or retirement, a participant may elect to receive either a lump-sum amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account, or annual installments over ten-year period. For termination of service for other reasons, a participant may receive the value of the vested interest in his or her account as a lump-sum distribution.

B. Summary of Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Plan are prepared under the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value (see Note C). Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

C. Fair Value Measurements

The Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") has issued authoritative guidance on fair value measurements and disclosures which provides the framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under the authoritative guidance is described as follows:

Level 1 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 – Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets;
- quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means

Level 3 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2009 and 2008.

Mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value (NAV) of shares held by the Plan at year end.

Participant loans: Valued at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value as of December 31, 2009 and 2008:

	Assets at Fair Value as of December 31, 2009 (Unaudited)
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

F. Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Company by a letter dated October 9, 2003, that the Plan and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). G. Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near-term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statement of net assets available for benefits.
