To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to you for the abatement of potential penalties for the late filing of a 5500 using the online system. Although we have not received a notice from the IRS, we would like to be preemptive in our intent.

We were late in filing the 2012 Form 5500 for the following plan:

Plan Name: Employees Group Benefit Plan / Plan 501

EIN: 91-1934839

Due to changes in our benefits broker in March 2013, each broker assumed the other broker had the responsibility to assist in compiling our filing. We feel as though we were misled by our broker as we did sumbit carrier 5500s to them in 2013 for the 2012 plan and had assumed everything was handled. Upon an audit request for another insurance carrier, we were unable to locate the filing and reached out to the current broker to get this filed ASAP. I would also like to stress that this was not intentional and as soon as this was realized, we have taken action. We request a waiver of all penalties normally associated with the DFVC Program.

Please feel free to contact me if there are any questions or a need for clarification.

Sincerely,

Nazneen Bandukwala
