INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Administrative Committee of the Buckeye-Kroy,
401(k) Plan

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of the Buckeye-Kroy, 401(k) Plan as of December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009 and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits and the schedule of assets held for investments for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Buckeye-Kroy, 401(k) Plan as of December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits and the schedule of assets held for investments for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As indicated in Note 3, the schedule of assets held for investment purposes that accompanies the Plan's financial statements does not disclose the historical cost of the Plan's investments. Disclosure of this information is required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.
