(1) Description of the Plan

The following description of the Medical Emergency Professionals, LLC 401(k) Plan (the "Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

(a) General

The Plan was a defined contribution plan originally adopted on March 1, 1998, and amended and restated on January 1, 2012, January 1, 2015, and most recently January 19, 2016, that provided retirement benefits for employees of Medical Emergency Professionals, LLC and the related companies MEP Observation Services, LLC, MEP of Bristol, LLC, and TransitionCare, LLC (collectively, the “Plan Sponsor"). As of January 19, 2016, the Plan covered substantially all employees who were age twenty-one or older ("participants"). Prior to January 19, 2016, the Plan also required participants to complete two consecutive months of service during which at least 80 hours of service in each of the two months had been completed. This requirement was eliminated through the January 19, 2016 restatement. The Plan was subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA").

During 2016, the Plan Sponsor was acquired by US Acute Care Solutions. In January 2017, the Plan Sponsor elected to merge the Plan into the US Acute Care Solutions Profit Sharing/401(k) Plan and Trust ("USACS Plan"). All participant and Plan Sponsor contributions to the Plan were discontinued effective January 1, 2017. The Plan was merged with, and all Plan assets were transferred to, the USACS Plan on February 28, 2017. The Plan Sponsor contribution receivable as of December 31, 2016 was not remitted to the Plan prior to the merger. The Plan Sponsor contribution receivable as of December 31, 2016 was deposited to the USACS Plan in March 2017 and allocated to Plan participants.

(b) Contributions

Participants could voluntarily make qualified retirement contributions to the Plan which were deductible by the participants for federal income tax purposes under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC"). Participants could also make after-tax Roth contributions and contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined benefit or defined contribution plans. As of January 19, 2016, participant contributions were permitted up to 100% of defined compensation subject to certain IRC limitations. Prior to January 19, 2016, participant contributions were permitted up to 90% of defined compensation subject to certain IRC limitations.

Effective January 19, 2016, the Plan provided for an automatic enrollment provision. New employees who satisfied the eligibility requirements and were hired on or after January 19, 2016 were automatically enrolled in the Plan with deferrals totaling 6% of eligible compensation, unless the employee elected otherwise.

The Plan Sponsor could make a discretionary matching contribution equal to a percentage of the participant's elective deferrals. There were no Plan Sponsor matching contributions for 2017 or 2016.

The Plan also provided that the Plan Sponsor could contribute each year a discretionary profit sharing contribution authorized by the Plan Sponsor's Board of Directors; however, an annual contribution by the Plan Sponsor was not required. During 2016, the Plan Sponsor made discretionary profit sharing contributions of $3,677,099. The Plan Sponsor made no discretionary profit sharing contributions during 2017. Each participant's share of the discretionary profit sharing contribution varied depending on the participant's employee classification.

To be eligible to receive the Plan Sponsor discretionary matching or profit sharing contributions, if any, a participant must have completed 12 consecutive months of service during which time the participant completed at least 1,000 hours of service and was employed on the last day of the Plan year. Plan Sponsor and participant contributions could not exceed the maximum amount allowable for federal income tax purposes.

(c) Participant accounts

Each participant's account was credited (charged) with the participant's contributions and allocations of Plan Sponsor contributions, investment earnings (losses), and administrative expenses. Allocations were based on participant's compensation or account balances as defined in the plan agreement. The benefit to which a participant was entitled was the benefit that could have been provided from the participant's vested account.

(d) Vesting

Participants were immediately vested in their elective salary deferral contributions plus actual earnings (losses) thereon. Vesting in the Plan Sponsor discretionary matching and profit sharing contributions was based on years of service. A participant was 100% vested after three years of service defined as 1,000 hours of service during any Plan year. As a result of the Plan merger, there were no changes to the vesting requirements for Plan Sponsor discretionary matching or profit sharing contributions made prior to the merger date.

(e) Notes receivable from participants

Participants could borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their vested account balance. The notes receivable from participants were secured by the vested balance in the participant's account and bore interest at fixed rates ranging from 5.25% to 5.50%, which were commensurate with local prevailing rates as determined by the plan administrator. Principal and interest were collected ratably through payroll deductions. On February 28, 2017 all notes receivable from participants were transferred to the USACS Plan.

(f) Payment of benefits

On termination of service due to death, permanent disability, or retirement, a participant could elect to receive a lump-sum payment equal to his or her entire account balance. For termination of service due to other reasons, a participant would be entitled to receive only the vested interest in his or her account as a lump-sum distribution. If the value of a participant's account was less than $1,000, the total balance was distributed as an automatic lump-sum payment in cash. If the value of a participant's account exceeded $1,000, the participant had to consent to the distribution before it was made except as allowed by Federal law. The vested portion of the account was to remain in the Plan until such amounts otherwise became distributable under the Plan.

(g) Forfeited accounts

Forfeitures were created when participants terminated employment prior to becoming fully vested in the Plan Sponsor contribution portion of their accounts. Such forfeitures could be used to reduce the Plan Sponsor's contributions to the Plan. At December 31, 2016, forfeited nonvested accounts totaled $248,781. In 2017 and 2016, no forfeited nonvested accounts were utilized. At February 28, 2017, forfeitured nonvested accounts of $248,973 were transferred to the USACS Plan.

(h) Administrative expenses

Certain expenses of maintaining the Plan were paid directly by the Plan Sponsor and were excluded from these financial statements. Fees related to the administration of notes receivable from participants and transaction expenses were charged directly to the participant's account and were included in administrative expenses. Fees incurred by the Plan for the investment management services or recordkeeping were netted within the net appreciation in fair value of the investments, as they were paid through revenue sharing, rather than as a direct payment from the Plan.

(2) Summary of significant accounting policies

(a) Basis of accounting

The financial statements of the Plan were prepared under the accrual basis of accounting.

(b) Investment valuation and income recognition

Investments were stated at fair value. Fair value was the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 4 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities were recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income was recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income was recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation included the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

(c) Notes receivable from participants

Notes receivable from participants were measured at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Delinquent notes receivable from participants were reclassified as distributions when unpaid based upon the terms of the plan agreement.

(d) Payment of benefits

Benefits were recorded when paid.

(e) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America required management to make estimates and assumptions that affected the reported amounts of net assets available for benefits and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(f) Events occurring after reporting date

The Plan Sponsor evaluated events and transactions that occurred between February 28, 2017 and December 21, 2017, which is the date that the financial statements were available to be issued, for possible recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

(3) Summary of information certified by the trustees

The following information was certified as complete and accurate by Vanguard Fiduciary Trust Company, trustee as of February 28, 2017, December 31, 2016 and for the period from January 13, 2016 through February 28, 2017, and Charles Schwab Bank, trustee for the period from January 1, 2016 to January 12, 2016.

	2017	2016
Investments, at fair value	$ -	$ 46,562,632
Notes receivable from participants	$ -	$ 344,879
Net change resulting from investment activity	$ 2,289,759	$ 3,679,632
Interest income on notes receivable from participants	$ 2,374	$ 15,185

(4) Fair value measurements

The Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 820, Fair Value Measurements, provides the framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described below:

Level 1 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 - Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy was based on the lowest level of any input that was significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The following was a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value.

(i) Money market fund: Valued at quoted prices in markets that were actively traded.

(ii) Mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value ("NAV") of shares held by the Plan at year end based on quoted prices in an active market.

(iii) Self-directed investments: Valued at the last reported sales price on the last business day of the Plan year reported by the active markets in which the individual investments were traded. Fixed income securities held as part of self-directed investments were valued based upon the price reported by the markets in which the bonds were traded.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan's management believes its valuation methods were appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value as of December 31, 2016:

	Fair Value Measurements as of December 31, 2016 using the following inputs
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Money market fund	$ 1,397,976	$ -	$ -	$ 1,397,976
Mutual funds	38,926,225	-	-	38,926,225
Self-directed investments	6,238,431	-	-	6,238,431
Investments, at fair value	$ 46,562,632	$ -	$ -	$ 46,562,632

(5) Income tax status

The Plan Sponsor adopted a prototype 401(k) profit sharing plan which received a favorable opinion letter from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") on May 28, 2014, in which the IRS stated that the prototype plan design was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. The Plan itself did not obtain a determination letter from the IRS stating that the Plan was qualified under Section 401(a) of the IRC. The Plan was amended since the opinion letter was obtained. However, the plan administrator believed that the Plan was designed and was being operated in compliance with the applicable provisions of the IRC and was therefore, qualified and exempt from taxation.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America required Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The plan administrator analyzed the tax positions by the Plan, and concluded that as of February 28, 2017 and December 31, 2016, there were no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan was subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

(6) Untimely remittance of participant contributions

The Plan Sponsor was required by Department of Labor regulations to remit participant contributions as soon as practicable, but by no later than the fifteenth business day following the end of the month in which the amounts were withheld from wages. For certain contributions withheld in 2014 and 2015, the funds were not remitted timely and lost earnings were not remitted prior to the merger with the USACS Plan.

(7) Related party transactions

As of December 31, 2016, certain Plan investments were shares of a money market fund and mutual funds managed by Vanguard Fiduciary Trust Company, the trustee. Therefore, these transactions qualified as party-in-interest transactions. Self-directed investments also contained shares of a money market fund, mutual funds and exchange traded funds managed by Vanguard Fiduciary Trust Company or affiliates of Vanguard Fiduciary Trust Company, therefore these transactions qualified as party-in-interest transactions. Administrative expenses of $800 and $7,587 were paid in 2017 and 2016, respectively, by the Plan to the trustee and qualified as party-in-interest transactions. The Plan also held notes receivable from participants which qualified as party-in-interest transactions.

(8) Reconciliation of financial statements to Form 5500

The following is a reconciliation of net assets available for benefits per the financial statements to the Form 5500 as of December 31, 2016:

Net assets available for benefits per the financial statements	$ 50,562,075
Participant contributions receivable	(51,317)
Plan Sponsor contributions receivable	(3,603,247)
Other	-
Net assets available for benefits per the Form 5500	$ 46,907,511

The following is a reconciliation of the changes in net assets available for benefits per the financial statements to the Form 5500 for the period ended February 28, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016:

	2017	2016
Change in net assets available for benefits per the financial statements	$ (50,562,075)	$ 7,866,481
Change in participant contributions receivable	51,317	(51,317)
Change in Plan Sponsor contributions receivable	3,603,247	(460,285)
Other	-	7,537
Change in net assets available for benefits per the Form 5500	$ (46,907,511)	$ 7,362,416

(9) Risks and uncertainties

The Plan utilized various investment instruments. Investment securities, in general, were exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it was reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities would occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits.
