Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Plan's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial status in liquidation of the Flagler System Health Benefit Trust as of October 31, 2016 and the changes in its financial status for the period September 1, 2016 through October 31, 2016 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis of Accounting

As described in Note 2, the Trustees of the Plan prepared the accompanying financial statements on the liquidation basis of accounting. Our opinion is not modified in respect to that matter.

FLAGLER SYSTEM HEALTH BENEFIT TRUST

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 – Description of Plan

The following description of the Flagler System Health Benefit Trust (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan Agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan provides health benefits covering substantially all employees of Flagler System, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Company). The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended.

Benefits

The Plan provides benefits (medical, surgical, sickness, accident, death, disability and hospitalization) to full-time employees of the Company working at least 30 hours a week and their eligible dependents.

Plan participants were able to select from one of the following three programs for health care coverage:

- Standard Plan – High Deductible
- Deluxe Plan – Low Deductible
- Choice Plan (formerly POS II Plan)

Effective September 1, 2016, benefits were provided by Cigna. All plans were open access, however coverage under the Standard and Deluxe Plans were provided through an established provider network while participants in the Choice Plan (formerly POS II Plan) could choose providers who were outside the established network.

Health care claims in excess of stipulated amounts were insured by Cigna for the period September 1 through October 31, 2016. Life, accidental death and dismemberment, short-term and long-term disability benefits are insured by Lincoln Financial.

Funding of benefits

Participants contribute to the Plan a monthly premium amount as determined by the Trustees, based in part upon a rate adequacy analysis performed by benefit consultants. Participants may also contribute amounts to extend coverage to eligible dependents. Dependent coverage is a three-tiered program whereby the employee may elect employee/spouse, employee/children or full family coverage.

The Company contributes premiums to the Plan in an amount sufficient to pay for all claims after taking into consideration the level of employee premium contributions as well as amounts required to pay life, accidental death and dismemberment, and short-term and long-term disability insurance premiums, as well as administrative expenses.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following are the significant accounting policies followed by the Plan:

Basis of accounting

On September 13, 2016, the Company's Board of Directors approved a resolution to dissolve the Trust as of October 31, 2016 (Date of Liquidation), as it determined the Trust no longer provided significant tax benefits and created additional administrative and regulatory burdens. The resolution also approved the use of all Trust assets to pay for claims, insurance premiums and administrative expenses through October 31, 2016, the closing of the Trust bank accounts, and provided that the payment of all future health claims, insurance premiums and administrative expenses come from the general assets of the Company. As a result of this resolution, the financial statements of the Trust are prepared using the liquidation basis of accounting.

Plan benefit obligations

The plan benefit obligations as of October 31, 2016 were assumed by the Company.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make significant estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, benefit obligations and changes therein, and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates and the differences could be material.

Cash equivalents

The Plan considers all highly-liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Concentration of credit risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Plan to concentration of credit risk include cash and cash equivalents. The Plan places its cash with high credit-quality financial institutions. Such balances generally exceed FDIC limits.

Note 3 – Health Claims Paid and Accrued

The following is a summary of health claims paid and accrued for the period September 1, 2016 through October 31, 2016:

Health claims paid or accrued	$ 1,219,064
Specific insurance recoveries received or accrued	(31)
Total	$ 1,219,033

Note 4 – Due to / from Employer

Periodically, the Company provides short-term advances to the Plan in excess of premiums in order to pay health claims and administrative expenses. Such advances are uncollateralized, non-interest bearing, and payable on demand. All due to or from balances with the Employer were satisfied as part of the liquidation.

Note 5 – Administrative Expenses

The accounting and personnel offices of the Company provide management and administrative support to the Plan. The Company charged a portion of such costs to the Plan in the amount of approximately $6,000 for the period ended October 31, 2016.

Note 6 – Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Company by letter dated February 5, 1988, that the Plan and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Plan administrator believes that the Plan is designed and continues to qualify and operate in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

Note 7 – Subsequent Events

As of the date of liquidation, the Plan's net liabilities were assumed by the Company. Management evaluated the Plan's activities subsequent to October 31, 2016 through June 13, 2018, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued, for events that require recognition in the financial statements or disclosure in the notes thereto.

RESOLUTION FOR ADOPTION BY BOARD OF DIRECTORS
FLAGLER SYSTEM, INC.

WHEREAS, Flagler System, Inc. ("FSI") created the Flagler System Health Benefit Trust ("Trust") for the Company's employee benefit plan as of July 9, 1986 with the intent to qualify as a voluntary employees beneficiary association ("VEBA") described in 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as a tax-exempt trust because the use of a VEBA provided several tax benefits for the Company at that time;

WHEREAS, Article IX of the Trust document states "The Trust may be terminated at any time by the Settlor." FSI is the Settlor of the Trust, and;

WHEREAS, after careful evaluation of the purpose and necessity of the Trust by legal and financial professionals retained by The Breakers Palm Beach, Inc., and concluding that the Trust no longer serves to provide any material tax benefit to The Breakers Palm Beach, Inc. or its employees, and creates additional and unnecessary burdens and complications for the employee benefit plan of The Breakers Palm Beach, Inc., it was recommended that FSI:

(1) dissolve the Trust as of October 31, 2016;
(2) use all Trust assets (Cash & US Treasury Bill Investment) to pay for claims, insurance premiums and administrative expenses prior to the date set for dissolution of the Trust;
(3) close the Trust bank account and pay future health claims, insurance premiums and administrative expenses via general assets of the The Breakers Palm Beach, Inc.; and,
(4) change the plan year to a fiscal 9/1 - 8/31 year.

WHEREAS, FSI, acting through its Board of Directors upon recommendation from legal and financial professionals to The Breakers Palm Beach, Inc., has the authority to accept these recommendations.

RESOLVED that, effective September 13, 2016, the Board of Directors accepts the recommendations of the legal and financial professionals and directs The Breakers Palm Beach, Inc. to execute all recommendations.
