INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Trustees
Beldon Roofing & Remodeling Co. Occupational Injury Plan
San Antonio, Texas

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Beldon Roofing & Remodeling Co. Occupational Injury Plan, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits - modified cash basis as of January 31, 2020 and August 31, 2019, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits - modified cash basis for the five month period ended January 31, 2020 and the year ended August 31, 2019, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Plan management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting; this includes determining that the modified cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Plan's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits - modified cash basis of Beldon Roofing & Remodeling Co. Occupational Injury Plan as of January 31, 2020 and August 31, 2019, and the changes in net assets available for benefits - modified cash basis for the five month period ended January 31, 2020 and the year ended August 31, 2019.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note A of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to that matter.

NOTE A - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Change in Fiscal Year End and Change in Plan Status: Effective January 1, 2020, the Plan Sponsor adopted a new fully insured plan to provide benefits for its employees. This VEBA Plan remains in effect to pay self-insured claims incurred prior to January 1, 2020. As a result of the adoption of the new fully insured plan, the eligible participants continuing to receive benefits through the VEBA will be significantly reduced. Concurrent with the Sponsor adopting the new a fully insured plan, the VEBA changed its year end to January 31, 2020.

Basis of Accounting: The financial statements are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). Consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Additionally, the liability for claims incurred but not reported, which is normally required under GAAP, is excluded from these modified cash basis financial statements.

Cash: Cash includes all readily available cash including those accounts with maturities of three months or less, and includes interest earned through the respective year end.

Concentrations of Credit Risk: Financial instruments that potentially subject the Plan to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of temporary cash investments. The Plan maintains cash deposits with major banks, which, from time-to-time, may exceed federally insured limits. The Sponsor periodically assesses the financial condition of the institution and believes that the risk of any loss is minimal.

Subsequent Events: Subsequent events have been evaluated by management through the date of the independent auditor's report. Material subsequent events, if any, are disclosed in a separate footnote to these financial statements.

New Accounting Pronouncements: The Trustees are not aware of any new accounting pronouncements that have been released, and are not yet effective, which will have a significant impact to its financial position or results of operations in future periods.

Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of net assets available for benefits and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements and the reported amounts of changes in net assets available for benefits during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE B - PLAN DESCRIPTION

The following description of the Beldon Roofing & Remodeling Co. Occupational Injury Plan provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan Agreement for a more complete description of the Plan.

General: The Plan provides benefits covering substantially all employees of participating corporations who are members of the Beldon controlled group of corporations, and include: LeafGuard by Beldon, Inc. (all LeafGuard entities), Beldon Enterprises, Inc. (dba Beldon Roofing & Remodeling), and LeafGuard Chicago, LLC. The Sponsor of the Plan is the participating corporations. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The Plan Sponsor has established a trust which holds all Plan assets, and pays all Plan expenses, including claims, insurance premiums, insurance co-payments, and administrative charges. See also Note C.

Contributions: The Plan agreement provides that the Plan Sponsor and the participants make contributions to the Plan from time to time and in such amounts as to provide benefits under the Plan determined by the application of accepted actuarial methods and assumptions. The method of funding shall be consistent with the Plan objectives. Employee contributions are required for optional medical coverage elected for dependents.

Benefits: The Plan provides health benefits (major medical), short and long-term disability, accidental death and dismemberment, and life insurance premiums for covered employees. Employees may elect optional additional coverage for dependents, and if so elected, the employee is responsible for the premiums related to this coverage. The Plan includes a $65,000 standard life insurance policy on substantially all full-time employees.

The Sponsor has in place specific stop loss policies for any medical claim over $100,000 per policy fiscal year. The Plan had recoveries under the stop loss agreements of approximately $470,000 in the 2020 plan year and $530,000 in the 2019 plan year that were netted against claim payments.

The Sponsor funds the Plan with monthly employer contributions, plus employee contributions for optional coverage elected and expense reimbursements. In the event of a deficit, the Sponsor intends to make sufficient contributions to fund benefits as they become payable.

Self Insured Benefits: Health benefits are self-insured. The claims for self-insured benefits (other than short-term disability) are processed by the Plan's third-party claims processors under an administrative service only arrangement. The claims processors pay claims directly to, or on behalf of, participants and are then reimbursed by either the Plan's VEBA trust or general assets of the Sponsor. Despite the Plan's utilization of third-party claim's processors, ultimate responsibility for payments to providers and participants is retained by the Plan.

Expenses of the Plan: Fees and expenses, including those connected with providing administrative services by external service providers, are paid from Plan assets.

Payment of Benefits: Premiums paid by either the Company or the VEBA trust are recorded as premium payments in the accompanying statement of changes in net assets available for benefits. Claim payments are recorded when paid by the third-party claims processor.

Claims Incurred but Not Reported: Claims incurred but not reported (IBNR) represent future benefits that are attributed to health claims each fiscal year. IBNR for health claims is based on data submitted to the Plan administrator in the months following the Plan's year end. The IBNR totaled $268,098 at August 31, 2019 and $127,006 at January 31, 2020. These amounts have been recorded as a receivable due from the Plan Sponsor in the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits. The Plan's Trustees believe the amount recorded for IBNR is adequate, but there can be no assurance the ultimate amounts will not exceed such estimates. Any liabilities in excess of assets will be covered by future employer contributions from participating companies.

Termination: On January 1, 2020 all participants in the Plan were transferred to a new health and welfare plan established by the Company, effectively terminating the Plan. The VEBA trust will remain in existence as long as necessary to pay benefits for claims for participants incurred prior to January 1, 2020.

NOTE C - FEDERAL TAX STATUS

The trust established under the Plan to hold the Plan's assets (VEBA trust) is qualified pursuant to Section 501(c)9 and received an exemption letter from the Internal Revenue Service dated June 28, 1994. The Sponsor has not obtained a more recent tax determination letter; however, the Sponsor believes that the trust continues to qualify for tax exemption as designed. Management is not aware of any tax positions that would have a significant impact on its financial position. Its federal tax returns for the last four years remain subject to examination. The Plan is not subject to the Texas margin tax.

NOTE D - PARTY-IN-INTEREST TRANSACTIONS

The Sponsor provides certain accounting and administrative services to the Plan for which no fees are charged.
