Re: TFG 401(k) Savings Plan (EIN 81-4579176, PN 333) — Plan year ended December 31, 2025 — Status of independent qualified public accountant's report

Van de Ven, LLC is the independent qualified public accountant for the TFG 401(k) Savings Plan and served in that capacity for prior plan years, including the 2024 plan year. The plan administrator engaged our firm for the 2025 plan year under an engagement letter dated August 6, 2026, to perform an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit of the plan's financial statements and ERISA-required supplemental schedules. The custodian's certified investment information was available to us by the date of the engagement letter.

Shortly before fieldwork was to begin, our firm experienced an unexpected and unusual loss of professional staff, reducing our audit staff from seven to three, including two experienced employee benefit plan auditors. We have continued the engagement with our remaining staff and have been hiring and training replacement staff, making certain they have the education and resources to meet the professional standards of the work, including AICPA Employee Benefit Plan Audit Quality Center (EBPAQC) resources and PPC and AuditWatch continuing professional education. As a result of this staffing loss, our report could not be issued by the plan's extended Form 5500 due date of October 15, 2026.

The delay is attributable to these circumstances at our firm and not to the plan or the plan administrator. We expect to issue our report on or before November 20, 2026, and we have informed the plan administrator that we will notify it immediately if that date changes.

We will respond to any inquiry from the Department or the Internal Revenue Service regarding the status of the audit. Please contact the undersigned at 573.335.1231.

Sincerely,

STATEMENT OF REASONABLE CAUSE AND REQUEST FOR CORRECTION PERIOD

Form 5500 Annual Return/Report — Accountant's Report to Follow by Amended Filing

Plan name: TFG 401(k) Savings Plan Plan number: 333
Plan sponsor and plan administrator: FG, LLC d/b/a The Foundation Group,
PO Box 1210, Sikeston, MO 63801
EIN: 81-4579176
Plan year: January 1, 2025 through December 31, 2025
Extended due date: October 15, 2026 (Form 5558 timely filed; Form 5500, Part I, line D, Form 5558 box checked)
Independent qualified public accountant: Van de Ven, LLC, Cape Girardeau, MO (EIN 20-1980733)
Expected date of accountant's report: on or before November 20, 2026
To the U.S. Department of Labor, Employee Benefits Security Administration, and the Internal Revenue Service:

Summary of request

This Form 5500 is filed timely and is complete except for the report of the plan's independent qualified public accountant (IQPA), which will be issued on or before November 20, 2026, and filed by amended Form 5500 within two business days of issuance. The omission results from an unexpected staffing loss at the plan's long-standing audit firm, outside the plan administrator's control. The plan administrator respectfully requests that the Department defer any rejection pending the amended filing, or allow the full 45-day period to correct, and that no civil penalty be assessed by the Department under ERISA Section 502(c)(2) or by the Internal Revenue Service under Internal Revenue Code Section 6652(e).

1. Filing requirement and the omitted item

The plan is required to file as a large plan and to attach an IQPA report under ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(A). The plan administrator has elected an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit, with investment information certified by Lincoln Financial Group under 29 CFR 2520.103-8 and 2520.103-5. Because the report is not yet issued, Schedule H, lines 3a, 3b, and 3d have been left blank, as the Form 5500 instructions direct. Line 3c identifies the plan's accountant, Van de Ven, LLC (EIN 20-1980733).

Every other part of this Form 5500 and its schedules has been prepared from the plan's records and the custodian's certified investment information and, to the best of the plan administrator's knowledge, is complete and accurate. The IQPA report and the financial statements and supplemental schedules covered by it are the only omitted items. This is not a failure or refusal to file: the plan administrator is filing on time and has disclosed the omission and its cause on the face of the filing.

2. Reason the accountant's report is not attached

Van de Ven, LLC, CPAs, has served as the plan's IQPA for prior plan years, including the 2024 plan year. The plan administrator engaged the firm for the 2025 plan year under an engagement letter dated August 6, 2026, to audit the plan's modified cash basis financial statements and ERISA-required supplemental schedules. The audit was expected to be completed in time to file by the extended due date. The certified investment information from the plan's custodian and recordkeeper, Lincoln Financial Group, was available by the date of the engagement letter, in time for timely completion of the audit.

Shortly before fieldwork was to begin, Van de Ven, LLC experienced an unexpected and unusual loss of professional staff, reducing its audit staff from seven to three, including two experienced employee benefit plan auditors. The firm has continued the engagement with its remaining staff and has been hiring and training replacement staff, making certain they have the education and resources to meet the professional standards of the work, including AICPA Employee Benefit Plan Audit Quality Center (EBPAQC) resources and PPC and AuditWatch continuing professional education. Despite these efforts, the audit could not be completed by the extended due date. The firm's letter confirming these circumstances and the expected report date is attached.

The plan administrator could not cure the omission by its own efforts. ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(A) requires that the report be issued by an independent qualified public accountant, so the plan administrator cannot prepare it, and engaging a different firm at this stage would have required a new audit and further delayed, rather than advanced, the filing. The plan administrator has not relied on any other party to make this filing: it is filing the Form 5500 itself, on time, and has disclosed the single omitted item and the expected correction date.

3. Reasonable cause

The delay resulted from circumstances beyond the plan administrator's control and not from willful neglect. The plan administrator exercised ordinary business care and prudence:

1. It retained the plan's continuing, qualified IQPA for the 2025 plan year;

2. The custodian's certified investment information was available in time for a timely audit, and the plan administrator has responded, and will continue to respond promptly, to the auditor's requests;

3. It timely extended the filing deadline by Form 5558;

4. It had the balance of the Form 5500 prepared and is filing it by the extended due date rather than delaying the filing;

5. It has disclosed the omission, its cause, and the expected correction date on the face of this filing; and

6. It has committed to a specific, short correction timetable and will respond immediately to any correspondence from the Department or the Internal Revenue Service.

4. Corrective action and commitments

The plan administrator will file an amended Form 5500 through EFAST2 within two business days after receiving the signed IQPA report, with the report, financial statements, and supplemental schedules attached and Schedule H, Part III completed, including lines 3a and 3b(1). The expected filing date is on or before November 24, 2026, which is within 45 days of the extended due date. The plan administrator will notify the Department and the Internal Revenue Service promptly if the expected date changes, and will provide the engagement letter, the custodian's certification, or other supporting information on request. The plan administrator authorizes the Department to contact the plan's auditor, Scott A. Van de Ven, CPA, Van de Ven, LLC (573.335.1231), to confirm the status of the audit.

5. Requests

ERISA Section 104(a)(4) permits the Department to reject an incomplete filing, and ERISA Section 104(a)(5) provides a 45-day period after rejection to submit a satisfactory revised filing. In light of the facts above, the plan administrator respectfully requests that the Department and, as applicable, the Internal Revenue Service:

1. Accept this Form 5500 as a timely filing and this statement as the plan administrator's explanation of the omission;

2. Defer any rejection or deficiency notice until the amended filing is received or, if a notice is issued, allow the full 45-day period to file the amended Form 5500;

3. If any notice provides a shorter response period, accept the amended filing upon issuance of the report as described above; and

4. Not assess a civil penalty under ERISA Section 502(c)(2) or Internal Revenue Code Section 6652(e), because the omission is due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect.

This statement is also submitted as the plan administrator's statement of reasonable cause for purposes of 29 CFR 2560.502c-2(e), should the Department issue a notice of intent to assess a penalty, and as the written statement of reasonable cause made under penalties of perjury described in Treas. Reg. Section 301.6652-3(b) for purposes of Internal Revenue Code Section 6652(e). The plan administrator reserves the right to supplement it in response to any notice.

Please direct correspondence concerning this filing to: Donald B. Bedell, Plan Administrator, FG, LLC d/b/a The Foundation Group, PO Box 1210, Sikeston, MO 63801, 573-471-1276.
