To the Trustees of the
Livingston International, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan
Tonawanda, New York

We were engaged to audit the accompanying statements of net assets available for plan benefits - modified cash basis of Livingston International, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan as of December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for plan benefits – modified cash basis for the year ended December 31, 2011 and the supplemental schedules of delinquent participant contributions – modified cash basis and assets (held at end of year) – modified cash basis as of and for the year ended December 31,2011. These financial statements and supplemental schedules are the responsibility of the Plan's management.

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, Livingston International, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note 4, which was certified by Principal Life Insurance Company and Delaware Charter Guarantee and Trust Company d/b/a Principal Trust Company, the custodians of the Plan, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules. We have been informed by Livingston International, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan that the custodians hold the Plan's investment assets and execute investment transactions. Livingston International, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan has obtained certifications from the custodians as of December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, and for the year ended December 31, 2011 that the information provided to Livingston International, Inc. 401(k) Plan Retirement Savings Plan by the custodians is complete and accurate.

As described in Note 2, these financial statements and supplemental schedules were prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we are unable to, and do not, express an opinion on the accompanying financial statements and supplemental schedules taken as a whole. The supplemental schedules of delinquent participant contributions – modified cash basis and assets (held at end of year) – modified cash basis as of and for the year ended December 31, 2011 are presented for the purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules, other than that derived from the information certified by the custodians, have been audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

1. Description of the Plan

The following brief description of Livingston International, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan (the Plan) is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan document for more complete information.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan which became effective on June 1, 1998 and allows 401(k) salary reduction. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The Plan Sponsor is Livingston International, Inc. Participants are employees who have completed a minimum of 90 days of services and are age twenty-one or older.

Contributions

Newly eligible participants will automatically begin a 3 percent salary deferral into the default investment option. Employees have the option to indicate to the Plan Sponsor that they do not wish to participant in the Plan. The participants direct where their funds are to be invested.

Participants may elect to make salary-reducing contributions to the Plan up to a maximum of 100 percent of compensation, subject to IRS limitations. The employer matches 100 percent of the first 3 percent and an additional 50 percent of the next 1 percent of gross compensation that a participant contributes to the Plan. Matching contributions may be made before the end of the Plan year for all participants who are active employees of the Plan as of December 31.

Participant Accounts

An account is maintained for each participant in the Plan. This account is credited with salary reduction contributions, employer matching contributions and earnings as allocated. The account is reduced by the payment of benefits and an allocation of administrative expenses. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Vesting

Each participant is fully vested in his or her salary reduction account. After two years of credited services, each participant will be fully vested in her or her employer contribution account.

Notes Receivable from Participants

Participants may borrow up to 50 percent of their vested account balance, with a minimum of $1,000 and a maximum of $50,000. Loan terms shall not exceed 5 years. The loans are secured by the balance in the participant's account and bear interest at the prime rate (3.25 percent at December 31, 2011) plus 2 percent. Principal and interest is paid ratably through payroll deductions. Participants may have only one loan outstanding at any time.

Benefit Payment

On termination of service due to retirement, death, disability, or termination of employment, a participant may elect to receive either a lump sum equal to the value of their vested account balance or fixed period annuities for any period of whole months, which is not less than sixty and does not exceed the life expectancy of the participant or the life of the designated beneficiary. Benefits are also provided upon specific hardships and attainment of age 59½.

1. Description of the Plan (Continued)

Forfeitures

Forfeited accounts will be used to reduce future employer contributions to the Plan and to pay Plan administrative expenses. As of December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, forfeited non-vested accounts totaled $4,645 and $6,573, respectively. Also, in 2011, employer contributions were reduced by $13,230 from forfeited non-vested accounts.

2. Summary of Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The Plan's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the modified cash basis of accounting; consequently, certain revenue is recognized when received rather than when earned and certain expenses are recognized when cash is disbursed rather than when the obligation is incurred. Contributions are shown on the accrual basis of accounting. Benefits are recorded when paid.

As described in Statement of Financial Accounting Board Codification No. 962, Defined Contribution Pension Plans, investment contracts held by a defined-contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined-contribution plan attributable to fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the Plan. The Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits presents the fair value of the investment contracts as well as the adjustment of the fully benefit-responsive investment contracts from fair value to contract value. The Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits is prepared on a contract value basis.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Notes Receivable from Participants

Notes receivable from participants are measured at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Delinquent participant loans are reclassified as distributions based upon the terms of the Plan document.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments are stated at fair value as certified by Principal Life Insurance Company and Principal Trust Company. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income and dividends are recorded on the modified cash basis. Net appreciation includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Administrative Expenses

Plan expenses are paid by the Plan and the Plan Sponsor.

2. Summary of Accounting Policies (Continued)

Subsequent Events
The Plan has evaluated for subsequent events through the date of the independent auditors' report, which is the date the financial statements were made available to be issued.

3. Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price at which an asset could be exchanged in a current transaction between knowledgeable, willing parties. Fair value measurements are categorized into one of three levels based on the lowest level of significant input used: Level 1 (unadjusted quoted prices in active markets); Level 2 (observable market inputs available at the measurement date, other than quoted prices included in Level 1); and Level 3 (unobservable inputs that cannot be corroborated by observable market data).

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010.

Mutual Funds
Valued at the closing price reported in the active market in which the individual funds are traded.

Pooled Separate Accounts
Valued based on the unit values of the funds. Unit values are determined by dividing the fund's net assets, which represents the fair value of the underlying investments, by its units outstanding at the valuation date.

Common Collective Trust
Valued based on the unit values of the funds. Unit values are determined by dividing the fund's net assets, which represents the fair value of the underlying investments, by its units outstanding at the valuation date.

Guaranteed Interest Account
Valued at a fair value by discounting the related cash flows based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable durations considering the credit-worthiness of the issuer.

The preceding methods described may produce fair value calculations that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table presents information about our investments measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, and indicates the fair value hierarchy of the valuation techniques utilized to determine such fair value:

(a) The investment seeks to provide current income. The fund invests at least 80% of its net assets in intermediate maturity fixed-income or debt securities rated BBB- or higher by S&P or Baa3 or higher by Moody's at the time of purchase, including securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. government or its agencies or instrumentalities; asset-backed securities or mortgage-backed securities representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans or other assets; debt securities and taxable municipal bonds; and debt securities issued or guaranteed by foreign governments payable in U.S. dollars.

(b) The investment seeks maximum total return, consistent with preservation of capital and prudent investment management. The fund normally invests at least 80% of new assets in a diversified portfolio of fixed-income instruments of varying maturities, which may be represented by forwards or derivatives such as options, futures contracts, or swap agreements. The average portfolio duration of the fund normally varies within two years (plus or minus) of the duration of the Lehman Brothers Aggregate Bond index. The fund may also invest up to 20% of total assets in high-yield securities rated Ba or lower by Moody's, or BB or lower by S&P.

(c) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests primarily in equity securities of companies domiciled in any of the nations of the world, including those countries with emerging markets. It has no limitation on the percentage of assets that are invested in any one country or denominated in any one currency, but the fund typically invests in at least 30 countries. The fund will invest in equity securities of small, medium, and large capitalization companies.

(d) 80% of its net assets in dividend-paying equity securities. It usually invests in equity securities of companies with large market capitalizations, but may also invest in equity securities of companies with medium market capitalizations. It will also invest in real estate investment trusts and securities of foreign issuers.

(e) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital by investing primarily in stocks of non-US companies with relatively small capitalizations. It invests in securities of companies with their principal place of business or principal office outside of the US; companies for which the principal securities market is outside the US; or companies, regardless of where their securities are traded, that derive 50% of their total revenue outside of the US. Under normal market conditions, it invests at least 80% in companies similar in size to companies included in the Citigroup Extended Market Index (EMI) World ex US.

(f) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies that compose the S&P 500 Index at the time of purchase. The index is designed to represent U.S. equities with risk/return characteristics of the large cap universe. It employs a passive investment approach designed to attempt to track the performance of the index. The fund may utilize derivative strategies.

(g) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies with large market capitalizations (those with market capitalizations similar to companies in the Russell 1000(R) Growth Index) at the time of purchase. It invests in value equity securities. The fund may actively trade portfolio securities.

(h) The investment seeks current income, and as a secondary objective, capital appreciation. The fund invests in underlying Principal Funds, Inc. ("PFI") domestic and foreign equity, real estate investments, and fixed-income funds according to an asset allocation strategy designed for investors primarily seeking current income and secondary capital appreciation.

(i) The investment seeks a total return consisting of long-term growth of capital and current income. The fund operates as a "target date" fund. It invests in underlying Principal Funds, Inc. ("PFI") domestic and foreign equity, real estate investments, and fixed-income funds according to an asset allocation strategy designed for investors having an investment time horizon comparable to that of the fund.

(j) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies with medium market capitalizations (those with market capitalizations similar to companies in the Russell Midcap(R) Index) at the time of purchase. It invests in equity securities with value and/or growth characteristics and constructs an investment portfolio that has a "blend" of equity securities with these characteristics. The fund may invest in foreign securities.

(k) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies with medium market capitalizations (those with market capitalizations similar to companies in the Russell Midcap(R) Growth Index) at the time of purchase. It invests in growth equity securities.

(l) The account invests mainly in short-term securities such as commercial paper.

(m) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies with large market capitalizations that compose the S&P 500 Index at the time of purchase. The fund will also invest in securities of foreign issuers. Employing a "blend" strategy, the fund's assets are invested in equity securities with both growth and/or value characteristics. The growth orientation selection emphasizes buying equity securities of companies whose potential for growth of capital and earnings is expected to be above average.

(n) The investment seeks a total return consisting of long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in a diversified portfolio of equity securities of companies with a medium market capitalization (those with market capitalizations similar to companies in the Russell Midcap Value Index) at the time of purchase. It invests in value equity securities.

(o) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies that compose the S&P's Small Cap 600 Index at the time of purchase. The index is designed to represent U.S. equities with risk/return characteristics of the small cap universe. It employs a passive investment approach designed to attempt to track the performance of the index. The fund invests in index futures and options and exchange-traded funds on a daily basis to gain exposure to the Index in an effort to minimize tracking error relative to the benchmark.

(p) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies that compose the S&P's Small Cap 400 Index at the time of purchase. The index is designed to represent U.S. equities with risk/return characteristics of the mid cap universe. It employs a passive investment approach designed to attempt to track the performance of the index. The fund invests in index futures and options and exchange-traded funds on a daily basis to gain exposure to the Index in an effort to minimize tracking error relative to the benchmark.

(q) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies with large market capitalizations (those with market capitalizations similar to companies in the Russell 1000(R) Growth Index) at the time of purchase. It invests in growth equity securities; growth orientation emphasizes buying equity securities of companies whose potential for growth of capital and earnings is expected to be above average.

(r) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies with small market capitalizations (those with market capitalizations similar to companies in the Russell 2000(R) Index) at the time of purchase. It invests in equity securities with value and/or growth characteristics and constructs an investment portfolio that has a "blend" of equity securities with these characteristics. The growth orientation selection emphasizes buying equity securities of companies whose potential for growth of capital and earnings is expected to be above average.

(s) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies with small market capitalizations (those with market capitalizations similar to companies in the Russell 2000(R) Growth Index) at the time of purchase. It invests in growth equity securities; growth orientation emphasizes buying equity securities of companies whose potential for growth of capital and earnings is expected to be above average.

(t) The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of companies with small market capitalizations (those with market capitalizations similar to companies in the Russell 2000(R) Value Index) at the time of purchase. It invests in value equity securities. The fund will also invest in real estate investment trusts.

(u) The investment invests in other pooled separate accounts offered by Principal. These separate accounts include Bond & Mortgage, Diversified International, Large Cap Growth, Large Cap Value, Small Cap Growth, Small Cap Value and US Property.

(v) The investment is a core real estate account designed to have a low to moderate risk profile compared to other funds. Low to moderate real estate property risk is accomplished by investing primarily in well-leased properties on an unleveraged basis. Low to moderate portfolio risk is accomplished by operating with limited portfolio level obligations and a well diversified portfolio.

(w) The objective of the Fund is to provide a low-risk, moderate-yield investment. The Fund is managed to earn a consistent level of return, while providing for preservation of capital, high credit quality and liquidity to pay plan benefits.

4. Financial Certification (Unaudited)

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, the Plan has elected to utilize the certification of certain financial information by Principal Life Insurance Company and Principal Trust Company, in compliance with the audit requirements of the Act.

The following is a summary of the unaudited information included in the accompanying financial statements and supplemental schedules that was prepared and furnished to the Plan by Principal Life Insurance Company and Principal Trust Company. The Plan has obtained certifications from Principal Life Insurance Company and Principal Trust Company that such information is complete and accurate as of December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010 and for the year ended December 31, 2011.

Interest income on notes receivable from participants	25,383	-

5. Party-in-Interest Transactions

Certain Plan investments are units of pooled separate accounts, units of common collective trust accounts, and insurance company general accounts managed by Principal Life Insurance Company. Principal is both the custodian and record keeper of the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions. Fees paid to Principal by the Plan for administrative services amounted to $25,855 for the year ended December 31, 2011.

6. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the employer reserves the right to terminate or revoke the Plan at any time, subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of termination or partial termination, all participants affected shall have a fully vested and non-forfeitable right to the amount credited to their accounts at the date of such termination.

7. Tax Status

The Plan uses a prototype plan document sponsored by Principal Life Insurance Company. Principal Life Insurance Company received an opinion letter from the IRS dated March 31, 2008, which states that the prototype document satisfies the applicable provisions of the IRC. The Plan itself has not received a determination letter from the IRS. However, the Plan's management believes that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRS. Therefore, no provision for income tax has been included in the Plan's Financial Statements.

7. Tax Status (Continued)

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Plan Sponsor has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2011, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Plan Sponsor believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2008.

8. Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

9. Reconciliation of Form 5500 to the Financial Statements

The following is a reconciliation of net assets available for benefits per Form 5500 to the financial statements:

	December 31, 2011	December 31, 2010
Net assets available for plan benefits per the Form 5500	$ 12,311,482	$ 12,611,510
Employer receivable	26,774	-
Earnings on late employee/employer contributions	-	750
Adjustment from fair value to contract value for fully benefit-responsive investment contract	(23,284)	(16,743)
Net assets available for plan benefits per the financial statements	$ 12,314,972	$ 12,595,517

The following is a reconciliation of net investment income per Form 5500 to the financial statements:

	For the Year Ended December 31, 2011
Net decrease per the Form 5500	$ (300,028)
Employer contributions	26,774
Earnings on late employee/employer contributions	(750)
Adjustment from fair value to contract value for fully benefit-responsive investment contract	(6,541)
Net decrease per the financial statements	$ (280,545)

10. Nonexempt Prohibited Transactions

Some employee 401(k) pretax contributions were not remitted to the Plan within the defined time period. The defined time period requires that Plan Sponsors remit the employee contributions to the Plan as soon as they can be reasonably segregated from the Plan Sponsor's general assets.

A party-in-interest engaging in a nonexempt prohibited transaction is subject to an excise tax of 15 percent. The tax is imposed even if the transaction was inadvertent or benefits the Plan. Further, additional taxes may be imposed if the transaction is not corrected in a specified period of time. Nonexempt transactions are disclosed in the accompanying supplemental schedule of delinquent participant contributions.

The Plan has corrected the violations and restored the lost earnings to the Plan during 2011. The Plan Sponsor paid the excise tax and the lost earnings.

11. Subsequent Events

Effective January 1, 2012, all participants who are eligible to make elective deferral contributions may elect to designate all or any portion of their future elective deferral contributions as Roth elective deferral contributions.

During March of 2012, the Plan Sponsor acquired Highpage Company, Inc and merged the Company's 401(k) plan into the Plan. Total Plan investments in the amount of $6,203,224 and notes receivable from participants in the amount of $167,738 were transferred into the Plan as of March 1, 2012.
