LESSING'S INC. SAVINGS AND SECURITY PLAN

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2012

A – DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the Lessing's, Inc. Savings and Security Plan provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

1. General. The Plan is a deferred profit sharing plan covering all employees of Lessing's, Inc. who have attained age twenty-one or older and have met the eligibility requirements. Members of a collective bargaining unit, non-resident aliens, and employees that were acquired in an acquisition, merger, or similar transaction are not eligible for the Plan.

2. Contributions. There are three categories of Plan contributions, which may be subject to limitations as set forth in the Plan document.

   Participant Contributions:

   Elective 401(k) Deferrals – Participants may elect to have up to 100 percent (subject to limitations) of their annual compensation deferred and contributed to the Plan by the Company on their behalf. For 2012 elective 401(k) deferrals totaled $462,162.

   Employer Contribution:

   Matching Contributions – The Company may elect to make a matching contribution of a certain percentage or dollar amount on behalf of each participant. The amount of the match depends on the participant's salary deferrals and will be made on the last day of the pay period. The Company will limit matching contributions for amounts in excess of the first 2.000% of compensation as elective contributions. For 2012 matching contributions totaled $57,954.

   Discretionary Contributions – The Company may elect to make a profit sharing contribution to the plan each year in such amount, if any, as it may determine.

3. Participant accounts. For each participant, separate accounts are maintained for Employer matching contributions, Employer discretionary contributions, and participant contributions. The Employer contribution accounts are credited with matching contributions and an allocation, based on eligible participant compensation of the discretionary contribution (if any). The participant contribution accounts are credited with elective 401(k) deferrals. Plan earnings are credited to each employees account based upon the earnings in that account. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is equal to that which can be provided from the participant's accounts.

4. Vesting. Participants are immediately vested in their participant contributions plus allocated earnings thereon. Vesting in the Company's matching and discretionary contributions is based on years of continuous service. A participant is 100 percent vested after six years of credited service. Non-vested amounts in the accounts of terminated employees are forfeited and revert to the Company.

Participant-Directed Invested fund Options. All of the Plan's investment fund options are participant-directed. The Plan Administrator and Trustee are not involved in the participant's investment decisions. Each participant has the option to divide his/her investment among twenty seven investment fund options. The Plan allows each participant to periodically change his/her investment direction for future contributions and to transfer amounts already invested. Each investment fund option has different investment objectives and portfolio composition.
