Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Trustees
Flagler System Health Benefit Trust

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Flagler System Health Benefit Trust (the Plan) which comprise the statements of benefit obligations and net assets available for plan benefits as of June 30, 2013 and 2012, and the related statements of changes in benefit obligations and net assets available for plan benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Note 1 – Description of Plan

The following description of the Flagler System Health Benefit Trust (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan Agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan provides health benefits covering substantially all employees of Flagler System, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Company). The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended.

Benefits

The Plan provides benefits (medical, surgical, sickness, accident, death, disability and hospitalization) to full-time employees of the Company working at least 30 hours a week and their eligible dependents.

Plan participants may select from one of the following two programs for health care coverage:

- Open Access Select
- Choice POS II

Coverage under the Open Access Select is provided through an established provider network while participants in the Choice POS II may choose providers who are outside the established network.

Funding of benefits

Participants contribute to the Plan a monthly premium amount as determined by the Trustees, based in part upon a rate adequacy analysis performed by benefit consultants. Participants may also contribute amounts to extend coverage to eligible dependents. Dependent coverage is a three-tiered program whereby the employee may elect employee/spouse, employee/children or full family coverage.

The Company contributes premiums to the Plan in an amount sufficient to pay for all claims after taking into consideration the level of employee premium contributions as well as amounts required to pay life, accidental death and dismemberment, and short-term and long-term disability insurance premiums, as well as administrative expenses.

Health care claims in excess of stipulated amounts are insured by Zurich. Life, accidental death and dismemberment, short-term and long-term disability benefits are insured by Prudential Financial.

Plan termination

The Plan may be terminated at any time by the Company. In the event of termination, the Trustees shall apply the balance of the Plan to provide health and welfare benefits for employees, their families and dependents who are covered up to the termination date.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following are the significant accounting policies followed by the Plan:

Basis of accounting

The financial statements of the Plan are prepared using the accrual method of accounting.

Plan benefit obligations

Plan benefit obligations as of June 30, 2013 and 2012 for health claims incurred by active participants but not reported, have been reviewed by an actuary in accordance with accepted actuarial principles.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make significant estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, benefit obligations and changes therein, and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates and the differences could be material.

Cash equivalents

The Plan considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Concentration of credit risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Plan to concentration of credit risk include cash and cash equivalents. The Plan places its cash with high credit quality financial institutions. Such balances generally exceed FDIC limits.

Note 3 – Health Claims Paid and Accrued

The following is a summary of health claims paid and accrued for the years ended June 30, 2013 and 2012:

	2013	2012
Health claims paid or accrued	$ 5,524,028	$ 5,546,525
Specific insurance recoveries received or accrued	(123)	(91,901)
Total	$ 5,523,905	$ 5,454,624

Note 4 – Administrative Expenses

The accounting and personnel offices of the Company provide management and administrative support to the Plan. The Company charged a portion of such costs to the Plan in the amount of approximately $35,000 and $34,000 for the years ended June 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

Note 5 – Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Company by letter dated February 5, 1988, that the Plan and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Plan administrator believes that the Plan is designed and continues to qualify and operate in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

Note 6 – Subsequent Events

Management evaluated the Plan's activities subsequent to June 30, 2013 through August 30, 2013, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued, for events that require recognition in the financial statements or disclosure in the notes thereto.
