INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Trustees and Participants of Arnold Oil Company of Austin, Inc. Profit Sharing and 401(k) Plan:

Report on the Financial Statements

We were engaged to audit the accompanying financial statements of Arnold Oil Company of Austin, Inc. Profit Sharing and 401(k) Plan (the "Plan"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of September 30, 2013 and 2012, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended September 30, 2013, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on conducting the audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Because of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, however, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's ("DOL") Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), the Plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note 4, which was certified by Principal Life Insurance Company, the custodian of the Plan, except for comparing such information with the related information included in the financial statements. We have been informed by the Plan administrator that the custodian holds the Plan's investment assets and executes investment transactions. The Plan administrator has obtained a certification from the custodian as of September 30, 2013 and 2012, and for the year ended September 30, 2013, that the information provided to the Plan administrator by the custodian is complete and accurate.

Disclaimer of Opinion

Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we have not been able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on these financial statements.

Other Matter

The supplemental schedules of Assets Held at End of Year and Delinquent Participant Contributions as of or for the year ended September 30, 2013 are required by the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA and are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements. Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we do not express an opinion on these supplemental schedules.

Report on Form and Content in Compliance with DOL Rules and Regulations

The form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules, other than that derived from the information certified by the custodian, have been audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following brief description of Arnold Oil Company of Austin, Inc. Profit Sharing and 401(k) Plan (the "Plan") is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for complete information.

General - The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering substantially all employees of Arnold Oil Company of Austin, Inc. (the "Company"). It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"). Principal Life Insurance Company (the "Custodian") is the Plan's custodian. The Plan is administered by the Company and certain officers of the Company act as trustees (the "Trustees") of the Plan.

Eligibility - Employees are eligible to participate in the Plan once they have reached twenty-one years of age and completed twelve consecutive months in which they have at least 1,000 hours of service. Employees eligible to participate in the Plan may enroll beginning the first of the quarter coinciding with or following the date the eligibility requirements are met. To be eligible for the discretionary employer contribution, a participant must have completed at least 1,000 hours of service during the Plan year.

Contributions - A participant may authorize the Company to withhold pre-tax contributions up to the annual limit established by the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC"). Participants who have attained age fifty before the end of the Plan year are eligible to make catch-up contributions. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined benefit or contribution plans, subject to certain restrictions.

The Company may make a discretionary contribution to be shared on a pro rata basis among all eligible employees based on each participant's eligible compensation compared to total eligible compensation. The Company did not elect to make a discretionary contribution for the Plan year ended September 30, 2013.

Participants direct the investment of contributions into various investment options offered by the Plan.

Participant Accounts - Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contributions, the Company's contributions and an allocation of Plan earnings, and may be charged with Plan expenses if applicable. Allocations are based on participant earnings, account balances or specific participant transactions, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account balance.

Notes Receivable from Participants - Participants may borrow from their accounts a minimum of $1,000 and up to a maximum of $50,000 reduced by the highest oustanding note receivable balance over the prior twelve month period or 50% of their vested account balance reduced by any outstanding note receivable balance, whichever is less. Participant notes receivable are secured by the vested balance in the participant's account and bear interest at a reasonable interest rate as determined by the Company. Participants may have only one note receivable outstanding at a time. Principal and interest are paid ratably through payroll deductions over a period generally not to exceed five years.

Vesting - Participants are immediately vested in their voluntary contributions plus actual earnings thereon. Vesting in the Company's contributions plus actual earnings thereon is based on years of credited service. A participant is 100% vested after six years of credited service, which is earned in 20% increments annually beginning after two years of service. Participants may also become fully vested upon attainment of normal or early retirement age or upon termination of employment due to disability or death.

Payment of Benefits - Upon death, disability, attainment of age 59.5, retirement or termination of employment, a participant may elect to receive a lump sum or installment payments equal to the participant's vested account balance. Hardship distributions are also permitted from a participant's account and will result in a six-month suspension during which no contributions may be made to the participant's account. The Plan administrator may distribute terminated participants' account balances that are less than $1,000 in a lump sum without the participants' consent. The Plan administrator may transfer terminated participants' account balances that are at least $1,000 but less than $5,000 into an individual retirement account without the participants' consent.

Forfeitures - Forfeitures of unvested participant account balances are first used to pay administrative expenses and may then be shared on a pro rata basis among all eligible participants based on each participant's eligible compensation compared to total eligible compensation. Forfeitures were not utilized during the year ended September 30, 2013 and there was no forfeiture balance as of September 30, 2013 or 2012.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting - The Plan's financial statements are reported on the accrual basis of accounting.

Accounting Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from these estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition - Investments are reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Plan's Investment Committee determines the Plan's valuation policies utilizing information provided by the investment advisers and Custodian. See Note 3 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Net appreciation includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the Plan year.

Notes Receivable from Participants - Notes receivable from participants are measured at the unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. No allowance for credit losses has been recorded at September 30, 2013 or 2012. Delinquent notes receivable from participants are reclassified as distributions based upon the terms of the Plan document.

Benefits Paid to Participants - Benefits are recorded when paid.

Expenses - Certain expenses of maintaining the Plan are paid directly by the Company and are excluded from the financial statements. Fees related to the administration of notes receivable from participants and certain distributions are charged directly to the participant's account and are included in administrative expenses. Investment related expenses are included in net appreciation in fair value of investments.

Risks and Uncertainties - Financial instruments which potentially subject the Plan to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of investment securities in which the Plan invests. Investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

Plan Termination - Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of Plan termination, participants would become 100% vested in their accounts and distributions will be made as soon as administratively practicable after the Plan terminates.

Subsequent Events - The Company has evaluated subsequent events through July 15, 2014, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and no events have occurred through that date that would impact the financial statements.

3. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Plan follows a framework for measuring fair value, which provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3).

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described as follows:

Level 1 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 - Inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets; inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. There are three general valuation techniques that may be used to measure fair value: i) market approach - uses prices generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable assets or liabilities; ii) cost approach - uses the amount that currently would be required to replace the service capacity of an asset (replacement cost); and iii) income approach - uses valuation techniques to convert future amounts to present amounts based on current market expectations.

Assets allocated to the separate accounts can include, but are not limited to, stocks, bonds, mortgages, real estate, mutual funds, other separate accounts and cash and cash equivalents as specified in each separate account's investment policy. The fair value of a separate account is its market value less operating expenses accrued but not deducted, if any. If there is no readily available market, its value is the fair value of the underlying investments held in such separate account as determined by the Custodian using GAAP and applicable law. The Plan holds units of participation in the separate accounts, whose values are determined using the net asset value ("NAV") provided by the administrator of the individual fund.

The guaranteed interest account is valued at fair value, which is the amount participants would receive currently if they were to withdraw or transfer funds within the Plan prior to their maturities. The fair value represents contract value adjusted to reflect current market interest rates, only to the extent such market rates exceed crediting rates.

The separate account investments, except for the U.S. Property Separate Account and the Government & High Quality Bond Separate Account, are valued based on quoted market values of the underlying investments. The U.S. Property Separate Account invests primarily in commercial real estate holdings, including the underlying mortgages. The fair value of the underlying real estate is estimated using discounted cash flow valuation models that utilize public real estate market data inputs such as transaction prices, market rents, vacancy levels, leasing absorption, market cap rates and discount rates. In addition, each property is appraised annually by an independent appraiser. Generally, the income approach carries the most weight in the estimate of fair value. The Government & High Quality Bond Separate Account invests primarily in asset backed securities, residential mortgage backed securities, commercial mortgage backed securities and government bonds. The fair value of the underlying investments are primarily based on proprietary pricing models, which utilize benchmark yields, reported trades and broker quotes, among other inputs.

The separate account investments, except for the U.S. Property Separate Account, are valued using the market approach, and the guaranteed interest account is valued using the income approach. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at September 30, 2013 or 2012.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although Plan management believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's investment assets at fair value as of September 30, 2013:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Fair Value
Separate accounts:
Growth	$ -	$ 538,089	$ -	$ 538,089
Blended	-	433,576	-	433,576
Fixed income	-	326,070	-	326,070

	$ -	$ 1,913,251	$ 142,890	$ 2,056,141

The following table sets forth a summary of changes in the fair value of the Plan's Level 3 asset, the guaranteed interest account, for the year ended September 30, 2013:

Balance, beginning of year	$ 142,890
Interest credited	1,604
Unrealized losses relating to assets still held at the reporting date*	(1,974)
Purchases	46,371
Sales	(40,658)
Balance, end of year	$ 148,233

 Included in net increase in net assets available for benefits as a component of net appreciation in fair value of investments.

The following table provides information about significant unobservable inputs related to the Plan's investment in Level 3 assets as of September 30, 2013:

Instrument	Fair Value	Principal Valuation Technique	Significant Unobservable Inputs	Range of Significant Input Values
Guaranteed interest account	$ 148,233	Proceeds at discontinuance	Composite guaranteed rate	0.36% - 2.89%
			Current rate on September 30, 2013	0.59% - 1.56%

The following table sets forth additional disclosures of the Plan's investments, whose fair value is estimated using NAV per unit as of September 30, 2013 and 2012:

	Unfunded Commitments	Redemption Frequency	Redemption Notice Period
Large U.S. equity [A]	not applicable	Daily; transfers allowed once every 30 days	none
Small/mid U.S. equity [B]	not applicable	Daily; transfers allowed once every 30 days	none
Fixed income [C]	not applicable	Daily; transfers allowed once every 30 days	none
International equity [D]	not applicable	Daily; transfers allowed once every 30 days	none
Balanced/asset allocation [E]	not applicable	Daily; transfers allowed once every 30 days	none
Short-term fixed income [F]	not applicable	Daily	none
Other	not applicable	Daily	none

[A] This asset class is generally comprised of investment options that invest in stocks, or shares of ownership in large, well-established U.S. companies. These investment options typically carry more risk than fixed income investment options but have the potential for higher returns over longer time periods.

[B] This asset class is generally comprised of investment options that invest in stocks, or shares of ownership in small to medium-sized U.S. companies. These investment options typically carry more risk than larger U.S. equity investment options but have the potential for higher returns.

[C] This asset class is generally comprised of investment options that invest in bonds, or debt of a company or government entity. It may also include real estate investment options that directly own property. These investment options typically carry more risk than short-term fixed income investment options but less overall risk than equities.

[D] This asset class is generally comprised of investment options that invest in stocks, or shares of ownership in companies whose principal place of business is outside the U.S. These investment options often carry more risk than U.S. equity investment options but may have the potential for higher returns.

[E] This asset class is generally comprised of a combination of fixed income and equity investment options. These investment options may include balanced, asset allocation, target date and target risk investment options. These investment options typically carry lower risk than investment options that invest solely in equities.

[F] This asset class is generally comprised of short-term, fixed income investment options that are largely liquid and are designed to not lose much value. These investment options may include stable value, money market, short-term bond and guaranteed interest accounts. They are considered to be among the least risky forms of investment options but they typically have a lower rate of return than equities or longer-term fixed income investment options over long periods of time.

4. INFORMATION CERTIFIED BY THE CUSTODIAN

All information disclosed in the accompanying financial statements, notes and supplemental schedules related to the Plan's investment assets and notes receivable from participants at September 30, 2013 and 2012, and the related net investment gain and interest income for the year ended September 30, 2013, was obtained or derived from information supplied to the Plan administrator and certified as complete and accurate by the Custodian.

5. INVESTMENTS

Individual investment funds that represented 5% or more of the Plan's net assets at September 30, 2013 and 2012 are as follows:

	2013	2012
LargeCap Growth II Sep Acct R6	$ 295,796	$ 291,374
International SmallCap Sep Acct R6	212,544	174,487
LargeCap S&P 500 Index Sep Acct R6	204,013	194,984
Government & High Quality Bond Sep Acct R6	199,447	202,486
LargeCap Value I Sep Acct R6	175,498	163,797
MidCap Growth Sep Acct R6	172,174	151,358
SmallCap Blend Sep Acct R6	163,527	129,242
Guaranteed Interest Account	148,233	142,890
Money Market Sep Acct R6	*	168,351

* This investment represented less than 5% of the Plan's net assets at September 30, 2013.

The net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of the separate accounts and the guaranteed interest account (including gains and losses on investments bought, sold and held during the Plan year) was $305,125 and $(1,974), respectively, for the year ended September 30, 2013.

6. TAX STATUS

The Company has not applied for a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") to determine if the Plan is designed in accordance with applicable sections of the IRC. The Plan document is based upon a prototype plan instrument from the Custodian, which received an IRS opinion letter dated March 31, 2008. The prototype plan instrument has been updated for legislative and regulatory changes. The Trustees and Plan administrator believe that the Plan is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

GAAP requires Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability or asset if the Plan has taken an uncertain tax position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Plan administrator believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2010.

7. PARTY-IN-INTEREST AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Certain Plan investments are units of separate accounts and a general account held by the Custodian. Fees incurred by the Plan for related investment management services are included in net appreciation in fair value of investments and administrative expenses. Transactions such as these qualify as party-in-interest transactions. The Company pays directly certain other fees related to the Plan's operations.

8. DELINQUENT TRANSMITTALS

During the year ended September 30, 2012, the Company failed to remit employee deferrals and loan repayments to the Plan totaling $3,363. The Company remitted certain employee deferrals and loan repayments totaling $3,071 during the year ended September 30, 2013. The Company will compute the lost earnings on all delinquent deposits and intends to remit the remaining funds to the Plan during the year ended September 30, 2014.
