1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the Preferred Mutual Insurance Company Employees' Cash and Deferred Savings Profit Sharing Plan and Trust (the "Plan") sponsored by the Preferred Mutual Insurance Company (the "Company") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan, which covers substantially all full-time employees regardless of age or service requirement. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). Employees are immediately eligible to participate in the Plan as long as they are expected to work at least 1,000 hours in their eligibility computation period (first year of service). All employees eligible for the Plan receive a safe harbor contribution equal to 3% of their compensation.

Contributions

Each year, participants may contribute up to 100% of eligible compensation through direct payroll withholding subject to maximum allowable contributions under the Internal Revenue Code of $17,500 and $17,000 for 2013 and 2012, respectively. Participants who have attained age 50 before the end of the Plan year are eligible to make catch-up contributions. Participants may designate all or a portion of their elective contributions as Roth contributions. A designation of elective contributions as Roth contributions is irrevocable.

All employees eligible to participate are automatically enrolled in the Plan and contribute 3% of their compensation to the Plan unless they opt out of the automatic contribution. The automatic contribution percentage will be increased 1% each year to a maximum of 6%. All eligible employees will also receive a safe harbor contribution equal to 3% of their compensation regardless of the employees' contribution percentage.

Additional profit-sharing contributions can be made based upon the discretion of the Company. These amounts, if any, are allocated based upon the percentage of employee compensation (as defined by the Plan) to the total of all such amounts at the end of the Plan year. The Company did not elect to have a discretionary contribution in 2013 and 2012.

Investment Allocation

The Plan allows participants to select from a variety of investment options. Participant contributions may be directed to any of these options, in multiples of 1%. Participants can change the future direction of contributions or move existing account balances between various investment options on a daily basis by using the online service. All investment choices are directed by the participant and each participant bears the respective investment risk of their election. Investments are considered mutual funds or pooled separate funds, except for the Principal Fixed Income Guaranteed Option, which is considered a single group annuity contract with a fixed rate of interest.

All employees eligible to participate in the Plan who do not make an investment election for their automatic contributions, shall have all contributions invested in the qualified default investment alternative as defined by the Plan, which was the Principal LifeTime option that relates to the participant's normal retirement age for 2013 and 2012.

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN (Continued)

Participant Accounts
Each participant's account is credited with their contributions, employer profit sharing contributions, employer safe harbor contributions, and plan earnings.

Vesting
Participants are immediately vested in all contributions.

Payment of Benefits
Distributions resulting from retirement, death, disability, or termination are made in the form of a lump sum distribution, a life annuity, or periodic installments for a limited time. Upon termination of employment, if the account balance is less than or equal to $1,000 and the participant has not elected to receive the benefit pursuant to an optional form of benefit payment, the participant will receive a single lump sum amount equal to the value of his or her account. If the account balance is greater than $1,000 but less than or equal to $5,000 and the participant has not elected to receive the benefit pursuant to an optional form of benefit payment, the account balance will be automatically rolled into an automatic rollover IRA. In the case of death, if there is a surviving spouse, he or she may elect to defer payment up to the age of 70½. Hardship withdrawals are available of up to 100% of employee contributions subject to Internal Revenue Service requirements. Distributions, without penalty, may be made upon attainment of age 59½.

Notes Receivable from Participants
Participants may borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their vested account balance. Participants are allowed to have up to 2 loans outstanding. The interest rate on loans is determined by the U.S. prime rate plus 1.0%. The maximum repayment term is five years, but this may be extended for the purchase or construction of a principal residence. Upon termination from the Company, the loan must be fully repaid by the participant or it will be deemed distributed.

Plan Expenses
All costs and expenses with regard to the purchase or sale of investments are paid by the Plan. Administrative expenses of the Plan, such as loan processing fees and distribution fees, are paid by plan participants. Personnel and facilities of Preferred Mutual Insurance Company have been used by the Plan for its accounting and other activities at no charge to the Plan.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting
The financial statements of the Plan are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).

Investment contracts held by a defined-contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined contribution plan attributable to fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the plan. The Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits present the fair value of the investment contracts as well as the adjustment of the fully benefit-responsive investment contracts from fair value to contact value. The Statements of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits are prepared on a contract value basis.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Notes Receivable from Participants

Notes receivable from participants are reported at their unpaid principal balances plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Delinquent participant loans are reclassified as distributions based on the terms of the Plan document.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments are stated in the accompanying financial statements at fair value. The fair value is equal to quoted market value on a national exchange for mutual funds and the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year end for pooled separate funds. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The Plan presents in the Statements of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits the net appreciation in fair value of investments, which consists of the net realized gains on investment transactions throughout the period and net unrealized gains on investments at the end of the period.

The investment in the Principal Fixed Income Guaranteed Option is a declared rate fund with Principal Life Insurance Company and is stated at fair value.

Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make significant estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of additions and deductions during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan's assets include various types of investment securities. The investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risks associated with certain investments and the level of uncertainty related to the value of such investments, changes in the value of investments will occur and such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the accompanying financial statements.

3. INFORMATION CERTIFIED BY THE TRUSTEE

Certain information was furnished and certified by Principal Trust Company, the investment trustee, to the plan administrator as of and for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012. This included the following:

The Plan's investments representing 5% or more of the Plan's net assets at December 31 were as follows:

	2013	2012
MFS Value R3 Fund	$ 2,086,672	$ 1,537,379
PIMCO Total Return A Fund	1,538,675	1,553,582

Other investments, individually less than 5%	10,696,639	8,145,037
	$ 24,179,059	$ 19,891,249

* Although the investment did not meet the 5% required disclosure, information is provided for comparative purposes.

The Plan's investments (including gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held during the year) appreciated in value as follows for the year ended:

	2013	2012
Mutual funds	$ 2,532,288	$ 1,317,924
Pooled separate funds	542,656	215,491
Net appreciation in fair value of investments	$ 3,074,944	$ 1,533,415

4. INVESTMENT CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE COMPANY

In 2010, the Plan entered into a benefit-responsive investment contract with Principal Life Insurance Company (Principal), the Principal Fixed Income Guaranteed Option. Principal maintains the contributions in a group annuity (general account). The account is credited with earnings on the underlying investments and charged for participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. The guaranteed investment contract issuer is contractually obligated to repay the principal and a specified interest rate that is guaranteed to the Plan.

Because the guaranteed investment contract is fully benefit-responsive, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits attributable to the guaranteed investment contract. The guaranteed investment contract is presented on the face of the Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits at fair value with an adjustment to contract value in arriving at net assets available for benefits. Contract value, as reported to the Plan by Principal, represents contributions made under the contract, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. Participants may ordinarily direct the withdrawal or transfer of all or a portion of their investment at contract value.

There are no reserves against contract value for credit risk of the contract issuer or otherwise. The fair value of the investment contract at December 31, 2013 and 2012 was $6,469,928 and $6,035,971, respectively. The contract value of the investment contract at December 31, 2013 and 2012 was $6,810,451 and $6,353,654, respectively. The average yield earned by the Plan for 2013 and 2012 was 2.04% and 2.48%, respectively. The actual interest rates credited to the Plan were: 2.00% from June 1, 2013 to December 31, 2013; 2.10% from December 1, 2012 to May 31, 2013; 2.40% from June 1, 2012 to November 30, 2012 and 2.65% from January 1, 2012 to May 31, 2012. The crediting interest rate is established by Principal considering many factors, including current economic and market conditions and the general interest rate environment. The interest rate history summarized above is prior to any plan-level recordkeeping expenses being deducted. Any difference between the above summarized interest rates and the actual earned crediting rates for each plan participant would be due to the rate level service fee. The rate level service fee is a direct offset to the interest rates summarized above. The minimum crediting rate under the contract is 1.0%. Such interest rates are reviewed on a semi-annual basis for resetting.

Certain events limit the ability of the Plan to transact at contract value with the issuer. Such events include the following: (1) material plan amendments (including complete or partial Plan termination or merger with another plan); (2) changes to the Plan's prohibition on competing investment options; (3) bankruptcy of the Plan sponsor or other Plan sponsor events that cause a significant withdrawal from the Plan; or (4) the failure of the trust to qualify for exemption from federal income taxes or any required prohibited transaction exemption under ERISA. The Plan administrator does not believe that any events which would limit the Plan's ability to transact at contract value with participants are probable of occurring.

The guaranteed investment contract does not permit the issuing insurance company to terminate the agreement prior to the scheduled maturity date.

5. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, provides the framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of fair value hierarchy under these standards are described below:

- Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical assets and liabilities.

- Level 2: Inputs, other than quoted prices in active markets, that are observable either directly or indirectly and fair value is determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies.

- Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the asset or liabilities. Level 3 assets and liabilities include financial instruments whose value is determined using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, or similar techniques, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant management judgment or estimation.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Pooled separate funds: valued using the net asset value, based on value of the underlying investments held at year end, divided by the number of units outstanding. The unit price is quoted on a private market that is not active; however, the unit price is based on underlying investments which are primarily based on observable inputs. Each of the Plan's pooled separate funds is managed by Principal to provide participants with the option to select from multiple strategies to maximize investment return, diversify risks, and reduce volatility. These investments do not have any unfunded commitments. The Plan can redeem these investments daily. There are currently no redemption restrictions on these investments.

Mutual funds: valued at the closing price on the active market which the funds are traded.

Principal Fixed Income Guaranteed Option: fair value is determined by contract (book) value less early withdrawal charges of 5% of contract value.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date. The plan administrator assesses and approves the fair value measurement policies and procedures on a continuing basis. Periodically, the plan administrator determines if the current valuation techniques used in the fair value measurements are still appropriate.

The following table sets forth the Plan's investments that were accounted for at fair value at December 31, 2013 and 2012. Investments are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurements:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

5. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS (Continued)

Fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) were as follows for the years ended December 31:

	Investment Contract 2013	Investment Contract 2012
Beginning balance	$ 6,035,971	$ 6,516,947
Total gains (losses)	(22,840)	25,315
Interest credited	130,931	159,853
Purchases, issuances, sales and settlements:
Purchases	618,693	997,141
Sales	(292,827)	(1,663,285)
Ending balance	$ 6,469,928	$ 6,035,971

The amount of total gains (losses) for the year attributable to the changes in unrealized gains (losses) relating to assets still held at the reporting date were ($22,840) and $25,315 for 2013 and 2012, respectively. Unrealized gains (losses) from the guaranteed investment contract are not included in the Statements of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits as the contract is recorded at contract value for purposes of the net assets available for benefits.

The following table represents the Plan's level 3 financial instruments, the valuation techniques used to measure the fair value of those financial instruments, the significant unobservable inputs and the values for those inputs:

Instrument	12/31/13 Fair Value	12/31/12 Fair Value	Principal Valuation Technique	Unobservable Inputs	Significant Input Value
Principal Fixed Income Guaranteed Option	$ 6,469,928	$ 6,035,971	Discontinuation value	Surrender charge	5%

6. TAX STATUS

The Plan obtained its latest determination letter on February 18, 2011, in which the Internal Revenue Service stated that the Plan, as then designed, was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. However, the Plan administrator and the Plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

For employee benefit plans, their tax-qualified status itself is determined to be an uncertainty, since events could potentially occur to jeopardize their tax-qualified status. As of December 31, 2013 and 2012, the Plan did not have a liability for unrecognized tax benefits. The Plan files the Annual Return/Report of Employee Benefit Plan (Form 5500) in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. The tax years that remain subject to examination by the taxing authorities are generally the previous three years.

7. PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contribution at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of plan termination, participants are 100% vested in their accounts.

8. PARTY-IN-INTEREST TRANSACTIONS

Principal Trust Company is the trustee of the Plan's assets. As such, transactions between Principal Trust Company and the Plan qualify as party-in-interest transactions. Additionally, notes receivable from participants are party-in-interest transactions.

9. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent events were evaluated through October 9, 2014, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
