INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Report on the Financial Statements
We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Grace Management - 2 Health & Welfare Plan which comprise the statements of net assets available for plan benefits and statements of plan benefit obligations as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the related statements of changes in net assets and changes in plan benefit obligations, for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements
Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility
Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion
In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits and plan benefit obligations of Grace Management - 2 Health & Welfare Plan as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the changes in net assets available for benefits and changes in plan benefit obligations for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matter – 2015 Financial Statements
As discussed in Note 5 to the financial statements, Plan management has adjusted its December 31, 2015 financial statements to remove the health reimbursement arrangement (HRA) benefits payable from the Plan's statement of benefit obligations. In our opinion, such adjustments are appropriate and have been properly applied.

GRACE MANAGEMENT - 2
HEALTH & WELFARE PLAN
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
Years Ended December 31, 2016 and 2015

NOTE 1 - Description of the Plan

The following description of Grace Management - 2 Health & Welfare Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Summary Plan Description for a complete description of the Plan's provisions.

The Plan and Trust were established October 1, 2014 to provide health and other benefits to eligible participants. The sponsoring employer, Grace Management, Inc. has agreed in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions of the Trust Agreement establishing the Plan. The Plan is an employee benefit plan subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended.

The Plan provides medical, dental, vision, prescription drug coverage, life insurance, and short-term disability benefits for eligible participants and their dependents. The Plan provides many of these benefits through contracts with 3rd party insurance companies. The Plan provides Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) benefits. The HRA benefit is self-funded and allows employees to be reimbursed for certain out of pocket health benefits incurred by participants. In 2015, the Plan carried a stop-loss insurance policy, which covers aggregate claims in excess of the deductibles as specified in the contract.

Eligibility rules under the Plan require all employees hired as active employees to receive coverage the first of the month following one month of continuous employment on a fringe contract. Benefits terminate on the last day of the month in which a participant's employment terminates.

Although it has not expressed any intention to do so, the Sponsor has the right under the Plan to modify the benefits provided to employees, to discontinue its contributions at any time, and terminate the Plan subject to the provisions set forth in ERISA.

NOTE 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Accounting Method

The accounts of the Plan are maintained on an accrual basis of accounting for financial reporting purposes.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, benefit obligations and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

Concentration of credit risk for cash:
For business purposes, the Plan maintains cash balances at Partners Bank of California, which from time to time, may exceed the $250,000 insurance provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Employer Contributions Receivable

Employer contributions due but not paid at year-end are recorded as contributions receivable. An allowance for uncollectible accounts is considered unnecessary and is not provided.

Employer Contributions

Employer contributions are recognized as income in the month the employees worked.

Benefits

Benefits expense is recorded when paid. Hours worked through December provide participants with benefits eligibility through December. The participants' coverage will end at midnight on the last day of the month in which eligibility ceases.

Subsequent Events

In preparing the financial statements as of December 31, 2016, management considered the impact of subsequent events occurring through October 9, 2017, for potential recognition or disclosure in these financial statements.

NOTE 3 - Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA)

The Plan provides HRA benefits to eligible participants. A participant's account balance is funded by employer contributions and allows employees to be reimbursed for eligible out of pocket health benefits incurred by participants. Included in the accompanying statement of net assets are amounts available to provided HRA benefits as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, totaled $12,907 and $28,498, respectively.

NOTE 4 - Income Taxes

The Trust established under the Plan to hold the Plan's assets has not applied for exemption from California or federal income taxes, and is currently subject to income tax on its net investment income. The Trustee believes that the Trust does not have any net taxable income for the tax years ended 2016 and 2015, therefore, no tax liability is reflected in these financial statements.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examinations by the Internal Revenue Service and California Franchise Tax Board. The Plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

NOTE 5 - Restatement

The financial statements as of December 31, 2015 have been restated to remove the health reimbursement arrangement (HRA) benefits payable from the Plan's statement of benefit obligations. The effects of the adjustment were as follows:

	As Previously Reported	Adjustment	As Restated
