Dear Valued Customer:

Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA)

We have enclosed information that you may need for completing the 5500 Form Schedule A. This information reflects compensation paid to your agent or consultant for the plan year that recently ended for the coverage you have with us.

We are reporting any base commissions, bonuses and other types of compensation paid in relation to the plan during the plan year. Please note that only base commissions are included in the specific calculation of your premium or administrative service fee. Bonus and other non-base commission payments are not directly included in the determination of your premium or administrative service fee. Bonus payments may be based on the recipient's combined block of business and are allocated to cases according to their contribution to the amount earned.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The enclosed information may be divided into two reports. Some customers may receive a 5500 Addendum Report in addition to the standard 5500 Schedule A report form. The 5500 Addendum Report itemizes bonus compensation and payments that were processed manually separately. If you have received the 5500 Addendum Report as well as the standard 5500 Schedule A report form, you will need to add the amounts in the Total line of the 5500 Addendum Report to the amount found in the standard 5500 Schedule A report form.

Should you have any questions related to this information, please contact your agent, consultant, or the UnitedHealthcare Strategic Account Executive assigned to your case.

I hereby certify that to the best of my knowledge, information or belief at this time, and based upon information provided by duly authorized personnel, the foregoing statement furnished pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-5(c) is complete and accurate.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
The UnitedHealthcare Team

Termination Date: November 30, 2020

We thank you for allowing Principal the opportunity to assist with your insurance needs.

As you are likely aware, most insured welfare benefit plans of 100 or more employee plan participants are required to file the Form 5500 with the Department of Labor. The filing of the form satisfies a portion of ERISA reporting and disclosure requirements.

In order to complete the filing, the Schedule A (Form 5500) is needed. We've enclosed your Schedule A Insurance Information worksheets for the period December 1, 2019 through November 30, 2020, split by coverage to assist you with the filing. Please review your plan for filing implications.

Filing Assistance:

- Further information can be viewed at www.dol.gov/ebsa.
- The Department of Labor requires filings to be submitted electronically at www.efast.dol.gov.
- Additional help with EFAST can be obtained by calling 1-866-GO-EFAST (1-866-463-3278).
- Contact your legal or tax advisor as Principal cannot advise you.

Other Information:

- The paid premium reported on Schedule A worksheets represents premium received and applied to your account during the reported period and may include adjustments made after the termination date.

If you have questions about the enclosed information, please contact me at the number or email address at the top of this letter.

Re: Schedule A (Form 5500) Insurance Information
Group Policy Number: 919828

Dear Valued Customer:

We are sending you the enclosed information to assist you in completing Schedule A/C, of IRS/DOL/PBGC Form 5500. We are providing Schedule A/C information to you because we cannot be certain whether or not you require it. Sun Life Financial does not administer your plan and cannot provide tax and legal advice regarding your plan or policies. Please let us know in writing if you do not file a Schedule A/C of Form 5500 and you do not wish to receive this information in the future. We will not resume Schedule A/C reporting with respect to the above-referenced policy unless you otherwise notify us in writing.

The enclosed information includes all the premiums and/or fees we received, as well as all commissions paid to your broker. The commission information may include:

- Base commissions which are policy specific and are included in the policy rate(s).
- Override commissions (sometimes referred to as special payments, or program management fees) which are also policy specific but generally are not included in the policy rate(s).
- Bonus commission and producer conference fees which are not policy specific. They are paid based upon the anticipated annual premiums of all your broker's or administrator's policies with us. The amount of the bonus that is paid to your broker and attributable to your policy is determined by allocating the total bonus amount for the calendar year in proportion to the anticipated annual premium associated with each policy used in the calculation of the total bonus amount. Bonus payments are a company operating expense and, thus, are not directly reflected in the policy rate(s).

  During the course of the year, Sun Life sales and other personnel may engage in various activities with the insurance producers connected with your ERISA plan, such as "lunch and learn" meetings, restaurant meals, attending sporting events, and/or playing golf. Generally, these activities are intended to establish or strengthen the business relationship between the Sun Life sales personnel and the insurance producers and are not provided as a compensatory payment attributable to the plan's insurance contract or to the non-insurance services being provided to the plan. Accordingly, we are not reporting such expenses unless we have determined both that a particular expense is in fact a compensatory payment and exceeds the insubstantial value reporting threshold described in the Form 5500 instructions.

The enclosed should not be used for commission and/or premium reconciliation, it is strictly for Schedule A/C Form 5500 filing purposes. If you have any questions concerning this letter or enclosed information, please contact us via the above listed information.

Sincerely,
Broker Services
