BECKMAN COULTER, INC.
RETIREMENT ACCOUNT PLAN II
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2009

NOTE 1 - DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the Beckman Coulter, Inc. Retirement Account Plan II (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General: Beckman Coulter, Inc. (the Company) established and adopted the Plan effective January 1, 2008.

The Plan is a defined contribution plan available to employees of the Company hired on or after January 1, 2007, excluding individuals employed in Puerto Rico.

The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The Plan is administered by the Benefits Finance and Administration Committee (the Committee), whose members are appointed by the board of directors of the Company.

Contributions: The Plan is funded by the Company. No employee contributions are permitted. Each calendar year, the Company contributes a percentage of eligible pay for that year. The contribution ranges from 2% to 6% based on the participants' benefit service total. The contribution is generally made as soon as administratively practical after the year ends, generally no later than the first quarter of the next year.

Investment Options: Company contributions may be directed to any of the core investment funds. Participants have the right to elect investment options upon enrollment into the Plan. Additionally, participants may elect to change their investment options and to transfer their account balances among the different investment funds on a daily basis.

Income (loss) on investment funds is allocated to participants' accounts based on the participants' investment fund balance as a percentage of the total investment fund balance.

Participant Accounts: Each participant's own account is credited with an allocation of the Company's contributions and Plan earnings, and is charged with his or her withdrawals and an allocation of administrative expenses. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested balance.

Benefits and Vesting: Participants become fully vested in their account after the earlier of completion of three years of vesting service, attainment of age 65, layoff, or death. If the total vested value is greater than $1,000, the participants may elect to postpone their distribution until the year following the year they attain age 70½. Separated participants can elect to receive either a lump-sum payment equal to the value of their vested account; a partial distribution if his or her account balance exceeds $1,000; or installment payments to be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually over the participant's life expectancy, but not to exceed 30 years.

Forfeitures: Forfeitures of non-vested benefits are first used to reinstate previously forfeited amounts of returning participants as allowed by the Plan and then to reduce future Company contributions. There were no forfeited non-vested accounts at December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

Continuation of the Plan: The Company anticipates and believes the Plan will continue without interruption but reserves the right to discontinue the Plan. If the Plan is terminated by the Company, the accounts of all affected participants become 100% vested and nonforfeitable without regard to the years of service of participants.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting: The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Administrative Expenses: Substantially all of the Plan's administrative expenses are paid by the Company. The Company has elected to pay these administrative expenses on behalf of the Plan but reserves the right to change this election. Such expenses amounted to $47,180 for the year ended December 31, 2009.

Risks and Uncertainties: The Plan provides for various investment options including equity, fixed-income, and other investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market, liquidity, and credit. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities and the sensitivity of certain fair value estimates to changes in valuation assumptions, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the fair values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statement of net assets available for benefits.

Payment of Benefits: Benefits are recorded when paid.

Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures, and actual results may differ from those estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition: The Plan's investments are reported at fair value. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation includes the plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Fair value is the price that would be received by the Plan for an asset or paid by the Plan to transfer a liability (an exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date in the Plan's principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability. Fair value measurements are determined by maximizing the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. The hierarchy places the highest priority on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and gives the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of inputs within the fair value hierarchy are defined as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access as of the measurement date.

Level 2: Significant other observable inputs other than level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs that reflect the Plan's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability.

In some cases, a valuation technique used to measure fair value may include inputs from multiple levels of the fair value hierarchy. The lowest level of significant input determines the placement of the entire fair value measurement in the hierarchy.

The following descriptions of the valuation methods and assumptions used by the Plan to estimate the fair values of investments apply to investments held directly by the Plan.

Mutual funds: The fair values of mutual fund investments are determined by obtaining quoted prices on nationally recognized securities exchanges (level 1 inputs).

Collective trusts: The fair values of participation units held in collective trusts, other than stable value funds, are based on their net asset values, as reported by the fund managers as of the financial statement dates and recent transaction prices (level 2 inputs). The underlying investments of the collective trust bond fund includes corporate bonds and notes, asset-backed securities, mortgage-backed securities, U.S. Government Treasury and agency securities, collateralized mortgage obligations, international debt and short-term investments. The investment objective of this fund is to provide returns equal to or better than AAA quality bond indices for securities with comparable durations. The collective trust provides for daily redemptions by the Plan at reported net asset values per share, with no advance notice requirement. The fair value of the interest in the stable value fund is based upon the net asset value of the fund after an adjustment to reflect all investments at fair value, including direct and indirect interests in fully benefit-responsive contracts, as reported by the fund manager (level 2 inputs). The fund invests in conventional and synthetic investment contracts issued by life insurance companies, banks, and other financial institutions, with the objective of providing a high level of return that is consistent with also providing stability of investment return, preservation of capital and liquidity to pay benefits. The fund provides for daily redemptions by the Plan at reported net asset value per share, with no advance notice requirement.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Fully Benefit-Responsive Investment Contracts: While Plan investments are presented at fair value in the statements of net assets available for benefits, any material difference between the fair value of the Plan's direct and indirect interests in fully benefit-responsive investment contracts and their contract value is presented as an adjustment line in the statements of net assets available for benefits, because contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the Plan's net assets available for benefits. Contract value represents contributions made to a contract, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. Participants in fully benefit-responsive contracts may ordinarily direct the withdrawal or transfer of all or a portion of their investment at contract value. The Plan holds an indirect interest in such contracts through its investment in a stable value fund.
