An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of Martin Resource Management Corp. – Employee Benefit Trust as of December 31, 2008 and 2009, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Martin Resource Management Corporation
Employee Benefit Trust

December 31, 2008 and 2009

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND PROCEDURE

The following description of the Martin Resource Management Corporation Employee Benefit Trust provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for more complete information.

The Martin Resource Management Corporation Employee Benefit Trust shares the cost of providing benefits for full-time employees and, if elected, their dependents, of certain subsidiaries and affiliates of Martin Resource Management Corporation. The Plan provides for payment of certain medical, dental, death and disability benefits for eligible employees and their dependents. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). Although Martin Resource Management Corporation has not expressed any intent to terminate the Plan, it may do so at any time.

The Plan was amended effective July 1, 1999, to change the name of the Plan to Martin Resource Management Corporation Employee Benefit Trust (formerly Martin Gas Corporation and Affiliates Employee Benefit Trust).

The Plan is administered by Martin Resource Management Corporation, contracted through a third-party administrator. The third-party administrator is United Health Care. Beginning January 1, 2009 Blue Cross Blue Shield became The Plan Administrator. The Plan is funded by contributions from the appropriate sponsoring companies and employee contributions. Employer and employee contributions are determined annually by the Board of Trustees. Any deficit in net assets will be temporarily funded by Martin Resource Management Corporation and recovered through proportionate increases in future contributions from sponsoring companies and employees.

Basis of Accounting - The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual method of accounting. The employer funds the Plan each month as charges are submitted by the Plan Supervisor.

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the Plan Administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Benefit Obligations - The amount of medical claims payable is based on the claims processed and paid subsequent to the end of the plan year. The amount of estimated claims incurred but not reported (health claims incurred by active participants but not reported at the year end date) is based on claims filed subsequent to the year end date with the claims administrator, and payment of such claims is still pending as of the date of issuance of the financial statements. Written proof describing the occurrence, character, and extent of a loss for which a claim is made must be given to the Claim Administrator within 30 days of its occurrence. If proof is not given by the time it is due, it will not affect the claim if:

1) it was not possible to give proof within the required time; and
2) proof is given as soon as possible, but
3) not later than a year after it is due, unless the claimant is not legally competent.

NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES (Continued)

Claims Administrator – United Health Care was the contract administrator for the 2008 plan year. Beginning January 1, 2009 Blue Cross Blue Shield became the contract administrator.

NOTE 2 - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

The following description of the Plan provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General - The Plan provides health and death benefits for eligible employees. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Eligible Employees - All active full-time employees are eligible after completion of one month of employment.

Source of Funding - Contributions made by the employer and employees are held in trust. Benefits are paid directly from the Plan through the Claims Administrator. Insurance premiums and other expenses are paid directly from the Plan by the Plan Administrator.

Maximum Benefits - The individual lifetime maximum benefit payable under the Plan is $2,000,000. Payments of benefits are administered by the Plan Supervisor in accordance with a schedule of benefits adopted by the employer. Such schedule has been provided to all eligible employees.

Post-retirement Benefit Obligations and Continuation of Coverage - The Plan does not provide for post-retirement benefits. Only active full-time employees are eligible. Coverage ceases once employment terminates for any reason. Under COBRA, participants are eligible to continue coverage up to 18 months. The coverage cannot be continued beyond any of the following dates: the date on which the employer ceases to provide any group health plan to any employee; the date the contribution is not paid by the individual; the date the individual becomes entitled to Medicare benefits; or when the individual becomes covered under any other group health plan.

Termination of Plan - Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the employer may terminate the Plan and Trust at any time. Upon termination, all monies remaining in the Trust shall be used for the continuance of benefits until such monies have been exhausted.

NOTE 3- FEDERAL INCOME TAXES

The trust established under the Plan to hold the Plan's assets is qualified pursuant to the appropriate section to the Internal Revenue Code, and, accordingly, the trust's net investment income is exempt from income taxes. The Plan has obtained a favorable tax determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service and the Plan sponsor believes that the Plan continues to qualify and to operate as designed.

NOTE 4 - STOP LOSS INSURANCE

The specific deductible is $100,000 per covered person with a maximum benefit of $2,000,000 for specific losses. Medical claims paid are shown net of the stop loss reimbursement on the Statement of Changes in Benefit Obligations and Net Assets Available for Plan Benefits.
