1. Description of Plan and Benefits

The following description of the Cordillera and Affiliated Companies Money Purchase Pension Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a complete description of Plan provisions.

The Plan is a defined contribution pension plan which was established March 1, 1984, and has been restated effective January 1, 2001. The Plan is sponsored by Cordillera Corporation and it's affiliates (collectively referred to as the Company) to provide eligible employees with a regular program of savings for retirement.

The Plan is administered by the Benefits Committee (the Committee) and is subject to the requirements of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). Significant elements of the Plan are summarized below:

Eligibility-

Employees are eligible to participate in the Plan upon attaining twenty-one years of age and completing one Year of Service.

Contributions-

The Company makes contributions of 6% of Participant compensation plus 5.7% of Participant compensation which exceeds the Social Security taxable wage base for Participants employed on the last day of the year, in accordance with ERISA funding requirements.

Vesting-

Participant's Accounts are vested as follows:

Years of Credited Service for Vesting	Vested Percentage of Accrued Benefits
Less than 2 years	0%
2 years	20%
3 years	40%
4 years	60%
5 years	80%
6 years	100%

Forfeitures-

The provisions of the Plan allow the non-vested portion of Account balances of Participants that terminate employment to be used to reduce Company contributions to the Plan. Forfeitures of $24,573 and $18,990 were applied to reduce Company contributions for 2009 and 2008, respectively.

1. Description of Plan and Benefits (continued)

Loans-

Participants may borrow up to one half of their Account, subject to limitations imposed by Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations. The minimum loan amount is one thousand dollars.

Payment of Benefits-

Upon termination or retirement, Participants may elect to receive a distribution of their Account in a lump sum, or defer distribution if the Account exceeds $5,000. Distributions may not be deferred later than the year in which the Participant attains the age of seventy and one half years. There were no benefit payments approved but unpaid at December 31, 2009 and 2008.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting-

The financial statements of the Plan are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Estimates-

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Investments-

Investments are valued using quoted market prices. Unrealized gains and losses represent the difference between fair value at year end and fair value at the beginning of the year, or purchase price if acquired during the year. Realized gains and losses represent the difference between proceeds received and fair value at the beginning of the year, or purchase price if acquired during the year.

Participant accounts-

Each Participant's Account is credited with an allocation of Company contributions, forfeitures of terminated Participants non-vested Account balances, and Plan earnings. Allocations are based on Participant earnings or account balances, as defined by the Plan. Allocations are subject to limitation pursuant to IRS regulations governing defined contribution plans.

Plan expenses-

Plan administrative expenses are paid by the Company.
