RE: REASONABLE CAUSE FOR LATE FILING OF FORM 5500

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

My firm prepares and aids our clients with the electronic filing of Form 5500. This past season has been physically strenuous as sitting at the computer all day I have developed a herniated disk in my neck, with intense pain radiating down my arm to my fingers almost constantly throughout the day. This makes it exceedingly difficult to sit at my desk and within minutes I am in such agony that I have to stop and rest for at least 2-3 hours. My arm literally gets numb as I start to drop things and I find myself immobilized on one side.

In addition, several vendors have not been forthcoming with their reports of plan assets as of December 31, 2009, and I have had to spend many months chasing after the account values in order to properly preparing the Form 5500 filings.

I have reached out to associates as well as trying to find clerical help to aid me in the prepreparation of my clients' Form 5500, but have not been able to find any assistance at this time.

Kindly abate all penalties and interest charges in light of the above reasonable causes.

Thank you in advance for your consideration, courtesy and cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Stephen Taft, QPA
