INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To The Board of Directors of
CCC Group, Inc.
P.O. Box 200350
San Antonio, Texas 78220-0350

July 28, 2011

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of CCC Group, Inc. 401(K) Retirement Savings Plan as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits with fund information for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental Schedule of Assets Held at End of Year is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. This supplemental information is the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To The Board of Directors of
CCC Group, Inc.
P.O. Box 200350
San Antonio, Texas 78220-0350

July 28, 2011

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of CCC Group, Inc. 401(K) Retirement Savings Plan as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits with fund information for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental Schedule of Assets Held at End of Year is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. This supplemental information is the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

CCC GROUP, INC. 401 (K) RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2010 AND 2009

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the CCC Group, Inc. ("Company") 401 (K) Retirement Savings Plan ("Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General. The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering all eligible full-time employees of the Company immediately upon employment. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The plan was established in 1996.

Contributions. Each year, participants may contribute up to 100% of pretax annual compensation, as defined in the Plan. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined contribution plans. The Company may make contributions, at its own discretion, and at the option of the Company's board of directors. Contributions are subject to certain limitations.

Participant Accounts. Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of the Company's contribution. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Vesting. Participants are immediately vested in their contributions plus actual earnings thereon. Vesting in the Company's matching and discretionary contribution portion of their accounts plus actual earnings thereon is based on years of continuous service. A participant is 100% vested after three years of credited service.

Investment Options. Upon enrollment in the Plan, a participant may direct employee contributions in the following investment options:

Morley Financial Services – Principal Stable Value Fund – The investment seeks current income by investing primarily in insurance contracts issued by insurance companies and investments from other financial institutions which offer stability of principal.

Wls Frgo Stbl Rtn Fd (Glliard) – Wells Fargo Stable Return Fund (Galliard) seeks safety of principal and consistency of returns with minimal volatility. The underlying investment of the separate investment account ("SIA") is the Wells Fargo Stable Return Fund ("Wells"), subadvised by Galliard Capital Management, Inc. ("Galliard"). The underlying investment of this separate investment account is the Wells Fargo Stable Return Fund, a collective investment trust ("the Trust"), and advised by Galliard. Wells invests in financial instruments issued by highly rated companies. These include guaranteed investment contracts (GICs), security backed contracts (synthetic GICs) and cash equivalents. The weighted average quality of the portfolio is maintained at "AA" or better. This investment option would typically be a choice of conservative plan participants seeking more income than money market funds without the price fluctuation of stock or bond funds. Stable-value portfolios seek to provide income while preventing price fluctuations. The most common stable-value portfolios invest in a diversified portfolio of bonds and enter into wrapper agreements with financial companies to guarantee against fluctuations in their share prices. These wrapper agreements typically provide price stability on a day-to-day basis, thereby insulating each portfolio's net asset value from interest-rate volatility. Therefore, their true overall durations are effectively zero.

Total Return Fund (PIMCO) – The investment seeks maximum total return. The fund normally invests at least 65% of assets in a diversified portfolio of Fixed-Income Instruments of varying maturities, which may be represented by forwards or derivatives such as options, futures contracts, or swap agreements. It invests primarily in investment-grade debt securities, but may invest up to 10% of total assets in high-yield securities ("junk bonds"). The fund may invest in derivative instruments, such as options, futures contracts or swap agreements, or in mortgage- or asset-backed securities. Intermediate-term bond funds have average durations that are greater than 3.5 years and less than six years. Most of the funds rotate among a variety of sectors in the bond market, based upon which appear to offer better values. Whatever types of bonds they hold, these funds are less sensitive to interest rates, and therefore less volatile, than funds that have longer durations.

AmerCnt LIVESTRONG Incm Ptf Fd – The investment seeks current income; capital appreciation is a secondary objective. The fund invests in other American Century mutual funds that represent a variety of asset classes and investment styles. The target asset mix for LIVESTRONG Income Portfolio is expected to remain fixed over time with a 45% allocation to equities, 45% allocation to fixed income securities and 10% allocation to cash. Retirement income portfolios provide a mix of stocks, bonds and cash for those investors already in or entering retirement. These portfolios tend to be managed to more of a conservative asset allocation strategy. These portfolios aim to provide investors with steady income throughout retirement.

AmerCnt LIVESTRONG 2015 Ptf Fd – The investment seeks the highest total return consistent with its asset mix. The fund invests in other American Century mutual funds that represent a variety of asset classes and investment styles. The target date in the fund name refers to the approximate year an investor plans to retire and stop making new investments in the fund. The current target allocation of the fund is to invest 48.95% of assets in underlying funds that invest in stocks, 43.05% of assets in underlying funds that invest in bonds, and 8% of assets in underlying funds that invest in cash equivalents. Target-date portfolios provide a diversified exposure to stocks, bonds, and cash for those investors who have a specific date in mind (in this case, the years 2011-2015) for retirement or another goal. These portfolios aim to provide investors with an optimal level of return and risk, based solely on the target date. Over time, management adjusts the allocation among asset classes to more conservative mixes as the target date approaches.

AmerCnt LIVESTRONG 2020 Ptf Fd – The investment seeks the highest total return consistent with its asset mix. The fund invests in other American Century mutual funds that represent a variety of asset classes and investment styles. The current target allocation of the fund is to invest 54.2% of assets in underlying funds that invest in stocks, 40.3% of assets in underlying funds that invest in bonds, and 5.5% of assets in underlying funds that invest in cash equivalents. Target-date portfolios provide a diversified exposure to stocks, bonds, and cash for those investors who have a specific date in mind (in this case, the years 2016-2020) for retirement or another goal. These portfolios aim to provide investors with an optimal level of return and risk, based solely on the target date. Over time, management adjusts the allocation among asset classes to more conservative mixes as the target date approaches.

AmerCnt LIVESTRONG 2025 Ptf Fd – The investment seeks the highest total return consistent with its asset mix. The fund invests in other American Century mutual funds that represent a variety of asset classes and investment styles. The target date in the fund name refers to the approximate year an investor plans to retire and stop making new investments in the fund. The current target allocation of the fund is to invest 59.7% of assets in underlying funds that invest in stocks, 35.3% of assets in underlying funds that invest in bonds, and 5% of assets in underlying funds that invest in cash equivalents. Target-date portfolios provide a diversified exposure to stocks, bonds, and cash for those investors who have a specific date in mind (in this case, the years 2021-2025) for retirement or another goal. These portfolios aim to provide investors with an optimal level of return and risk, based solely on the target date. Over time, management adjusts the allocation among asset classes to more conservative mixes as the target date approaches.

AmerCnt LIVESTRONG 2030 Ptf Fd – The investment seeks the highest total return consistent with its asset mix. The fund invests in other American Century mutual funds that represent a variety of asset classes and investment styles. These portfolios aim to provide investors with an optimal level of return and risk, based solely on the target date. Over time, management adjusts the allocation among asset classes to more conservative mixes as the target date approaches.

MFS Value Fund – The investment seeks capital appreciation. The fund normally invests its assets in equity securities. Equity securities include common stocks, preferred stocks, securities convertible into stocks, and depositary receipts for those securities. It focuses on the stocks of companies it believes are undervalued compared to their perceived worth (value companies). The fund may invest in companies of any size, while it focuses on companies with large capitalizations. The fund may invest in foreign securities and derivatives. Large-value funds focus on big companies that are less expensive or growing more slowly than other large-cap stocks. These funds often feature investments in energy, financial, or manufacturing sectors.

Invesco Charter Fund – The investment seeks growth of capital. The fund invests primarily in equity securities. The advisor seeks to construct a portfolio of issuers that have high or improving return on invested capital (ROIC), quality management, a strong competitive position and which are trading at compelling valuations. The fund may invest up to 25% of total assets in foreign securities. Large-blend funds have portfolios that are fairly representative of the overall stock market in size, growth rates, and price. They tend to invest across the spectrum of U.S. industries and owing to their broad exposure, the funds' returns are often similar to those of the S&P 500 Index.

American Century Cap Growth Fund – The investment seeks long-term capital growth. The fund looks for common stocks of larger-sized companies they believe will increase in value over time. Under normal market conditions, the advisor intends to keep the fund essentially fully invested in stocks regardless of the movement of stock prices generally. Although the fund invests primarily in U.S. securities, it may invest in securities of foreign companies, including companies located in emerging markets. Large-growth funds invest in big companies that are projected to grow faster than other large-cap stocks. Most of these funds focus on companies in rapidly expanding industries.

Perkins Mid Cap Value Fund – The investment seeks capital appreciation. The fund primarily invests in the common stocks of mid-sized companies whose stock prices the portfolio managers believe are undervalued. It normally invests at least 80% of assets in equity securities of companies whose market capitalization falls, at the time of purchase, within the 12-month average of the capitalization range of the Russell Midcap Value Index. The fund may invest in foreign equity and debt securities, which may include investments in emerging markets. It can also invest assets in derivatives. Some mid-cap value funds focus on medium-size companies while others land here because they own a mix of small-, mid-, and large-cap stocks. All look for stocks that are less expensive or growing more slowly than the market. Many of their holdings come from financial, energy, and manufacturing sectors.

Nuveen Tradewinds Value Opp Fd – The investment seeks long-term capital appreciation. The fund invests primarily in equity securities of companies with varying market capitalizations, which may include small-, mid-, and large-capitalization companies. It invests primarily in U.S. equity securities, but may invest up to 35% of net assets in non-U.S equity securities, including up to 10% of net assets in equity securities of companies located in emerging market countries. Large-blend funds have portfolios that are fairly representative of the overall stock market in size, growth rates, and price. They tend to invest across the spectrum of U.S. industries and owing to their broad exposure, the funds' returns are often similar to those of the S&P 500 Index.

Goldman Sachs Gr Opportunities – The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 90% of total assets in equity securities with a primary focus on mid-cap companies. It primarily invests in publicly traded U.S. securities. The fund may also invest up to 25% of total assets in foreign securities, including securities of issuers in emerging countries and securities quoted in foreign currencies. Some mid-cap growth funds invest in stocks of all sizes, thus leading to a mid-cap profile, but others focus on midsize companies. Mid-cap growth funds target firms that are projected to grow faster than other mid-cap stocks, therefore commanding relatively higher prices. Many of these stocks are found in the volatile technology, health-care, and services sectors.

Franklin Small Cap Value Fund – The investment seeks long-term total return. The fund normally invests at least 80% of net assets in small capitalization companies with market capitalizations under $3.5 billion at the time of purchase. It generally invests in equity securities believed to be undervalued and have the potential for capital appreciation. The fund may invest up to 25% of total assets in foreign securities. Small-value funds invest in smallcaps with valuations and growth rates below other small-cap peers. They tend to invest in manufacturing, financial, and energy sectors.

Northern Small Cap Index Fund – The investment seeks to provide investment results approximating the aggregate price and dividend performance of the securities included in the Russell 2000 index. The fund typically invests at least 80% of total assets in the securities included in the Russell 2000 index, in weightings that approximate the relative composition of the securities contained in the index. Small-blend funds favor firms at the smaller end of the market-capitalization range, and are flexible in the types of small caps they buy. Some aim to own an array of value and growth stocks while others employ a discipline that leads to holdings with valuations and growth rates close to the small-cap averages.

Fidelity Advisor Small Cap Fund – The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of assets in equity securities issued by companies with small market capitalizations. These companies generally have market capitalizations that fall within the range of the Russell 2000 index or the Standard & Poor's SmallCap 600 index. It invests primarily in common stocks. The fund may invest in domestic and foreign issuers, as well as growth stocks, value stocks, or both. Small-blend funds favor firms at the smaller end of the market-capitalization range, and are flexible in the types of small caps they buy. Some aim to own an array of value and growth stocks while others employ a discipline that leads to holdings with valuations and growth rates close to the small-cap averages.

AmerFunds EuroPacific Gr Fund – The investment seeks to provide you with long-term growth of capital. The fund invests primarily in common stocks of issuers in Europe and the Pacific Basin that the investment adviser believes have the potential for growth. It normally invests at least 80% of net assets in securities of issuers in Europe and the Pacific Basin. The fund may invest a portion of its assets in common stocks and other securities of companies in countries with developing economies and/or markets and may also hold cash, money market instruments and fixed-income securities. Foreign large-blend funds invest in a variety of big, international stocks. Most of these funds divide their assets among a dozen or more developed markets, including Japan, Britain, France, and Germany. They tend to invest the rest in emerging markets such as Hong Kong, Brazil, Mexico and Thailand. These funds typically will have less than 20% of assets invested in U.S. stocks.

American Century Real Estate Fund – The investment seeks high total investment return through a combination of capital appreciation and current income. The fund invests at least 80% of assets in equities issued by companies in the real estate industry. It is nondiversified. Specialty-real estate funds invest primarily in real estate investment trusts (REITs) of various types. REITs are companies that develop and manage real-estate properties. There are several different types of REITs, including apartment, factory-outlet, health-care, hotel, industrial, mortgage, office, and shopping center REITs. Some funds in this category also invest in real-estate operating companies.

Prudntl Jennsn Ntrl Rsrcs Fund – The investment seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 80% of assets in equity securities of natural resource companies and in asset-based securities. Natural resource companies are U.S. and foreign (non-U.S. based) companies that own, explore, mine, process or otherwise develop, or provide goods and services with respect to, natural resources. Asset-based securities are securities, the values of which are related to the market value of a natural resource. The principal type of equity and equity-related security in which the fund invests is common stock. The fund is non-diversified. Natural resources funds focus on commodity-based industries such as energy, chemicals, minerals, and forest products. Some funds invest across this spectrum to offer broad natural resources exposure. Others concentrate heavily or even exclusively in specific industries including energy or forest products.

ING Global Real Estate Fund – The investment seeks high total return consisting of capital appreciation and current income. The fund normally invests at least 80% of net assets in a portfolio of equity securities of companies that are principally engaged in the real estate industry. It may invest in companies located in countries with emerging securities markets. The fund may also invest in convertible securities, initial public offerings and Rule 144A securities. It also may lend portfolio securities on a short-term or long-term basis, up to 33 1/3% of assets. The fund is non-diversified. Global real estate portfolios invest primarily in non-US real estate securities, but may also invest in U.S. real estate securities. Securities that these portfolios purchase include: debt & equity securities, convertible securities, and securities issued by Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) and REIT like entities. Portfolios in this category also invest in real-estate operating companies.

American Century Growth Fund – The investment seeks long-term capital growth. The fund invests in stocks of larger-sized companies that the manager believes will increase in value over time, using an investment strategy developed by American Century. It invests primarily in U.S. stocks; the fund may invest in securities of foreign companies, including companies located in emerging markets. Large-growth funds invest in big companies that are projected to grow faster than other large-cap stocks. Most of these funds focus on companies in rapidly expanding industries.

Participants may change their investment options for future contributions at any time. They may change investment options of existing balances at any time. However, when transferring existing balances from one investment to another, restrictions on transfer frequency may apply.

Participant Notes Receivable. Participants may borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their vested account balance. Loan transactions are treated as a transfer to (from) the investment fund from (to) the Participant Notes fund. Loan terms range from 1-5 years or up to 10 years for the purchase of a primary residence. The loans are secured by the balance in the participant's account. The rate of interest will be one percent (1%) above the prime commercial lending rate as quoted in The Wall Street Journal on the day in which the loan is actually made. Principal and interest is paid ratably through payroll deductions.

Payment of Benefits. On termination of service due to death, disability, or normal or early retirement, a participant may elect to receive a lump-sum amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account. For termination of service due to other reasons, a participant may receive the value of the vested interest in his or her account as a lump-sum distribution. Also, participants age 59 ½ and still working may elect to receive a lump-sum amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account.

Forfeited Accounts. During 2010 and 2009, forfeited non-vested accounts totaled $30,102.29 and $22,844.51, respectively.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Plan are prepared using the accrual method of accounting.

Valuation of Investments

The financial statements reflect the requirements of Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures of the Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). ASC applies to all financial instruments and all nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities that are being measured and reported on a fair value basis. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. ACS also establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used in valuation methodologies into the following three levels.

Level 1 inputs-Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 inputs-Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, or other inputs that can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 inputs-Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities. Level 3 assets and liabilities include financial instruments whose value is determined using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, or other valuation techniques, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant management judgment or estimation.

As required by ACS, at December 31, 2010, the Plan's portfolio investments were classified as follows, based on fair values:

	Total Fair Value Measurement at December 31, 2010	Level 1	Level 2
Wls Frgo Stbl Rtn Fd (Glliard)	$ 2,133,792.79	$ 0.00	$2,133,792.79
All other investment portfolio	18,267,507.64	18,267,507.64	0.00
Total portfolio investments	$20,401,300.43	$18,267,507.64	$2,133,792.79

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the plan administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Payment of Benefits and Refunds

Benefits and refunds are recorded when paid.

Administrative Expenses

Substantially, all administrative expenses are paid by the Company.
