To the Plan Administrator of the
TGH-US, Inc., 401(k) Plan
Houston, Texas

We have completed a DOL limited-scope audit of the financial statements of TGH-US, Inc., 401(k) Plan (the "Plan") as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and for the year ended December 31, 2010, and the supplemental schedule as of December 31, 2010, and have issued our report thereon dated September 12, 2011. As permitted by 29 CR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), the Plan Administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note C to those financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we are unable to, and have not, expressed an opinion on those financial statements and supplemental schedule taken as a whole. Professional standards require that we provide you with the following information related to our audit.

Our Responsibility under Auditing Standards Generally Accepted in the United States of America

As stated in our engagement letter dated April 7, 2011, our responsibility, as described by professional standards and subject to the limitations described above, is to plan and perform our audit to obtain reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that the financial statements are free of material misstatement and are fairly presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve you or management of your responsibilities. Because an audit is designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance and because we did not perform a detailed examination of all transactions, there is a risk that material misstatements may exist and not be detected by us.

As part of our audit we considered the internal control of the Plan, except that we did not, as part of the scope limitation discussed in the first paragraph, include a consideration of internal control relating to the information prepared and certified by Fidelity Management Trust Company. Such considerations were solely for the purpose of determining our audit procedures and not to provide any assurance concerning such internal control.

Significant Audit Findings

Critical Accounting Policies and Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. In accordance with the terms of our engagement letter, we will advise management about the appropriateness of accounting policies and their application. The critical accounting policies used by the Plan are described in Note B to the financial statements. The application of existing policies was not changed during the year ended December 31, 2010, and no new accounting policies were adopted except as disclosed in the Plan's financial statements and included in the following table:

- Reporting of Loans of Participants Amendment - included in Accounting Standard Update ("ASU") 2010 - 25 relating to the categorization of participant loans as receivables instead of investments (Note B).

- Fair Value Disclosure Amendment - included in ASU 2010 - 06 relating to the new disclosure requirements concerning transfers of investments into and out of fair value levels 1 and 2 and separate disclosures about purchases, sales, issuances and settlements relating to level 3 measurements.

We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year that were both critical and unusual, and of which, under professional standards, we are required to inform you, or transactions for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. The most sensitive estimate affecting the financial statements was:

- Management's estimate of the fair value of the various investments which is based upon certified information provided by Fidelity Management Trust Company. As expressed in other paragraphs, as part of the scope limitations, we did not audit investments but did evaluate the key factors and assumptions used to develop the fair value of these investments in determining that their fair value is reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

The disclosures in the financial statements are neutral, consistent, and clear. Certain financial statement disclosures are particularly sensitive because of their significance to financial statement users. The most sensitive disclosure affecting the financial statements was:

- The disclosure of Fair Value Measurements in Note F to the financial statements. See valuation methodologies within Note F of these financial statements which were used by management to determine the level of fair value hierarchy of assets.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. During the course of our audit, we noted one such misstatement which was included as an exhibit in the separately prepared management representation letter signed by you and dated September 12, 2011. Management has determined that the uncorrected item's effect is immaterial to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated September 12, 2011.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards with management each year prior to retention as the Plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

To the Plan Administrator of the
TGH-US, Inc., 401(k) Plan
Houston, Texas

We have completed a DOL limited-scope audit of the financial statements of TGH-US, Inc., 401(k) Plan (the "Plan") as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and for the year ended December 31, 2010, and the supplemental schedule as of December 31, 2010, and have issued our report thereon dated September 12, 2011. As permitted by 29 CR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), the Plan Administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note C to those financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we are unable to, and have not, expressed an opinion on those financial statements and supplemental schedule taken as a whole. Professional standards require that we provide you with the following information related to our audit.

Our Responsibility under Auditing Standards Generally Accepted in the United States of America

As stated in our engagement letter dated April 7, 2011, our responsibility, as described by professional standards and subject to the limitations described above, is to plan and perform our audit to obtain reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that the financial statements are free of material misstatement and are fairly presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve you or management of your responsibilities. Because an audit is designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance and because we did not perform a detailed examination of all transactions, there is a risk that material misstatements may exist and not be detected by us.

As part of our audit we considered the internal control of the Plan, except that we did not, as part of the scope limitation discussed in the first paragraph, include a consideration of internal control relating to the information prepared and certified by Fidelity Management Trust Company. Such considerations were solely for the purpose of determining our audit procedures and not to provide any assurance concerning such internal control.

Significant Audit Findings

Critical Accounting Policies and Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. In accordance with the terms of our engagement letter, we will advise management about the appropriateness of accounting policies and their application. The critical accounting policies used by the Plan are described in Note B to the financial statements. The application of existing policies was not changed during the year ended December 31, 2010, and no new accounting policies were adopted except as disclosed in the Plan's financial statements and included in the following table:

- Reporting of Loans of Participants Amendment - included in Accounting Standard Update ("ASU") 2010 - 25 relating to the categorization of participant loans as receivables instead of investments (Note B).

- Fair Value Disclosure Amendment - included in ASU 2010 - 06 relating to the new disclosure requirements concerning transfers of investments into and out of fair value levels 1 and 2 and separate disclosures about purchases, sales, issuances and settlements relating to level 3 measurements.

We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year that were both critical and unusual, and of which, under professional standards, we are required to inform you, or transactions for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. The most sensitive estimate affecting the financial statements was:

- Management's estimate of the fair value of the various investments which is based upon certified information provided by Fidelity Management Trust Company. As expressed in other paragraphs, as part of the scope limitations, we did not audit investments but did evaluate the key factors and assumptions used to develop the fair value of these investments in determining that their fair value is reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

The disclosures in the financial statements are neutral, consistent, and clear. Certain financial statement disclosures are particularly sensitive because of their significance to financial statement users. The most sensitive disclosure affecting the financial statements was:

- The disclosure of Fair Value Measurements in Note F to the financial statements. See valuation methodologies within Note F of these financial statements which were used by management to determine the level of fair value hierarchy of assets.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. During the course of our audit, we noted one such misstatement which was included as an exhibit in the separately prepared management representation letter signed by you and dated September 12, 2011. Management has determined that the uncorrected item's effect is immaterial to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated September 12, 2011.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards with management each year prior to retention as the Plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.
