The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") requires an annual financial report on employee welfare benefit plans and pension benefit plans which cover 100 or more participants at the beginning of the plan year and are subject to ERISA. The administrator of such a plan is required to file an annual report on I.R.S./DOL Form 5500, including the accompanying Schedule A, with the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

Your Metropolitan Life Insurance Company ("MetLife") employee welfare benefit plan may be subject to ERISA's annual reporting requirements and MetLife is therefore providing you with the information needed to complete Schedule A of Form 5500. The attached report is not an actual Schedule A form and should not be attached to the Form 5500 for regulatory filing. The information should be forwarded to the person who will be completing your annual filing. The information is taken from the data MetLife maintains within its normal business records and is, to the best of MetLife's knowledge and belief, complete and accurate.

Part I, Section 2 of this report lists the compensation paid to intermediaries related to your plan. Intermediaries may include brokers, consultants, agents and third-party administrators. There are several categories of compensation that may be paid to an intermediary. For your reference, the categories of compensation are listed below.

- Base Commissions - Base commissions are generally paid to an intermediary on a monthly basis and are usually calculated as a percentage of premium. Base commissions are typically factored into the cost of the customer's plan.
- Supplemental Compensation - Supplemental compensation may be paid to qualifying intermediaries based on an intermediary's new business or total inforce premium for a specified year. It is not MetLife's practice to specifically factor supplemental compensation into the cost of customer's plan. Supplemental compensation is factored into the price structure of MetLife's institutional business products.
- Fees - Fees may include payments made to intermediaries for services such as administration, communication, enrollment, billing, eligibility, recordkeeping, printing and mailing. Fees may be directly charged to the customer's plan.
- Award - If your intermediary received an award (such as travel or a gift) from MetLife, MetLife allocated the value of the award to all plans that were considered in the qualification criteria proportionately.

Note, the non-monetary compensation amount included in the Schedule A, Fees Paid section of the enclosed report is based on the calendar year tracking of all individual gifts or items of non-monetary compensation such as dinners, tickets for shows or other entertainment events, membership dues, hotels, equal to or greater than $10, that are given to or provided directly or indirectly to brokers, producers, and other insurance intermediaries and/or their spouses, companions or family members. This information is tracked and aggregated at the brokerage firm or company level. The total value is divided by the total number of active contracts or policies in place with that firm for that year except for items relating directly to a specific customer or customers (which are reported to the specific customer(s)). This allocation is reported on the Schedule A reports for all ERISA customers who are part of a given broker firm's book of business.

Before submitting the Schedule A with your annual report to the Employee Benefits Security Administration, in addition to the information MetLife has provided, you should enter in the Schedule the appropriate name of the plan, three-digit plan number and employer identification number in the appropriate spaces immediately preceding Part I.

You may also wish to consult with your counsel concerning any need for attaching an opinion by an independent qualified public accountant.

This letter, together with your copy of the complete annual report should be retained for at least the 6-year period required by ERISA.

If you have any questions please contact your MetLife Account Representative:
Linda Jansen, (816) 204-3066 or 800-ASK-4-MET and MetLife will assist you in obtaining this information.

MetLife appreciates your business.

Re: Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA)
Insurance Information Schedule A (Form 5500)

Unum's policy is to fully disclose and report all broker compensation associated with the insurance plans we offer in accordance with our internal guidelines and with all applicable regulations. We are pleased to certify the enclosed Primary and Supplemental Schedule A data with respect to the filing of an ERISA Form 5500 Annual Report.

This information is forwarded to you for use by your Plan Administrator in the event that your company has determined that it is required to make this filing. Unum is providing this information in compliance with our reponsibilities under ERISA, but we do not take any position or provide any advice on ERISA's applicability to any of your company's benefit plans.

The enclosed Primary Schedule A data identifies all Base and Supplemental Commissions paid to a broker for this policy during the plan year as reported through Unum's commission systems. If no plan year has been specified in our records, the information is for the calendar year identified. Base Commissions are a fixed percentage of the policy premium, and may include a one time flat amount for each line of coverage sold. If no compensation has been paid, these figures will be zero (0). Supplemental Commissions may be paid in an amount equal to a fixed percentage of total group insurance premiums. The percentage may range from 0% to 1.25% of total premium paid. The exact Supplemental Commission percentage payable to a broker is based upon the total dollar amount of all group insurance premiums or number of policies that the broker has in force with Unum in the prior calendar year. If no compensation has been paid, these figures will be zero (0).

The Supplemental Schedule A data identifies any additional compensation allocated to this policy and received by a broker. This type of compensation could include, but is not limited to, former incentive plan payouts, overrides, and non-cash compensation. If applicable, this additional compensation has been allocated based on the percentage of premium or standard commissions on this policy as compared to the total amount of premium or standard commissions generated by the receiving entity. If no additional compensation has been paid, this figure will be zero (0).

If you have any questions regarding the enclosed data or think that you may have received this information in error, please do not hesitate to contact us. We would be glad to assist you with any questions relating to Unum insurance coverages or broker compensation. However, we may not provide legal advice on the applicability of particular laws or regulations to your company. For these issues, you should consult your company's attorneys or other advisors.

We appreciate this opportunity to provide service to you.

The issuance of multiple insurance carrier contracts is necessary to cover individuals who participate in the same plan but reside in different geographic locations. As the CIGNA companies whose contracts fund the plan are grouped as a single unit by CIGNA for purposes of underwriting the plan, combining the information with respect to these individual contracts in this report will provide more meaningful insurance information for the Schedule A. In addition to the commissions and fees reported, CIGNA enters into compensation programs under which certain agents and brokers provide our companies with market intelligence, product and service feedback, and other services that enable us to conduct our business more effectively. Qualification for payments and the amount of those payments may be based on new business and persistency results. Unless otherwise noted, this compensation is not allocated to specific policies, is funded from our general overhead, and is not required to be reported on Schedule A. Your agent or broker may also have participated, at our expense, in events we sponsor to inform them on our products and services. Contact your agent/broker for specific information about their participation.

The contract holder is not entitled to a return of any premium or other payment made to a CIGNA company unless the CIGNA company has otherwise agreed in writing. The CIGNA companies may use payments received for any purpose in their sole discretion.

If the contract holder is a Public Entity located in California, you are asked to forward this report to the governing board.
