Unfortunately I did not print the page where I indicated I wanted the Hartford to file 2010 for me.

I will submit a late filing.

Cathy,
The Form 5558 for an extension was filed by The Hartford last year as a courtesy so none of our clients missed the deadline. Each plan is responsible for filing their Form 5500. The Hartford does prepare this form as part of the administrative services unless notified otherwise.
The previous contacts at your plan had advised The Hartford not to prepare the Form 5500. They may have had an outside firm handling this for them. You may want to check with anyone who had previous responsibility for the plan to determine how they handled this.

Thank you.

I did not submit 2010. The Hartford was supposed to do it.

I have a copy of a letter from the IRS where a form 5558 (attached) was submitted.....I assume by the Hartford because I did not submit one.

Please check your records.

Cathy,
In order to prepare your 2011 Form 5500, the Compliance Dept will need a copy of your 2010 Form 5500.
Please provide a copy when you have a chance.

Thank you.

Re: Plan # GA-029273

I am filing the 2010 form 5500 today .

I learned the Hartford did not retain my instructions to file it for me.

I have attached the email exchange with the Hartford to provide proof of my dilemma.

Hello,

Thank you for your inquiry.

Filers wishing to include an explanation or other documentation should include it as an attachment to the filing. Please note that this email correspondence will not be added or associated with your filing.

In an instance where a filer attempts to submit a return/report on time and it is not successfully received by EFAST2 prior to a deadline, the filer should print the unsuccessful submission notice. The unsuccessful submission notice should be included with the re-submitted return/report and tagged as an "other attachment" (see EFAST2 FAQ 35).

In the event a filer does not have documentation proving an attempt to file, the filer should provide an explanation of the circumstances and include the explanation with the re-submitted return/report and tagged as an "other attachment."

Based upon the facts and circumstances surrounding the original unprocessable submission and the subsequent re-submission, penalties may still be assessed from the original due date if the subsequent re-submission is received by EFAST2 after the deadline. The agencies might not impose late filing penalties for the electronic Form 5500 or 5500-SF in cases where there is evidence of good faith effort to meet deadlines and filings are delayed because of electronic filing difficulties this transition year.

If you have questions for the Department of Labor's Delinquent Filer Voluntary Compliance Program, please call the DFVCP directly at 202-693-8360.

If you have further general questions, please call 866-463-3278.

How do I indicate why the filing is late on the form?
