We are providing this letter in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Vista Products Retirement Salary Saving Plans as of December 31, 2011, and for the year then ended. We understand that your audit were made for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits and changes in net assets available for benefits of the Plan in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and whether the supplemental schedules are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole. As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have instructed you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by Minnesota Life Insurance Company, the trustee, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and schedules taken as a whole.

We are responsible for the fair presentation in the Plan's financial statements of net assets available for benefits and changes in net assets available for benefits in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and for the fair presentation of the accompanying supplemental schedules in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. We are also responsible for adopting sound accounting policies, establishing and maintaining internal control, and preventing and detecting fraud.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgement of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of July 15, 2012, the following representations made to you during your audit.

- 1) The financial statements and related footnotes are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the plan is subject, including the DOL Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- 2) We have made available to you all—
 - a) Financial records and related data.
 - b) All minutes of the meetings of administrators of Vista Products Retirement Salary Savings Plan for the period from January 1, 2011 to December 31, 2011 or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.
 - c) Plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, or investment contracts and amendments to such documents entered into during the year, including amendments to comply with applicable laws.
 - d) Actuarial reports prepared for the plan and the plan's sponsor during the year.

- 3) There have been no communications from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices, that could have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.
- 4) We acknowledge our responsibility for the design and implementation of programs and controls to prevent and detect fraud.
- 5) We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud affecting the plan involving—
 - a) Management,
 - b) Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
 - c) Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- 6) We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the plan received in communications from employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
- 7) We have no—
 - a) Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.
 - b) Intentions to terminate the plan.
- 8) The following have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements:
 - a) Related-party transactions, including transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations there under, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from or payable to related parties.
 - b) Guarantees whether written or oral under which the plan is contingently liable to a bank or other lending institution.
 - c) All significant estimates and material concentrations known to management that are to be disclosed in accordance with AICPA Statement of Position 94-6, Disclosure of Certain Significant Risks and Uncertainties. We understand that the significant estimates covered by this disclosure are estimates at the date of the statement of net assets that are reasonably possible of changing materially within the next year. Concentrations refer to the nature and type of investments held by the plan, or markets for which events could occur which would significantly disrupt normal finances within the next year.
 - d) Amendments to the plan instrument, if any.
- 9) There are no uncorrected financial statement misstatements, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole.
- 10) There are no—
 - a) Violations or possible violations of laws or regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered for disclosure in the financial statements or as a basis for recording a loss contingency.
 - b) Unasserted claims or assessments that our lawyer has advised us are probable of assertion and must be disclosed in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies.
 - c) Other liabilities or gain or loss contingencies that are required to be accrued or disclosed by FASB Statement No. 5.
 - d) Material transactions that have not been properly recorded in the accounting records underlying the financial statements.
 - e) Other matters (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or leases in default, events reportable to the PBGC, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel have advised us that must be disclosed.
- 11) There were no omissions from the participants' data provided to the plan's actuary for the purpose of determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits, [actuarial present value of the plan's benefit obligations, liability for claims incurred but not reported] and other actuarially determined amounts in the financial statements.

- 12) The plan administrator agrees with the actuarial methods and assumptions used by the actuary for funding purposes and for determining the plan's accumulated plan benefits and has no knowledge or belief that such methods or assumptions are inappropriate in the circumstances. We did not give any, nor cause any, instructions to be given to the Plan's actuary with respect to values or amounts derived, and we are not aware of any matters that have impacted the independence or objectivity of the plan's actuary.
- 13) There have been no changes in:
- a) The actuarial methods or assumptions used in calculating amounts recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
 - b) Plan provisions between the actuarial valuation date and the date of this letter.
- 14) The plan has complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance, including the release of unallocated shares held in ESOP plans.
- 15) The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments, including nonreadily marketable securities, are as follows: significant other observable inputs. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.
- 16) Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- 17) All required filings of plan documents with the appropriate agencies have been made.
- 18) The plan and the trust established under the plan is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue them as a qualified plan. The plan sponsor has operated the Plan and trust or insurance contract in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required nondiscrimination testing related to Code Section 401(k) and 401(m) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the plan, and any excess deferrals or contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.
- 19) The plan has complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the plan.
- 20) The plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
- 21) The plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets which are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
- 22) There are no—
- a) Non-exempt party-in-interest transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations under the section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules or financial statements.
 - b) Investments or loans in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.
 - c) Reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 103(b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.
- 23) We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the plan.
- 24) No events have occurred subsequent to the date of the plan's financial statements and through the date of this letter that would require adjustment to or disclosure in the aforementioned financial statements.
