The Global Benefits Committee
Fernald 401(k) Savings Plan

We were engaged to audit the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of the Fernald 401(k) Savings Plan as of February 29, 2012, and December 31, 2011 and 2010, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the two months ended February 29, 2012, and the year ended December 31, 2011, and the supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2011. These financial statements and supplemental schedule are the responsibility of the Plan's management.

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the investment information summarized in Note 3, which was certified by Reliance Trust Company, the trustee of the Plan, except for comparing such information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. We have been informed by the plan administrator that the trustee holds the Plan's investment assets and executes investment transactions. The plan administrator has obtained certifications from the trustee as of February 29, 2012, and December 31, 2011 and 2010, and for the two months ended February 29, 2012, and the year ended December 31, 2011, that the information provided to the plan administrator by the trustee is complete and accurate.

Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we are unable to, and do not, express an opinion on these accompanying financial statements and supplemental schedule as a whole. The supplemental schedule is presented for the purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements, but is required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the investment information certified by the trustee, have been audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Income Security Act of 1974.

Notes to Financial Statements

February 29, 2012 and December 31, 2011

1. Description of the Plan

The following description of the Fernald 401(k) Savings Plan (Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

During 2006, substantially all employees of Fluor Fernald, Inc. (Company), a subsidiary of Fluor Corporation, were terminated and the Company ceased to operate as a going concern. Prior to the final wind down of Company operations, Fluor Corporation (Plan Sponsor) took over sponsorship of the Plan from the Company, effective December 15, 2009, at which time it was determined that the Plan would merge into another plan of the Plan Sponsor.

The following information presents the plan provisions as they existed before the plan merger date. The Plan did not allow new participant contributions or loans subsequent to the Company ceasing operations.

General

The Plan was a defined contribution plan covering all active salaried employees of the Company who had completed 90 days of service. Hourly paid employees whose employment was subject to the terms of a collective bargaining agreement between the Company and a labor organization that had negotiated for Plan participation were also eligible to participate after having completed 90 days of service. The Plan was subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended.

Contributions

Prior to termination, each year, participants could contribute up to 25% of pre-tax annual base earnings as defined in the Plan. Participants were also able to directly or indirectly roll over amounts from other employers' qualified plans or from individual retirement accounts. Participants directed investment of their contributions into various investment options offered by the Plan. The Plan offered mutual funds and collective trust funds as investment options for participants. The Company contributed 100% of the first 3% of annual base earnings and 50% of the next 3% of annual base earnings, up to a maximum of 4.5% of annual base earnings that a participant contributed to the Plan, once the participant completed one year of service. The matching Company contribution was also invested as directed by participants. Contributions were subject to certain limitations. The last contributions were made in 2006.

Participant Accounts

Each participant's account was credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of the Company's matching contribution, investment earnings and losses, and charged with an allocation of administrative expenses. Allocations were based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant was entitled to was the benefit that could be provided from the participant's vested account.

Payment of Benefits and Vesting

Upon termination of service due to death, disability or retirement, a participant received a lump sum payment of all vested benefits or deferred payment as provided by the Plan. Any nonvested amounts were forfeited. Forfeited accounts were used to reduce the Company's matching contributions. All participants were 100% vested in their accounts.

Participant Loans

Prior to termination, participants could borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum of $50,000 or 50% of their account balance, whichever was less. The loans were secured by the balance in the participant's account and earned interest at rates that were based on the prime interest rate as published in The Wall Street Journal on the first day of the month in which the loan was requested. Principal and interest was paid ratably through payroll deductions. Effective January 1, 2005, all new loans had a maximum term of one year and effective January 1, 2006, no new loans could be granted.

Administrative Expenses

Administrative expenses are paid by the Plan unless otherwise paid by the Plan Sponsor, at its discretion.

Plan Termination

Due to the Company's cessation of operations, the Company received approval to terminate the Plan from the Department of Energy on September 28, 2006. It was expected that distributions of Plan assets would be performed in accordance with the Plan and applicable federal laws. As a result of Plan termination, all participants became fully vested. However, following the Company's cessation of operations, a number of Plan participants transferred to another entity of the Company's controlled group. Therefore, due to the successor plan rules under 26 CFR 1.401(k)-1(d)(4), the assets of the Plan could not be distributed and the Plan was essentially frozen. Effective February 29, 2012, the Plan was merged into the Fluor Corporation Employees' Savings Investment Plan (SIP) and all Plan assets were transferred into SIP.

2. Summary of Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements of the Plan have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Benefits paid to participants are recorded upon distribution.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes and supplemental schedule. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments held by the Plan are stated at fair value. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at measurement date (an exit price). See Note 4 for further discussion of fair value.

Investments in mutual funds are stated at the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year-end based on quoted market prices. The fair value of the common or collective trusts represents the underlying net asset value of the shares or units of such funds as determined by the issuer. The Invesco Stable Value Trust (the Stable Value Trust), a common or collective trust, invested in fully benefit-responsive investment contracts. The Stable Value Trust is recorded at fair value based on the net asset value as determined by the issuer based on the fair value of underlying assets; however, since these contracts are fully benefit-responsive, an adjustment was reflected in the statements of net assets available for benefits to present these investments at contract value. The contract value represented contributions plus earnings, less participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. The Stable Value Trust could be redeemed after a 10 day notice period and had no unfunded commitments.

Interest income is recorded when earned. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Purchases and sales are recorded on a trade-date basis.

Risk and Uncertainties

The Plan provides for investments in various investment securities, which, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit and overall market volatility risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is possible that changes in the values of investment securities could occur and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits and participant account balances.

3. Investments

All investment information disclosed in the accompanying financial statements, notes and supplemental schedule, including investments held other than the fair value of the Stable Value Fund and the adjustment from fair value to contract value for fully benefit-responsive investment contracts held in common or collective trust at February 29, 2012, December 31, 2011 and 2010, and net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments, interest and dividend income for the two months ended February 29, 2012, and the year ended December 31, 2011, was obtained or derived from information supplied to the plan administrator and certified as complete and accurate by Reliance Trust Company (Trustee). The contract value of the Stable Value Fund was certified as complete and accurate by the Trustee.

Individual investments that represent 5% or more of the Plan's net assets available for benefits are as follows:

	December 31,
	2011	2010
Stable Value Trust (at fair value)*	$ 1,517,940	$ 1,826,170
PIMCO Total Return – Class Administration Fund	1,103,163	1,093,889
Dreyfus Premier New Leaders	784,382	895,553
Davis New York Venture	649,482	737,199
American Funds Growth Fund	503,954	526,088
Invesco U.S. Quantitative Small Value Trust	316,878	355,653

*Contract value was $1,472,172 and $1,775,364 as of December 31, 2011 and 2010, respectively.

Fernald 401(k) Savings Plan

Notes to Financial Statements (continued)

During 2012 and 2011, the Plan's investments (including gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held during the year) appreciated (depreciated) in value as follows:

	Two months ended Year ended February 29, December 31, 2012 2011
Mutual funds	$ 237,552	$ (77,378)
Common or collective trusts	64,813	(37,176)
	$ 302,365	$ (114,554)

4. Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received for an asset or paid to a transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date (i.e., an exit price). The fair value hierarchy requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The standard describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value.

Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date. An active market for the asset or liability is a market in which the transaction for the asset or liability occurs with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.

Level 2 – Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, quoted market prices in markets that are not active, or model-derived valuations or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability that are not corroborated by market data. The reporting entity makes estimates and assumptions related to the pricing of the asset or liability, including assumptions regarding risk.

The asset's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. There were no transfers between Level 2 or Level 3 investments during the two months ended February 29, 2012, and the year ended December 31, 2011.

5. Tax Status

The Plan received a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) dated February 6, 2012, stating that the Plan is qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and therefore the related trust is tax-exempt. Once qualified, the Plan is required to operate in conformity with the Code to maintain its qualification. The plan administrator believes the Plan is being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Code and therefore believes the Plan is qualified and the related trust is tax exempt.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States require Plan management to evaluate uncertain tax positions taken by the Plan. The financial statement effects of a tax position are recognized when the position is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, to be sustained upon examination by the IRS. Plan management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan and has concluded that as of February 29, 2012 and December 31, 2011 and 2010, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken. The Plan has recognized no interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. Plan management believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2008.

6. Reconciliation of Form 5500 to Financial Statement

The following is a reconciliation of net assets available for benefits per the financial statements to the Form 5500 at December 31:

	2011	2010
Net assets available for benefits per the financial statements	$ 5,477,558	$ 6,089,903
Add: adjustment from contract value to fair value for fully benefit-responsive investment contracts held in a common or collective trust	45,768	50,806
Net assets available for benefits per the Form 5500	$ 5,523,326	$ 6,140,709

Fernald 401(k) Savings Plan

Notes to Financial Statements (continued)

The following is a reconciliation of the total investment income per the financial statements to the Form 5500 for the two months ended February 29, 2012:

Total investment income per the financial statements	$ 311,926
Less: 2011 adjustment from contract value to fair value for fully benefit-responsive investment contracts held in a common or collective trust	(45,768)
Net investment income per the Form 5500	$ 266,158

The following is a reconciliation of the total investment loss per the financial statements to the Form 5500 for the year ended December 31, 2011:

Total investment loss per the financial statements	$ (15,309)
Add: 2011 adjustment from contract value to fair value for fully benefit-responsive investment contracts held in a common or collective trust	45,768
Less: 2010 adjustment from contract value to fair value for fully benefit-responsive investment contracts held in a common or collective trust	(50,806)
Net investment loss per the Form 5500	$ (20,347)

Amounts related to the common or collective trust, which invests in fully benefit-responsive investment contracts, are recorded on the Form 5500 at fair value.

7. Subsequent Events

In accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 855, "Subsequent Events," Plan management has evaluated subsequent events through October 4, 2012, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
