The Lutgert Companies

August 8, 2011

Blackman Kallick, LLP
10 South Riverside Plaza; Suite 900
Chicago, IL 60606

We are providing this letter in connection with your audits of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of The Lutgert Companies' Retirement Plan as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and for the year ended December 31, 2010. We understand that, at our instruction, you did not perform any audit procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by Transamerica Life Insurance Company, the custodian, in accordance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (DOL Regulation 2520.103-5), other than comparing such information to the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and schedules taken as a whole.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Notwithstanding this, items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of the date of this letter, the following representations made to you during your audits.

1. We are responsible for the fair presentation in the Plan's financial statements of net assets available for benefits and changes in net assets available for benefits in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAPUSA) and for the fair presentation of the accompanying supplemental schedule in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The financial statements and related footnotes are fairly presented in conformity with GAAPUSA and the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the plan is subject.

2. We have made available to you all -

   a. Financial records and related data.

   b. There were no minutes of the meetings of the board of trustees for the period from January 1, 2010 through the date of this letter or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.

   c. Plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, or investment contracts and amendments to such documents entered into during the year, including amendments to comply with applicable laws.

3. There has been no communications from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with or deficiencies in financial reporting practices, that could have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.

4. We have no -

   a. Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.

   b. Intentions to terminate the plan.

5. There are no uncorrected misstatements in the financial statements.

6. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design and implementation of programs and controls to prevent and detect fraud.

7. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud affecting the entity involving:

   a. Management,

   b. Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or

   c. Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.

8. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the entity received in communications from employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third party administrators, or others.

9. The following have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements:

a. Related-party transactions, including transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, notes receivable from participant, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from or payable to related parties.

b. Guarantees whether written or oral under which the plan is contingently liable to a bank or other lending institution.

c. All significant estimates and material concentrations known to management that are to be disclosed in accordance with GAAPUSA. We understand that the significant estimates covered by this disclosure are estimates at the date of the statement of net assets that are reasonably possible of changing materially within the next year. Concentrations refer to the nature and type of investments held by the plan, or markets for which events could occur which would significantly disrupt normal finances within the next year.

d. Amendments to the plan instrument, if any.

10. There are no -

a. Violations or possible violations of laws or regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered for disclosure in the financial statements or as a basis for recording a loss contingency.

b. Unasserted claims or assessments that our lawyer has advised us are probable of assertion and must be disclosed in accordance with GAAPUSA.

c. Other liabilities or gain or loss contingencies that are required to be accrued or disclosed under GAAPUSA.

d. Transactions that have not been properly recorded in the accounting records underlying the financial statements.

e. Other matters (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, notes receivable from participant or leases in default, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel have advised us that must be disclosed.

11. The plan has complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.

12. All required filings of plan documents with the appropriate agencies have been made.

13. The plan (and the trust established under the plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue them as a qualified plan (and trust). The plan sponsor has operated the Plan and trust or insurance contract in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required nondiscrimination testing related to Code Section 401(k) and 401(m) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the plan, and any excess deferrals or contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.

14. The plan has complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the plan.

15. The plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.

16. The plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets which are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.

17. There are no -

    a. Non-exempt party-in-interest transactions (as defined in ERISA section 3(14) and regulations under the section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules or financial statements.

    b. Investments or notes receivable from participant in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.

    c. Reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA section 103(b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.

18. We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the plan.

19. The plan did not enlist any attorneys during the plan year, through the date of this letter, to provide legal counsel for the plan.

20. We represent to you the following for the plan's fair value measurements and disclosures:

a. The underlying assumptions are reasonable and they appropriately reflect management's intent and ability to carry out its stated courses of action.

b. The measurement methods and related assumptions used in determining fair value are appropriate in the circumstances and have been consistently applied.

c. The disclosures related to fair values are complete, adequate, and in conformity with GAAPUSA.

d. There are no subsequent events that require adjustments to the fair value measurements and disclosures included in the financial statements.

21. You provided non-attest services by assisting us with drafting the financial statements. In connection with this non-attest service, we confirm that we made all management decisions and performed all management functions, have the knowledge to evaluate the accuracy and completeness of the financial statements and disclosures, and accept responsibility for the financial statements taken as a whole.

22. As of December 31, 2010, the following valuation methodologies have been used to value the plan's investments:

- Pooled separate accounts - Valued at the net asset value (NAV) per unit as determined by Transamerica Life Insurance Company. Such NAV is based on the value of the underlying assets and liabilities of the accounts. The investment objective of the accounts varies and can be differentiated by the nature of their holdings as disclosed in the tables below. Participants may transfer funds in and out of the accounts without restriction.

- Guaranteed interest account - Valued by discounting the related cash flows of the underlying investments based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable durations considering the creditworthiness of the issuers. The investment objective of the account is to preserve principal and provide a stable return over the life of the investment. Participants may transfer funds in and out of the account without restriction.

23. No events have occurred subsequent to the date of the plan's financial statements and through the date of this letter that would require adjustment to or disclosure in the aforementioned financial statements.
