CELERA 401(k) PLAN

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS MAY 31, 2012 AND DECEMBER 31, 2011

NOTE 1 - THE PLAN AND ITS SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

General - The following description of the Celera 401(k) Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

The Plan was a defined contribution plan that was established effective July 3, 2008 by Celera Corporation (the Company), a spin-off of Applera Corporation (Applera), to provide benefits to eligible employees, as defined in the Plan document. The Plan was designed to be qualified under the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code), as amended, and the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended.

In May 2011, the Company was acquired by Quest Diagnostics (Quest). As a result of the acquisition, employees became eligible to participate in The Profit Sharing Plan of Quest Diagnostics Incorporated (the Quest Plan) effective January 1, 2012. On May 31, 2012, the Plan merged into the Quest Plan and approximately $41,676,000 of Plan assets were transferred to the Quest Plan.

Administration - The Company had appointed the Celera 401(k) Committee prior to the acquisition by Quest and the Quest Diagnostics Benefits Committee effective May 2011 (collectively the Committee) to manage the operation and administration of the Plan. The Company had contracted with Fidelity Management Trust Company (Fidelity) to act as the trustee and custodian of the Plan and an affiliate of Fidelity to process and maintain the records of participant data. Substantially all expenses incurred for administering the Plan were paid by the Plan.

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basis of accounting - The financial statements of the Plan are prepared on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS MAY 31, 2012 AND DECEMBER 31, 2011

Forfeited accounts - Forfeited nonvested accounts at May 31, 2012 and December 31, 2011 totaled zero and approximately $45,000, respectively, and could have been used to pay Plan administrative expenses or reduce future employer contributions. Forfeitures utilized to pay Plan administrative expenses and to reduce the employer's contribution for the period January 31, 2012 through May 31, 2012, and for the year ended December 31, 2011, amounted to approximately $30,000 and $217,000, respectively.

Investment valuation and income recognition - The Plan's investments were stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 2 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities were recorded on a trade date basis. Interest income was recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends were recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation (depreciation) included the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought or sold as well as held during the period.

Notes receivable from participants - Notes receivable from participants (notes receivable) were measured at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Delinquent notes receivable were reclassified as distributions based upon the terms of the Plan document.

Income taxes - The Plan had adopted a volume submitter plan that had received an opinion letter from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The Company believes that the Plan was operated in accordance with, and qualified under, the applicable requirements of the Code and related state statutes, and that the trust, which formed a part of the Plan, was exempt from federal income and state franchise taxes.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan had taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. No uncertain positions have been identified that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements as of May 31, 2012. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Plan Administrator believes the Plan is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2009.

CELERA 401(k) PLAN

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS MAY 31, 2012 AND DECEMBER 31, 2011

Risks and uncertainties - The Plan provided for various investment options in any combination of investment securities offered by the Plan. Investment securities were exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market fluctuations and credit risks. Due to the risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in market values, interest rates or other factors in the near term could have materially affected participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits and the statements of changes in net assets available for benefits.

Subsequent events - The Plan had evaluated subsequent events through December 11, 2012, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 2 - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The fair value measurements standard establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under the standard are described below:

Level 1 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan had the ability to access.

Level 2 - Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted market prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;

CELERA 401(k) PLAN

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS MAY 31, 2012 AND DECEMBER 31, 2011

- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodology used for assets measured at fair value. There were no changes in the methodology used at December 31, 2011.

Interest-bearing cash and mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year end.

The method described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan believed its valuation method was appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could have resulted in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

CELERA 401(k) PLAN

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS MAY 31, 2012 AND DECEMBER 31, 2011

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value as of December 31, 2011:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

Total assets at fair value	$41,806,631	$ -	$ -	$41,806,631

NOTE 3 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Certain Plan investments were managed by an affiliate of Fidelity, the trustee of the Plan. Any purchases and sales of these funds were performed in the open market at fair value. Such transactions, while considered party-in-interest transactions under ERISA regulations, were permitted under the provisions of the Plan and were specifically exempt from the prohibition of party-in-interest transactions under ERISA.

NOTE 4 - PARTICIPATION AND BENEFITS

Participant contributions - Participants could have elected to have the Company contribute their eligible pre-tax or after-tax compensation to the Plan up to the amount allowable under the Plan document and current income tax regulations. The Plan also permitted the automatic enrollment of eligible employees in the Plan with a contribution of 3% of eligible compensation with annual increases of 1% up to 6%, unless the employee affirmatively elected otherwise. Participants who elected to have the Company contribute a portion of their compensation to the Plan agreed to accept an equivalent reduction in taxable or taxed compensation. Contributions withheld were invested in accordance with the participant's direction.

CELERA 401(k) PLAN

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS MAY 31, 2012 AND DECEMBER 31, 2011

Participants were also allowed to make rollover contributions of amounts received from other tax-qualified employer-sponsored retirement plans. Such contributions were deposited in the appropriate investment funds in accordance with the participant's direction and the Plan's provisions.

Employer contributions - The Company was allowed to make contributions to the Plan in the form of matching contributions, as defined in the Plan. In 2011, the Company matched 100% of each eligible participant's contribution up to a maximum of 5% of the participant's eligible compensation. There were no employer contributions made to the Plan during 2012.

Vesting - Participants were immediately vested in their contributions. Participants were fully vested in the employer's matching contributions allocated to their account after four years of credited service.

Participant accounts - Each participant's account was credited with the participant's contribution, Plan earnings or losses and an allocation of the Company's contribution. Allocation of the Company's contribution was based on participant contributions, as defined in the Plan.

Payment of benefits - Upon termination, the participants or beneficiaries could have elected to leave their account balance in the Plan, or could have received their total benefits in a lump sum amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in their account. The Plan allowed for the automatic distribution of participant vested account balances that did not exceed $1,000.

Notes receivable - The Plan allowed participants to borrow not less than $1,000 and up to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their vested account balance. The notes receivable were secured by the participant's vested balance. Such notes receivable bore interest at the available market financing rates and had to be repaid to the Plan within a five-year period, unless the proceeds were used for the purchase of a principal residence in which case the maximum repayment period could have been longer. The specific terms and conditions of such notes receivable were established by the Committee.
