To whom it may concern:

When reconciling our plan and getting the necessary paperwork together to file for 5500 for the year 2012 we have realize we made an erroneous administration error in regards to filing 2011. During 2012 we changed bookkeepers and we were under the assumption that the old bookkeeper had filed the form 5500 before leaving the company in June 2012. The current bookkeeper found the error when compiling the information needed to file the year 2012. We apologize for the oversight and have now put policies in place to make sure any changes in personnel changes does not affect the filing of this form. This plan is for one employee in our small 501(c)3. As you can see we did not willfully neglect to file the 2011 form 5500 and truly apologize for this error.

Sincerely,

Shannon Kavanaugh
VP, Board of Directors
