U.S. Department of Labor

To whom it may concern,

This year I received a letter from Paychex stating we need to file the 5500 by July 31st. We no longer use Paychex and cancelled our 401k when we cancelled them as our payroll provider in 2011. This letter prompted me to call them and ask what to do since I no longer can log into the website. They stated 2 employees still had accounts so we need to continue to file each year. I found the link for Efast.dol and filed our 2012. In doing so I did a Form 5500 search and found that we never filed a 2011. I have completed it on the website. Please accept this letter as a possible waiver of fines and penalties for filing late as I was not aware we still had to file after the plan was canceled.

Sincerely,
