Report on the Financial Statements

We were engaged to audit the accompanying financial statements of the Ricerca Biosciences, LLC Investment Plan, which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2012, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on conducting the audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Because of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, however, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note 3, which was certified by Prudential Insurance and Annuity Company, Prudential Bank and Trust, F.S.B. and New York Life Trust Company, the trustees of the Plan, except for comparing such information with the related information included in the financial statements. We have been informed by the plan administrator that the trustees hold the Plan's investment assets and execute investment transactions. The plan administrator has obtained certifications from the trustees as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and for the year ended December 31, 2012, that the information provided to the plan administrator by the trustees is complete and accurate.

Disclaimer of Opinion

Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we have not been able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on these financial statements.

Other Matter

The supplemental schedule of assets held at end of year as of December 31, 2012 is required by the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we do not express an opinion on the supplemental schedule.

Report on Form and Content in Compliance with DOL Rules and Regulations

The form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified by the trustees, have been audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of Ricerca Biosciences, LLC Investment Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering all eligible employees of Ricerca Biosciences, LLC (the Company) who have completed three months of service. Employees of affiliated employers, employees classified by the Company as hourly employees, or independent contractors are not eligible to participate in the Plan. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Contributions

Participants may make voluntary pre-tax contributions and Roth contributions of up to 80% of their eligible compensation as defined in the Plan, subject to the maximum permitted by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified plans (rollover). The Plan automatically enrolls employees who become eligible to participate in the Plan, and have not completed an enrollment form by their date of eligibility. Until directed otherwise, the Company withholds 3% of the employee's eligible compensation as pre-tax contributions to the Plan, with the funds automatically being transferred into an American Century Retirement Strategy Fund based on the participant's date of birth.

The Company makes discretionary matching contributions equal to 50% of a participant's pre-tax and/or Roth contributions, up to 6% of the participant's eligible compensation, as defined. The discretionary matching contributions were suspended after the third quarter of 2012. Qualified non-elective contributions (QNEC) may also be made by the Company. No QNECs were made in 2012. All contributions are subject to IRS limitations.

Participant Accounts

A separate account is maintained for each participant. Each participant's account is credited with the participant's voluntary contributions, any Company contributions, and earnings or losses on those contributions. Plan earnings are allocated daily based on each participant's account balance. Participant accounts are charged with an allocation of administrative expenses that are paid by the Plan. Allocations are based on participant earnings, account balances, or specific participant transactions, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the vested benefit that can be provided from the participant's account, as defined.

Vesting

Participants are immediately vested in their pre-tax, Roth, and rollover contributions, plus earnings thereon. Participants vest in Company contributions upon completing three years of service, as defined.

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN (Continued)

Notes Receivable from Participants

The Plan allows participants to borrow money within certain limits from their individual accounts. Such notes receivable are collateralized by the balance in the participant's account and bear interest at a reasonable rate, commensurate with current interest rates charged for loans made under similar circumstances by persons in the business of lending money. Principal and interest are paid through payroll deductions.

Payments of Benefits

On termination of service due to death, disability, or retirement, a participant, or their beneficiary, may elect to receive distributions equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account, as defined, in a lump sum, or in annual installments over a future period if the participant is subject to lifetime required minimum distributions. For termination of service due to other reasons, a participant may elect to receive the value of his or her account balance as a lump sum distribution. If the participant's account balance is between $1,000 and $5,000, the plan administrator will make an automatic rollover of the account balance to a qualified individual retirement account. If the participant's account balance is less than $1,000, the plan administrator directs the trustee to make a lump sum distribution. Participants terminated for reasons other than death, disability, or retirement are entitled to receive their benefits as soon as administratively feasible. Distributions may be authorized at any time by the plan administrator under certain hardship conditions.

Forfeitures

Forfeitures can be used to reduce future employer contributions or pay administrative expenses at the discretion of the Company. At December 31, 2012 and 2011, forfeited accounts totaled $3,891 and $1,600, respectively. During 2012, $6,753 was transferred to the forfeitures account. For the year ended December 31, 2012, $4,635 was used to fund Company matching contributions.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of the Plan are prepared using the accrual method of accounting.

Investment contracts held by a defined-contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined-contribution plan attributable to fully benefit-responsive investment contracts as the contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the Plan. The statement of net assets available for benefits presents the fair value of the investment contract as well as the adjustment, if any, of the fully benefit-responsive investment contract from fair value to contract value. The statement of changes in net assets available for benefits is prepared using the contract value basis.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Use of Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of net assets available for benefits and changes therein and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments are reported at fair value as reported by Prudential Insurance and Annuity Company and Prudential Bank and Trust, F.S.B (Prudential Retirement) and New York Life Trust Company (New York Life). Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Plan's Employee Benefit Plan Committee (the investment committee) determines the Plan's valuation policies utilizing information provided by the investment advisers, trustees and insurance company. See Note 4 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation/depreciation in fair value of investments includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Assets of the Plan at December 31, 2012, and for the period April 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012, are held in separate accounts of a trust administered by Prudential Retirement representing investments in mutual funds, a guaranteed investment contract, and self-directed brokerage accounts. Assets of the Plan at December 31, 2011, and for the period January 1, 2012 through March 31, 2012, were held in separate accounts of a trust administered by New York Life representing investments in mutual funds and a guaranteed investment contract.

Investments of participant's contributions and the Company's contributions into these funds are at the direction of each participant. The accounts are credited with actual earnings or losses on the underlying investments and charged for Plan withdrawals and administrative expenses.

Notes Receivable from Participants

Notes receivable from participants are measured at their unpaid principal balances plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Related fees are recorded as administrative expenses and are expensed when they are incurred. No allowance for credit losses has been recorded at December 31, 2012 and 2011. Delinquent notes receivable from participants are reclassified as distributions based on the terms of the Plan document.

Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Plan Expenses

All accounting and administrative fees with the exception of those relating to notes receivable from participants and qualified domestic relations orders, which are deducted directly from the participant's account, are paid either by the Plan or the Company as provided by the Plan document. Investment related expenses are included in net appreciation of fair value of investments.

Income Taxes

The Plan recognizes and discloses uncertain tax positions in accordance with GAAP. As of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and for the year ended December 31, 2012, the Plan did not have a liability for unrecognized tax benefits. The Plan is no longer subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities prior to 2009.

Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through August 5, 2013, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

3. INFORMATION CERTIFIED BY THE TRUSTEES

In accordance with Section 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, the plan administrator has elected to restrict the scope of the auditor's examination with regard to statements or information prepared and certified by New York Life and Prudential Retirement, the trustees.

New York Life as certified as to the completeness and accuracy of the investments it held and the schedule of assets held at end of year as of December 31, 2011 and changes in net assets arising from said investment activity for the period January 1, 2012 through March 31, 2012. Prudential Retirement has certified as to the completeness and accuracy of the investments it holds, and the schedule of assets held for investment purposes at end of year as of December 31, 2012 and changes in net assets arising from said investment activity for the period April 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012.

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The framework for measuring fair value provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described as follows:

- Level 1 Inputs are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access
- Level 2 Other significant observable inputs including: quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets; inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; or inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means
- Level 3 Inputs are significant and unobservable (including the Plan's own assumptions used to determine value)

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS (Continued)

The assets' fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of relevant observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the valuation methodologies utilized at December 31, 2012 and 2011.

Mutual funds: Valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-end mutual funds that are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds are required to publish their daily net asset value (NAV) and to transact at that price. The mutual funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded.

Guaranteed investment contract with Prudential Retirement: The guaranteed investment contract is not actively traded, and significant other observable inputs are not available. The fair value is determined to be equal to contract value as this product is an insurance company general account backed group annuity product with no maturity date and no adjustment upon discontinuance. The contract would be paid no later than ninety days from the date the Plan provides notice to discontinue the contract.

Guaranteed investment contract with New York Life: The guaranteed investment contract was valued at fair value by the insurance company by discounting the related cash flows based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable durations considering the creditworthiness of the issuer. Because the participants transact at contract value, fair value is determined annually for financial statement purposes only. In determining the reasonableness of this methodology, the investment committee evaluated a variety of factors including review of existing contracts, economic conditions, industry and market developments, and overall credit ratings. Certain unobservable inputs were assessed through review of contract terms (for example, duration or payout date) while others were substantiated utilizing available market data (for example, swap curve rate). The guaranteed investment contract was not actively traded, and significant other observable inputs were not available.

Self-directed brokerage accounts: Valued at the appraised values of the underlying individual assets within the brokerage account. The brokerage account invests in mutual funds and individual equities which are traded on an active market.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

6. GUARANTEED INVESTMENT CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE COMPANY

The Plan maintains a benefit-responsive investment contract with Prudential Retirement as of December 31, 2012 and for the period April 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012. Prudential Retirement maintains the contributions in a general account. The Plan maintained a benefit-responsive investment contract with New York Life as of December 31, 2011 and for the period January 1, 2012 through March 31, 2012. New York Life maintained the contributions in pooled separate accounts. The accounts are credited with earnings on the underlying investments and charged for participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. The guaranteed investment contract issuer is contractually obligated to repay the principal and a specified interest rate that is guaranteed to the Plan.

Because the guaranteed investment contract is fully benefit-responsive, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits attributable to the guaranteed investment contract. The guaranteed investment contract is presented on the statement of net assets available for benefits at fair value with an adjustment to contract value in arriving at net assets available for benefits. Contract value, as reported to the Plan by New York Life and Prudential Retirement, represents contributions made under the contract, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. Prudential Retirement has reported that contract value appropriates fair value at December 31, 2012. Participants may ordinarily direct the withdrawal or transfer of all or a portion of their investment at contract value.

There are no reserves against contract value for credit risk of the contract issuer or otherwise. Interest crediting rates vary based on current economic and market conditions, the general interest rate environment and with the expected and actual experiences of a referenced portfolio within the issuer's general account. Such interest rates are reviewed on a monthly basis for resetting. For the guaranteed investment contract held with Prudential Retirement, the minimum crediting rate under the contract is 1.50%.

There are no limitations of the ability of the Plan to transact at contract value with the issuer as the guaranteed investment contract is a general account backed group annuity product with no maturity date.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

6. GUARANTEED INVESTMENT CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE COMPANY

The average yields of the fully benefit responsive investment contract are as follows:

	2012	2011
Based on actual earnings	2.05%	3.14%
Based on interest rate credited to participants	2.05%	2.64%

7. PARTY-IN-INTEREST TRANSACTIONS

Certain Plan investments are shares of funds managed by New York Life and Prudential Retirement. New York Life and Prudential Retirement are the trustees of the Plan, and therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest.

8. PLAN TERMINATION

Although they have not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of termination, participants will become 100% vested in their accounts.

During 2012, the Company significantly reduced its workforce. Because of this reduction in employees, the Company has determined that a partial termination of the plan occurred in 2012. All affected plan participants became fully vested in their accounts.

9. TAX STATUS

The Plan is a prototype plan provided by Prudential Retirement. Prudential Retirement has received an opinion letter dated May 17, 2010, from the IRS stating that the prototype plan is acceptable under Section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) for use by employers for the benefit of their employees. Subsequently, the Plan has been amended. The plan administrator believes that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

10. RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the high level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and those changes could materially affect the participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statement of net assets available for benefits.
