We are providing this letter in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of The Crown Products Company, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan, as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and for the years then ended. We understand that your audit was made for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits and changes in net assets available for benefits of the Plan in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and whether the supplemental schedules are fairly stated in all material aspects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole. As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have instructed you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified by ING Insurance and Annuity Company, the trustee, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and schedules taken as a whole.

We are responsible for the fair presentation in the Plan's financial statements of net assets available for benefits and changes in net assets available for benefits in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and for the fair presentation of the accompanying supplemental schedules in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. We are also responsible for adopting sound accounting policies, establishing and maintaining internal control, and preventing and detecting fraud

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of August 21, 2013 the following representations made to you during your audit:

1. The financial statements and related notes are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the plan is subject, including the DOL Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

2. We have made available to you all-

    a. Financial records and related data.

    b. All minutes of the meetings of Crown Products Company, Inc. for the period from January 1, 2012 to December 31, 2012 or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.

To the Plan Administrator of
The Crown Products Company, Inc.
401(k) Profit Sharing Plan & Trust

We were engaged to audit the statement of net assets available for benefits of The Crown Products Company, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan & Trust as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, the supplementary schedule of assets held for investment purposes as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the supplementary schedules of reportable transactions, party-in-interest transactions, and non-exempt transactions for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011. These financial statements and supplementary schedules are the responsibility of the Plan's management.

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), the Plan Administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note 3, which was certified by ING Insurance and Annuity Company, the Trustee of the Plan, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the 2012 and 2011 financial statements and supplementary schedules. We have been informed by the Plan Administrator that the Trustee holds significant Plan assets and executes investment transactions. The Plan Administrator has obtained a certification from the Trustee for the year ended December 31, 2012 that the information provided to the Plan Administrator by the Trustee is complete and accurate.

Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we are unable to, and do not, express an opinion on the accompanying financial statements and supplementary schedules taken as a whole. The form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplementary schedules, other than that derived from the information certified by the Trustees, have been audited by us, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

401(K) PROFIT SHARING PLAN & TRUST

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Description of the Plan:

The following description of The Crown Products Company, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan & Trust provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Crown Products Company, Inc. (Company) 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan & Trust (Plan) is a defined contribution plan covering all full time employees of the Company who have at least one year of service. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employer Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Contributions

The Company may contribute amounts as determined by the Board of Directors, not in excess of the lesser of the maximum deduction allowable for income tax purposes or a specific percentage of the operating profits of the Company. The Company made contributions for the year ended December 31, 2012 of $50,000 and for the year ended December 31, 2011 of $0. Effective January 1, 2012, eligible participants may elect to contribute a portion of their annual compensation as determined and defined by the Plan.

Participant Accounts

Each employee's account is credited with the Company's contribution, if any, Plan earnings and forfeitures of non-vested accounts of terminated employees. Allocations are based on employees' earnings or account balances, as defined in the trust agreement. The benefits to which an employee is entitled are the benefits that can be provided from the account. Effective January 1, 2012, each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of (a) the Employer's contributions and, (b) Plan earnings, and charged with an allocation of fund expenses. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined.

Vesting

Employees are vested in their accounts based on years of continuous service. An employee is fully vested after six years of continuous service. In the event of Plan termination, employees become 100 percent vested in their accounts. Participants are immediately vested in their contributions, plus actual earnings thereon.

Payment of Benefits

Participants who have terminated for reasons other than death, disability, or retirement must wait until after the Anniversary Date, December 31st, before receiving their entire vested account balance. Participants who have retired or become disabled and Participant beneficiaries of Participants who have died, do not have to wait until after the Anniversary Date, to receive their entire vested account balance.

THE CROWN PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.
401(K) PROFIT SHARING PLAN & TRUST

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Continued)

1. Description of the Plan (continued):

Forfeited Accounts
At December 31, 2012 and 2011, forfeited, non-vested accounts totaled $14,048 and $4,473, respectively. These accounts will be reallocated to participants in the same manner as employer contributions.

Expenses
Administrative expenses, such as legal, accounting and fidelity insurance are paid by the Employer Company.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

The accounting records of the Plan are maintained on the accrual basis.

Investments are stated at fair value. If available, quoted market prices are used to value investments. Such investments are valued at the last reported sales price on the last business day of the Plan year as obtained from market makers. Gains and losses on investments bought and sold during the year are included in net appreciation (depreciation) in the fair market value of investments.

Investments in insurance contracts are valued at contract value.

Participant loans are valued at their current principal balance.

Payment of Benefits
Benefits are recorded when paid.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the Plan administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

3. Deposit with ING Life Insurance and Annuity Company

Effective November 2011, the Plan entered into an investment contract with ING Life Insurance and Annuity Company (ING). ING maintains investments in registered investment and guaranteed accounts. This account is credited with actual earnings on the underlying investments and charges for plan withdrawals and administrative expenses charged by ING. A summary of transactions certified by the trustee insurance company included in the financial statements is as follows:

6. Insurance Premiums:

Insurance premiums for allocated insurance contracts purchased on behalf of participants electing coverage are expensed when incurred. The cash surrender value of the individual contracts is not included in the net assets available for benefits as the obligation to pay benefits under the Plan is assumed by the insurance company.

7. Administration:

Certain administrative functions are performed by officers and or employees of the Company. No such officer or employee receives compensation from the Plan.

8. Income Tax Status:

The Plan is designed to constitute a qualified trust under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and is therefore considered to be exempt from federal income taxes under the provision of Section 501(a). The Plan has a favorable determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service. The administrator is not aware of any action or event that has occurred that might affect the Plan's qualified status.

9. Plan Termination:

Although the Employer has not expressed any intent to do so, they have the right under the Plan to discontinue their contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of Plan termination, participants will become 100% vested in their accounts.

10. Plan Amendments:

Effective November 2011, the Plan was amended to adopt the name of the Plan to The Crown Products Company, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust.

The Plan was amended during November 2011 to provide employees the opportunity to make salary deferral contributions. Effective January 1, 2012, eligible participants may make salary deferrals of two types, a pre-tax 401(k) and/or a Roth 401(k) deferral.
