Department of Labor:

I am writing in regards to Whitehouse Behavioral Health, 401-k. This is our first experience ever implementing a 401-k. The 401-k was initiated August 20, 2010 and was terminated August 3, 2011 due to lack of enrollment. The 401-k was not transferred, just completely terminated. It was through our payroll company we use, Paychex.

No contributions were made in 2010. I sent in the 2011 5500 on July 31, 2013 per your request. It was sent back to me to now be completed on-line. The on-line form application is requesting a letter asking why I am submitting it late.

The reason is my payroll company, Paychex originated the 401-k and they do all my reports and on-line filing. Example they do all my BWC, Quarterly reports, JFS, etc. So I was under the impression they would file and be in compliance with anything needed for 401-k. When I confronted them after receiving the IRS request, they stated that is one of the few forms that they did fill out, but I was supposed to submit it, they cannot.

Please accept my apology and not knowing I was supposed to do this. I hope you can waive any penalties. We are fairly anew agency and learning quickly!

Sincerely,

Christine E. WHITE
