Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Oliver DeSilva Group Health Care Plan (the Plan), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits – cash basis as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits – cash basis for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Plan management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Plan's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

As described in Note 1, these financial statements were prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of Oliver DeSilva Group Health Care Plan as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended on the basis of accounting as described in Note 1.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these financial statements.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The Oliver DeSilva Group Health Care Plan (the Plan) prepares its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; whereby, contributions are recorded when received rather than when earned, and benefits and administrative expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Consequently, contributions receivable, benefits payable, prepaid expenses and certain accrued expenses at December 31, 2012 and 2011 are not included in the financial statements.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Plan management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Income Tax Status

The Plan has not applied for a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service or the California Franchise Tax Board for tax exempt status, therefore, the Plan is subject to income taxes. Any income taxes attributable to the Plan are paid by the Plan's sponsor, Oliver DeSilva, Inc. The Plan administrator believes the Plan is no longer subject to income tax examination for the years prior to 2009.

Subsequent Events

Subsequent events have been evaluated through October 2, 2013, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, noting no matters requiring disclosure in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012.

2. DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

The following description of the plan provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan documents for a more complete description of its provisions.

The Plan is a part of the Oliver DeSilva Employee Benefits Program and is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and subsequent amendments (ERISA). The Plan pays for specified medical, dental and vision care expenses considered necessary to the well being of covered persons.

2. DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN, continued

The Plan's assets are maintained in a trust fund administered by HealthComp Administrators, Inc. (the Contract Administrator), executed under a trust agreement dated January 1, 1992. Benefit payments are processed and administered by the Contract Administrator, who receives a fee for these services from the Plan. Insurance premiums are paid directly by the Employer to the applicable insurance carrier or benefit provider.

Contributions

The Employer contributes for employees who are participants in the Plan and their eligible dependents at a rate that is sufficient to pay reported benefits when due. Participant contributions are limited to those amounts required to be paid by persons electing coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA).

Eligibility

All active full-time, non-union employees of the employer or certain other affiliated companies become eligible for participation in the Plan on the first day of the month coinciding with or following the first day of full-time employment. Participants may elect to cover their spouse, domestic partner, and children under twenty-six years of age. Participation ends at the earliest of Plan termination, the date the covered person is no longer in an eligible class, or the end of the month in which an employee terminates employment. Covered persons who are terminated or become ineligible may elect continuation of coverage in compliance with COBRA.

Benefits

Payment of Employer-funded benefits is based on predetermined amounts and percentages as specified by the Plan. Generally, under such coverage option, the Plan pays for 90% (80% for non-Preferred Provider Organization "PPO" expenses) of eligible medical expenses after giving effect to a $100 deductible per covered person (maximum of $200 per family) per calendar year. Additional deductibles apply when pre-hospitalization, surgical and outpatient review guidelines are not followed. When $2,000 per covered person ($4,000 per family) of eligible medical expenses under the Plan has been reimbursed at 90% (80% for non-PPO expenses), the Plan will pay 100% of eligible medical expenses for the remainder of the calendar year for that person.

The maximum annual benefit available to any one individual under the Plan is limited to $3,000,000 for any one year. Expenses incurred in excess of $90,000 per participant per Plan year are covered by specific excess reinsurance. In addition, the Employer carries aggregate excess reinsurance coverage to provide reimbursement to the Plan when the group's claims exceed the annual aggregate deductible amount for the Plan year.

The Plan pays for various percentages of dental costs based on the type of charge after giving effect to a $25 deductible per covered person (maximum of $75 per family) per calendar year. There is also a maximum benefit per covered person per calendar year of $1,500.

The Plan also pays for certain vision care supplies and services subject to maximum benefit and frequency limitations.

At December 31, 2012 and 2011, there was approximately $230,000 and $260,000, respectively in outstanding benefit obligations, which had not yet been paid by the Plan. These obligations were scheduled to be paid in 2013 and 2012, respectively.

3. CASH

Negative cash balance represents checks issued in excess of the cash account balance.

4. PLAN TERMINATION

While it has not expressed any intention to do so, the Employer has the right to discontinue contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan, subject to provisions set forth in ERISA.

In the event the Plan terminates, reasonable notice of such discontinuance shall be given to all participants as to the date that benefits and contributions shall cease. The rights of participants to benefits will be limited to eligible health and welfare costs incurred up to the date of termination.

5. RESTATED

It has been determined that contributions and administrative expenses were previously overstated for the year end December 31, 2011 by $54,646 and have been restate to reflect the correct amounts.
