Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2012

1. Description of Plan

The following description of the Wilshire Associates Incorporated 401(k) Employee Savings Plan (the "Plan") provides only general information. Wilshire Associates Incorporated (the "Company") is the Plan sponsor and administrator. Fidelity Management Trust Company (the "Trustee") is the trustee for the Plan. The Trustee held the plan investment assets and executed investment transactions from January 1, 2012 to December 31, 2012. Participants should refer to the Summary Plan Description for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering substantially all employees of the Company who have attained age twenty-one. Participants can enroll in the Plan on the first day of the month following their employment date. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"). The Trustee holds the Plan's assets, receives contributions from the Company, and executes investment transactions and disbursements of the Plan in accordance with the provisions of the Plan document.

Contributions

The maximum dollar amount each participant can contribute annually on a pre-tax and post-tax basis is $17,000. In addition, participants at the age of 50 and above have the option to make an additional contribution of up to $5,500 in 2012. Participants can also designate some of their deferral contribution as a Roth deferral contribution. Once made, this election is irrevocable. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined benefit or contribution plans (rollovers). Participants direct the investment of their contributions into various investment options offered by the Plan. The Plan currently offers twenty four funds as investment options for the participants. The Company matching contributions are discretionary. For the year ended December 31, 2012 the Company did not make any matching contributions.

In 2012, there was an over remittance of participant contributions of $4,000 which was classified as employer contributions to the Plan and was used to pay for the administrative expenses of the Plan.

Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of Plan earnings. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Vesting

Participants are immediately vested in their voluntary contributions plus earnings thereon.

Investment Options

Upon enrollment in the Plan, a participant may direct employee contributions in any of twenty four investment options available under the Plan. Participants may change their investment options daily.

1. Description of Plan (continued)

Payment of Benefits

A distribution can be made if it's due to participant's death, disability, retirement, or termination of employment. A participant may receive an amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account as a lump sum distribution. The Plan will automatically distribute any vested account balance that does not exceed $1,000 within 60 days after the end of the Plan year in which the participant separates from employment.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements are prepared under the accrual basis of accounting and are in compliance with the Department of Labor's ("DOL") Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices on the last business day of the Plan year. The unrealized appreciation or depreciation on the investments, based on quoted market value at December 31, are recorded as an increase or decrease in net assets available for benefits. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recognized on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

Plan Expenses

Certain costs of administering the Plan are borne by the Company.

3. Information prepared and certified by the Trustee

The following information included in the accompanying financial statements and supplementary schedule was obtained from data that has been prepared and certified as complete and accurate by the trustee.

5. Plan termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan document to discontinue the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.

6. Income tax status

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Company by a letter dated March 31, 2008, that the Plan and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. However, the Plan administrator and the Plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC and is exempt from Federal income taxes. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authorities. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The plan administrator believes it is no longer subject to income tax examination for years prior to 2009.

7. Risks and uncertainties

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

8. Parties-In-Interest

The Plan invests in shares principally with registered investment companies that are managed by the Trustee. The Trustee acts as the administrator for the investments of the Plan. Transactions in such investment qualify as parties-in-interest transactions, which are exempt from the prohibited transaction rules.

9. Fair value measurements of financial assets

FASB ASC 820 provides the framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described as follows:

9. Fair value measurements of financial assets (continued)

Basis of Fair Value Measurement:

Level 1	Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in active markets that the plan has the ability to access.
Level 2	Inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets; inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the assets or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.
Level 3	Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The assets or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The following tables set forth by level within the fair value hierarchy the investment assets and investment liabilities of the Plan at fair value, as of December 31, 2012 and 2011. Assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2012 and 2011.

Mutual funds: Valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-end mutual funds that are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds are required to publish their daily net asset value (NAV) and to transact at that price. The mutual funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value of reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's fair value measurements at December 31, 2012 and 2011:

10. Administrative expenses

In 2012, the Plan paid $4,039 of administrative expenses associated with Fidelity Management Trust Company. The Plan sponsor paid the remaining expenses associated with the Plan.

11. Subsequent events

Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the Statements of Net Assets date but before financial statements are issued. The Plan recognizes in the financial statements the effect of all subsequent events that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the Statement of Net Assets, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing the financial statements. The Plan's financial statements do not recognize subsequent events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the Statement of Net Assets but arose after the said date and before financial statements are available to be issued.

The Company had evaluated subsequent events through September 17, 2013 which is the date the financial statements are available to be issued.
