INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Participants and Trustees of
Primary Color Systems Corporation 401(k) Plan

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Primary Color Systems Corporation 401(k) Plan, which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2011, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the period June 1 through December 31, 2011, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Plan's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of Primary Color Systems Corporation 401(k) Plan as of December 31, 2011, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the period June 1 through December 31, 2011, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedule of assets as of or for the year ended December 31, 2011, is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Such information is the responsibility of the Plan's management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

To the Participants and Trustees of
Primary Color Systems Corporation 401(k) Plan

Report on the Financial Statements

We were engaged to audit the accompanying financial statements of Primary Color Systems Corporation 401(k) Plan, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility for the 2012 Financial Statements

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the 2012 financial statements based on conducting the audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Because of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion on the 2012 Financial Statements paragraph, however, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

Auditor's Responsibility for the 2011 Financial Statements

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the 2011 financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the 2011 financial statements.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion on the 2012 Financial Statements

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note C, which was certified by Mid Atlantic Trust Company, the trustee of the Plan, except for comparing such information with the related information included in the 2012 financial statements. We have been informed by the plan administrator that the trustee holds the Plan's investment assets and executes investment transactions. The plan administrator has obtained a certification from the trustee as of and for the year ended December 31, 2012, that the information provided to the plan administrator by the trustee is complete and accurate.

Disclaimer of Opinion on the 2012 Financial Statements

Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion on the 2012 Financial Statements paragraph, we have not been able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion on the 2012 financial statements. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the 2012 financial statements.

Other Matters-Report on 2011 Financial Statements and Report on Supplementary Information

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Primary Color Systems Corporation 401(k) Plan, which comprise the statement of the net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2011, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the period June 1 through December 31, 2011, and in our report dated October XX, 2013, we expressed our opinion that such financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2011, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the period June 1 through December 31, 2011, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The supplemental schedule of assets as of or for the year ended December 31, 2012, is required by the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion on the 2012 Financial Statements paragraph, we do not express an opinion on this supplemental schedule.

Report on Form and Content of the 2012 Financial Statements in Compliance With DOL Rules and Regulations

The form and content of the information included in the 2012 financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified by the trustee, have been audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

To the Participants and Trustees of
Primary Color Systems Corporation 401(k) Plan

Report on the Financial Statements

We were engaged to audit the accompanying financial statements of Primary Color Systems Corporation 401(k) Plan, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility for the 2012 Financial Statements

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the 2012 financial statements based on conducting the audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Because of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion on the 2012 Financial Statements paragraph, however, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

Auditor's Responsibility for the 2011 Financial Statements

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the 2011 financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the 2011 financial statements.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion on the 2012 Financial Statements

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note C, which was certified by Mid Atlantic Trust Company, the trustee of the Plan, except for comparing such information with the related information included in the 2012 financial statements. We have been informed by the plan administrator that the trustee holds the Plan's investment assets and executes investment transactions. The plan administrator has obtained a certification from the trustee as of and for the year ended December 31, 2012, that the information provided to the plan administrator by the trustee is complete and accurate.

Disclaimer of Opinion on the 2012 Financial Statements

Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion on the 2012 Financial Statements paragraph, we have not been able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion on the 2012 financial statements. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the 2012 financial statements.

Other Matters-Report on 2011 Financial Statements and Report on Supplementary Information

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Primary Color Systems Corporation 401(k) Plan, which comprise the statement of the net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2011, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the period June 1 through December 31, 2011, and in our report dated October XX, 2013, we expressed our opinion that such financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2011, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the period June 1 through December 31, 2011, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The supplemental schedule of assets as of or for the year ended December 31, 2012, is required by the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion on the 2012 Financial Statements paragraph, we do not express an opinion on this supplemental schedule.

Report on Form and Content of the 2012 Financial Statements in Compliance With DOL Rules and Regulations

The form and content of the information included in the 2012 financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified by the trustee, have been audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.
