Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2011 and 2010, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2011, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Re: Halo Systems, LLC
Form 5500
For Year Ended 12/31/11

Dear Sir or Madam,

Please accept this letter as the reasonable cause explanation for the delinquency of filing the Halo Systems, LLC Form 5500. The company went bankrupt due to the actions of the President Tim Teague and as a result all employees were terminated in 2009. I worked with ADP to distribute all of the plan assets to participants and terminate the 401k plan in 2010. Last week it came to my attention that the plan had not been officially terminated because one of the participants failed to transfer their account balance out of the plan and although I had filed the proper forms to distribute funds apparently this participants account balance was at a level that prevented the ability to force the distribution thereby maintaining the plan's existence by default.

Please accept this return and waive any related penalties.

Sincerely,
