Department of Labor

I am writing this letter in hope that you will please waive the fees associated with my late filing for CDR Maguire Welfare Benefits.

I filled out my 5500 form for the Maguire Welfare Benefits, had the signer sign the filings and I submitted them. For some reason it never submitted. I have been doing these filings for years and never had this happen to me. I am told when calling the Department of Labor today that there was an error that was not corrected. I was not aware of this error and honestly thought the filings were in fact filed.

By looking at the form you can see that the form was done and supposedly on October 14, 2013 and submitted before end of business.

I look forward to hearing your decision.

Thanking you in advance.
