Department of Labor:

We have received your letter requesting an auditor's opinion on our 401-K plan. We are not aware of the need for this audit. And, with the size of the plan and the administrative fees associated with this plan, we are hoping that this plan may qualify for an alleviation of this requirement. At this time, we are contemplating discontinuing this plan due to the aforementioned.

In the meantime, we have contacted our external accountants and they are testing the independence assertion and may engage us, or assist us in finding an auditor. At this time, we would like to have 60 days to complete an audit from the date of your response.

Sincerely,

Ira Nutis
