Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the plan administrator instructed me not to perform, and I did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note Three, which was certified by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., the trustee of the Plan, except for comparing such information with the related information included in the financial statements. I have been informed by the plan administrator that the trustee holds the Plan's investment assets and executes investment transactions. The plan administrator has obtained a certification from the trustee as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, and for the year ended December 31, 2013, that the information provided to the plan administrator by the trustee (or custodian) is complete and accurate.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2013 and 2012

NOTE ONE -- Description of plan

The following description of the Degenkolb Engineers ("Company") Profit Sharing and 401(k) Plan ("Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering all employees of the Company. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Contributions

Each year, participants may contribute up to eighty-five percent (85%) of pretax annual compensation (as defined in the Plan) subject to the limitations of Internal Revenue Code Sections 402(g) and 415. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined benefit or contribution plans.

The Plan provides for two types of discretionary contributions by the Company, as determined by its board of directors: (1) quarterly contributions for all employees receiving compensation during the quarter, though such contributions ceased in 2000, and (2) annual contributions for participants with one thousand (1,000) compensable hours or more during the year and actively employed on the last day of the Plan year. These contributions may be made, in either cash, shares of the Company's common stock, or in such property as is acceptable to the Plan's trustee. These contributions are subject to certain limitations.

Participants direct the investment of their contributions and their share of Company cash contributions, if any, into various investment options offered by the Plan. Participant investments in the Company's common stock (which are subject to an aggregate annual limit of $500,000) and any Company contributions of its common stock are, in most instances, irrevocable.

Participant accounts

Each qualified participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and an allocation of (a) the Company's contribution, (b) Plan earnings and losses, and (c) forfeitures of terminated participants' non-vested accounts (as described under forfeitures below) and is charged with an allocation of administrative expenses. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Vesting

Participants are immediately vested in their contributions plus actual earnings thereon. Vesting in the Company's contribution portion of their accounts plus actual earnings thereon is based on years of service. A participant is one hundred percent (100%) vested after six years of service.

Participant loans

Participants may borrow from their accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum of the lesser of $50,000 or fifty percent (50%) of their vested account balance that is not held in Degenkolb Engineers common stock. The loans are secured by the participant's vested account balance and bear interest at five and one quarter percent (5.25%), which is commensurate with prevailing interest rates as determined by the Plan Administrator at the time the loans are made.

Payment of benefits

Upon termination of service due to any reason, participants or their beneficiaries have the option to either receive the vested portion of their accounts in a lump-sum payment or remain participants in the Plan until such time as they elect to withdraw their vested portion from the Plan. Payment of participant directed investments (made after August 11, 1999) in the Company's common stock may be in either cash or in the form of a note payable, as defined. The remaining balance of any lump-sum payment is in cash.

Participants who continue to be employed by the Company and have attained the age of fifty-nine and one-half (59-1/2) are permitted to withdraw their fully vested portion of non-Degenkolb Engineers common stock holdings from the Plan.

Additionally, at any time a participant may apply for a hardship withdrawal for an immediate and heavy financial need, as defined by the Plan. The Plan Administrator shall determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, the amount that is necessary to alleviate the hardship.

Forfeitures

In each Plan year, forfeitures (including earnings) arising during that Plan year shall first be made available to reinstate previously forfeited accounts of former participants, if any, in accordance with the terms of the Plan. The remaining forfeitures, if any, shall then be used to pay Plan administrative expenses for the Plan, with the remaining forfeitures, if any, added to any non-elective contribution.

NOTE TWO -- Summary of significant accounting policies

Investment valuation and income recognition

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note Five for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the Plan Administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Common collective trust funds	773,327

Net appreciation in fair value	$ 12,646

	$ (971,478)

NOTE FIVE -- Fair value measurements

Financial accounting standards establish a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described as follows:

Level 1 — Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 — Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 — Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value at December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Common stock

The fair value is determined by independent appraisal. The appraisal was based on the weighing of two approaches: (1) market (publicly traded companies and merged and acquired companies) and (2) income. The result was then discounted for lack of marketability.

Common collective trust funds

The fair value is determined by dividing the fund's net asset value by the number of units outstanding at year-end.

Mutual funds

The fair value is determined by dividing the fund's net asset value by the number of shares outstanding at year-end.

Participant loans

The fair value is determined by unamortized cost.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value at December 31, 2013 and 2012:

	Assets at Fair Value at December 31, 2013
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

NOTE SIX -- Related party transactions

The Plan has investments in common collective trust and mutual funds managed by Wells Fargo Bank N.A. Wells Fargo Bank N.A. is the trustee as defined by the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions. Fees paid by the Plan for the trustee services and agency/investment fees were $525 and $39,706, respectively, for the year ended December 31, 2013.

The $30,000 balance reported in administrative expenses is attributable to fees paid to the Plan's registered investment advisor (WESPAC Advisors, LLC).

NOTE SEVEN -- Plan termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. Participants become one hundred percent (100%) vested in their accounts in the event of Plan termination.

NOTE EIGHT – Tax status

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Company by a letter dated February 10, 2014, that the Plan and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

NOTE NINE -- Review of subsequent events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through July 28, 2014 which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
