To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept my Amended 2012 5500 filing.

This is based on updated information that I rec'd yesterday afternoon from Paychex after jumping through MANY MANY hoops and dealing with original misinformation which led to the filing of a final report in error.

They contracted me on 8/1/2014 to tell me that they DID have records of participants and a balance so I immediately requested them and obtained the 2013 records on Tuesday and filed that report with special circumstances and an attached letter- and now I am filing this amended 2012 immediately upon my receipt of this other new information.

Paychex has also advised me that as of Monday of this week they NOW have made the FINAL distribution on this plan and will have a final 5500 available to me 7 weeks into the next quarter which I can order for another $50. Each of these reports has been $50 out of pocket personally for my Husband and I - the Company has been out of business since 2009, we declared bankruptcy that year, subsequently have lost our home, my Husband is on disability, and I was recently laid off of my job and am on unemployment since 6/1/2014 so an extra expense is tight.

I am requesting that no fees or penalties be imposed on any of these filings -I promise never to accept the fiduciary duties of a plan administrator again. This was a plan administrator by default situation that I was ill equipped and had no knowledge of how to handle. Department of Labor and the IRS have both been very helpful - I only wish I had gotten accurate information from Paychex and this amended return and subsequent late 2013 filing would have been avoided.

Thank You in Advance for Your Understanding,
