Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Curran Group, Inc. Flexible Benefits Plan (the Plan), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits and of plan benefit obligations as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits and of changes in plan benefit obligations for the year ended December 31, 2013, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial status of the Plan as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, and the changes in its financial status for the year ended December 31, 2013, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Member of the RSM International network of independent accounting, tax and consulting firms.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Board of Directors of Curran Group, Inc., the sponsor of the Plan, executed a resolution to terminate the Trust effective December 31, 2013. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Note 1. Plan Description

The following description of the Curran Group, Inc. Flexible Benefits Plan (the Plan) provides only general information about the Plan's provisions. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General: The Plan was formed on January 1, 1993, and replaced the Curran Group, Inc. Employee Welfare Benefits Plan. The Plan allows related Companies (collectively, "the Companies"), as described in the Plan's literature, to adopt its provisions. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

The Board of Directors of the Company, the sponsor of the Plan, executed a resolution to terminate the Trust effective December 31, 2013.

Benefits: The Plan provides medical, dental, group life, accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) and flexible spending arrangements to all U.S. based active, non-seasonal, non-union employees who have completed one full calendar month of service and work at least 30 hours per week. Certain retired employees are also entitled to these same benefits for the portion of the costs not covered by Medicare. For employees whose employment terminates, under Federal law they are entitled to continuation of health care coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA) generally for a period not exceeding 18 months. The cost of continuation coverage must be paid by the individual choosing such coverage.

Insured benefits: The Plan fully insures the life insurance benefits and AD&D benefits. The Plan purchases annual insurance contracts for these insured benefits. Premiums for all insured benefits are paid from the assets of the voluntary employees' beneficiary association (VEBA) trust.

Stop-loss coverage: The Plan has entered into a stop-loss insurance arrangement in an effort to limit its exposure for self-insurance benefits (individual participant claims over a specific dollar amount, which was $195,000 for 2013 and 2012).

Self-insured benefits: All other Plan benefits are self-insured. The claims for self-insured benefits (other than short-term disability) are processed by the Plan's third-party claims processors under administrative services only (ASO) arrangements. The claims processors pay claims directly to or on behalf of participants and are then reimbursed by either the Plan's trust or the general assets of the Company. Despite the Plan's utilization of third-party claim's processors, ultimate responsibility for payments to providers and participants is retained by the Plan.

Flexible spending accounts: The Plan has flexible spending accounts (FSA) that are funded through employee salary reduction contributions. The FSA allows eligible participants to be reimbursed tax free for qualified medical expenses subject to a specified ceiling. Amounts remaining at the end of the year cannot generally be carried over to the next year. The account cannot be used for anything other than reimbursements for qualified medical expenses.

Contributions: Participating employees who elect medical and dental benefits, or who maintain coverage upon termination of employment in accordance with the provisions of COBRA, contribute a set amount as determined by their coverage choices. The Companies make discretionary employer contributions to the Plan as determined by the Board of Directors. Participant contributions are deducted from their compensation as Cafeteria Plan Benefit Dollars, as defined, and become available to purchase benefits pursuant to the Plan. An employee may contribute pretax amounts to the health care reimbursement portion of the Plan.

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting: The accompanying financial statements of the Plan have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, benefit obligations, and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Estimated health claims incurred but not reported: The liability for health claims incurred but not reported (IBNR) was estimated based on historical claim data provided to the plan sponsor by their third-party administrator, BlueCross BlueShield of Illinois, for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Postretirement benefit obligations: The postretirement benefit obligation represents the present value of those estimated future payments. Postretirement benefits represent the present value of future benefits expected to be paid for three current retired employees. For measurement purposes at December 31, 2013 and 2012, a 0.7% and 0.9% respectively, annual rate of increase in the per capita cost of covered health care benefits was assumed for 2014 and 2013. The rate was assumed to be 6% the following year and to remain at that level thereafter. The annual discount rate assumed was 3.91% and 2.86% for 2014 and 2013, respectively. An average annual health care cost in excess of costs covered by Medicare per retiree was used in conjunction with their life expectancy to determine the total obligation for the remainder of their lives. The life expectancies used in the calculation were obtained from Table V of IRS Reg. 1.72-9 for ordinary life annuities-one life. The foregoing assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plan will continue. Were the Plan to terminate, different assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the present value of the postretirement benefit obligations.

The health care cost-trend rate assumption has a significant effect on the amounts reported for postretirement benefits. If the assumed rates increased by one percentage point in each year, that would increase the obligation as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 by approximately $3,000 and $4,700, respectively.

Payment of benefits: Premiums paid by either the Company or the trust are recorded as premium payments in the accompanying statement of changes in net assets available for benefits. Claim payments are recorded when paid by the third-party claims processor.

Stop-loss: Premiums for stop-loss insurance are included in premium payments in the accompanying statement of changes in net assets available for benefits. Stop-loss refunds totaling $150,100 have been netted with claims paid in the accompanying statement of changes in net assets.

Subsequent events: The Plan's management has evaluated subsequent events through August 18, 2014, the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 3. Cash

All of the Plan's cash was on deposit at one financial institution. Deposits with this financial institution were in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limits or had been at some point during the year.

Note 4. Income Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service has ruled in a letter dated June 9, 1988, that the Trust was tax-exempt under the provisions of Section 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and is, therefore, not subject to tax under present income tax laws. The Plan has been amended since receiving this letter. The plan sponsor believes that the Trust was operating in accordance with applicable provisions of the IRC up until the date the Trust was terminated.

Management evaluated the Plan's tax positions and concluded that the Plan had maintained its tax exempt status and had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements. Therefore, no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the financial statements. With few exceptions, the Plan is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S. federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2010.

Note 5. Related Party Transactions

An employee of the Companies had been appointed as a Trustee of the Plan. This employee is also a participant in the Plan. The Trustee does not receive any compensation from the Plan for their services as a Trustee. Certain administrative functions are performed by the Companies on behalf of the Plan.

Note 6. Plan Termination

Although the Companies have not expressed any intention to do so, under certain conditions the Plan may be terminated. Upon termination, the assets that remain shall be subject to the provisions of the Plan and shall be used until exhausted to pay benefits for participants.

Note 7. Risks and Uncertainties

The benefit obligations are reported based on certain assumptions pertaining to interest rates, health care inflation rates and employee demographics, all of which are subject to change. Due to uncertainties inherent in the estimation and assumption process, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in these estimates and assumptions in the near-term would be material to the financial statements.

Note 8. Reconciliation of Financial Statements to Form 5500

The following is a reconciliation of net assets available for benefits per the financial statements to the Form 5500 at December 31, 2013 and 2012:
