This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements of The Absinthe Group, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the Plan) which comprise the statement of net assets available for plan benefits as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for plan benefits for the year ended December 31, 2013, and the related notes to the financial statements.

We have determined that the plan trustee, State Street Bank and Trust Company, qualifies to issue a certification of the Plan's asset activity under section 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's (DOL)'s Rules and Regulations. Therefore, as permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have instructed you not perform any auditing procedures with respect to asset information certified or provided by State Street Bank and Trust Company, the Trustee, other than comparing that information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedule as a whole.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief that as of the date of this letter:

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit arrangement letter dated June 23, 2014, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements referred to above in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

2. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.

4. Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable and reflect our judgment based on our knowledge and experience about past and current events and our assumptions about conditions we expect to exist and courses of action we expect to take.

   In that regard, we are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services or other third parties. The methods and significant assumptions used to determine fair values of the financial instruments are as follows:

   > Registered investment companies - mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value (NAV) of shares held by the Plan at year end.

   Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The methods and assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial statement measurement and disclosure purposes.

5. All significant estimates and material concentrations known to management that are required to be disclosed in accordance with the Risks and Uncertainties Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) have been properly recorded and/or disclosed in the financial statements. Significant estimates are estimates at the statement of net assets date that could change materially within the next year. Concentrations refer to nature and type of investments held by the Plan, or markets in which events could occur that would significantly disrupt normal finances within the next year.

6. Related-party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.

7. Transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements and guarantees, and amounts receivable from or payable to related parties have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed, if any.

8. All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.

9. The effects of all known actual or possible litigation and claims have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

10. We have no intention to terminate the Plan.

11. We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the plan instrument, if any.

12. We have not completed the process of evaluating the effect that will result from adopting the guidance in Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standard Update 2012-04, as discussed in Note 2. The Company is therefore unable to disclose the effect that adopting the guidance in FASB Accounting Standards Update 2012-04 will have on its financial position and the results of operations when such guidance is adopted.

Supplementary Information

13. With respect to supplemental schedules:

    a. We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of such information.

    b. We believe such information, including its form and content, is fairly presented in accordance with DOL Rules and Regulations for reporting and disclosure under ERISA or accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

    c. The methods of measurement or presentation have not changed from those used in the prior period.

    d. There are no underlying significant assumptions or interpretations regarding the measurement or presentation of such information.

    e. We will only present the supplemental schedule together with the audited financial statements and auditor's report thereon and will not separate the supplementary information from the audited financial statements and auditors' report thereon in any document that contains such information.

Information Provided

14. We have provided you with:

    a. Access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements such as records, documentation, and other matters.

    b. Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.

    c. Unrestricted access to persons within the plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.

    d. The currently effective version of the Plan document, including prototype plan document and adoption agreement, the trust agreement or insurance contracts and all related amendments. The Plan was most recently amended effective as of July 1, 2012.

    e. All correspondence, filings, reports, and determinations with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the DOL relating to the Plan's compliance with ERISA and the maintenance of its tax-exempt status.

    f. All Plan financial records and related data. In that regard, the payroll information we provided you covered all employees that were eligible to participate in the Plan.

    g. All minutes of the meetings of the Plan's Plan Committee, or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.

15. All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements. In this regard, the Sponsor's management provided sufficient oversight of the financial statement preparation process that was outsourced to you by performing a detailed review of the financial statements consisting of the following procedures:

a. Reconciliation of the trust activity and participant statements to the financial statements.

b. Review and approval of all journal entries proposed by you, including review of supporting documentation and explanations.

c. Review the adequacy of financial statement disclosure.

d. Review and approval of schedules and calculations supporting the amounts included in the notes to the financial statements.

e. Applying analytical procedures to financial statements.

16. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of risk and have determined that the financial statement are not materially misstated as a result of fraud.

17. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan involving:

a. Management or employees who have significant roles in the internal control.

b. Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.

18. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan received in communications from employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.

19. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation and claims whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements, and neither we nor the Plan Sponsor, or others acting on behalf of the Plan, have consulted a lawyer concerning litigation and claims or other matters affecting the Plan.

20. We have disclosed to you the identity of the entity's related parties and parties-in-interest and all the related-party and party in interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.

21. We are aware of no significant deficiencies, including material weaknesses, in the design or operation of internal controls that could adversely affect the Plan's ability to record, process, summarize, and report financial data.

22. We have no plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.

23. The Plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets which are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interests have been properly disclosed.

24. Concentrations of credit risk have been properly disclosed.

25. We have completed and reviewed the Tax Compliance Checklist you have provided to us and have answered all questions to the best of our knowledge and belief.

26. There have been no communications, whether written or oral, from regulatory agencies concerning non-compliance or deficiencies in the operation of the plan.

27. We have complied with (a) all aspects of contractual agreements, including provisions of the Plan, that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance, (b) the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA, (c) all participant eligibility and coverage requirements of the Plan, ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), and (d) the filing requirements of appropriate agencies.

28. We have complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant's contributions to trusts containing assets for the plan.

29. We have disclosed to you all known instances of non-compliance or suspected non-compliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.

30. The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the sponsor, by a letter dated March 31, 2008, that the Plan is qualified and the trust established under the Plan is tax exempt under the appropriate sections of the IRC. We have operated the plan and trust in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status.

31. We have reviewed the complementary user entity control considerations of the Service Organization Controls (SOC 1) Report for DST Retirement Solutions dated November 26, 2013 for the period ended September 31, 2013 and for Automatic Data Processing, Inc. dated November 14, 2013 for the period ended September 30, 2013, we believe all applicable controls are in place.

32. There are no:

    a. Nonexempt (prohibited) party-in-interest transactions that were not disclosed in the financial statements or supplemental schedules.

    b. Participant loans or other receivables or investments in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the financial statements or supplemental schedules.

    c. Reportable transactions that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.

33. During the course of your audit, you may have accumulated records containing data that should be reflected in our books and records. All such data have been so reflected. Accordingly, copies of such records in your possession are no longer needed by us.
