NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

B. Summary of Accounting Policies

1. Basis of Accounting. The financial statements of the Plan are prepared under the accrual method of accounting and were reconciled or agreed to the Form 5500.

2. Investment Valuation and Income Recognition. Investment contracts held by a defined-contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. The value of investments held as of each accounting date is determined based on the fair value of each underlying fund's investments principally using quoted market values from national exchanges. Purchases and sales of investments are reflected on a trade-date basis. The statement of changes in net assets available for Plan benefits includes the net appreciation (depreciation) in the fair value of investments, which consists of the realized gains or losses and the unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on those investments.

Pooled separate accounts are reported at the closing net asset value per unit of participation as determined by the Plan's Trustee based upon the respective fund/portfolio as of the last business day of the Plan year. The purchase or redemption price of the units is determined based on the current net asset value per unit of participation. The value per unit is determined by the Trustee using the market values of the underlying assets or the fair values as determined by the Trustee in the absence of an available market price.

3. Payment of benefits. Benefits are recorded as paid.

4. Estimates. The preparation of financial statements requires management of the Plan to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

5. Contributions. Participant contributions are recorded in the period in which the Company makes payroll deductions from Plan participants. The Company's discretionary contribution, if any, is recorded in the related Plan year. Excess contributions payable result from participants contributions in excess of amount permitted to maintain the qualified status of the Plan.

6.. Administrative Expenses. Expenses related to the administration of the pooled separate accounts are paid by the respective accounts, and are reflected in the overall investment return of such funds or reimbursed from the non-vested fund balance. Any expenses resulting from fund transfers or from withdrawals may be deducted from participants' account balances.

7. Concentration of Credit Risk. The Plan's investments include bank-administered and registered investment company mutual funds that represent obligations by the counterparties to meet the terms of the financial instruments.

8. Risks and Uncertainties. The Plan provides for various investment options in any combination of stocks, bonds, fixed-income securities and other investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities and the level of uncertainty related to the changes in the value of investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of the investments will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statement of net assets available for benefits.

B. Summary of Accounting Policies, continued

9. Subsequent Events. The Plan has evaluated subsequent events through the date of the Statement of Financial Condition was available to be issued. The Sponsor has determined that there are no material events that would require adjustment to or disclosure in its Statement of Financial condition

C. Cash

The Plan considers as cash amounts held in the Custodian's accounts and disclosed as cash.

D. Investments

All investments are participant directed. The unaudited information as of December 31, 2013, as follows, was certified to be complete and accurate by the Plan's Trustee, within the meaning of CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA:

Investments, at fair value:
Lifestyle Aggressive	$	87,365
Lifestyle Balanced		450,571
Lifestyle Moderate		263,695
Vanguard energy		66,869
JH Stable value		78,611
Funds with balances less than 5% of assets		347,973
Total investments, at fair value	$	1,295,084

E. Fair Value Measurements

Accounting standards establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities, entitled level 1 measurements, and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs, entitled level 3 inputs. Level 2 inputs include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets and inputs other than quoted prices that are derived or observable for the asset or liability.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

E. Fair Value Measurements, continued

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value (NAV) of shares held by the plan at year end.

These methods may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. The Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The fair value of the Plan's assets were provided by the Trustee. The following table set forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value as of December 31, 2013:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Mutual funds:
Balanced and growth funds	$ 963,100			963,100
Fixed income funds	78,611			78,611
Other mutual funds	253,373			253,373
	$ 1,295,084	-	-	1,295,084

F. Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Trustee of the Plan that the Plan is designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Plan administrator believes that the Plan, as amended, is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC and thinks the Plan and is a qualified Plan and the related trust is tax-exempt.

Plan management is required to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan, if any. Management of the Plan thinks no tax positions were taken by the Plan. Accordingly, no liability for uncertain tax positions is included within the accompanying financial statements. The Plan is subject to audit by taxing jurisdictions in accordance with applicable statutes of limitation. No audits or notification of audits have been received by the Plan

G. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of Plan termination, participants will become 100 percent vested in the non-vested portion of their account, if any.

H. Related-Party Transactions

Certain plan investments are shares of mutual funds and insurance products managed by John Hancock Insurance Co. John Hancock is the Custodian of the Plan assets and, therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions. Administrative fees presented on the accompanying statement of changes in net assets were paid to John Hancock.

I. Notes Receivable From Participants

The Plan allows the participant to borrow a specified percentage of their account balance. Loans bear interest and are repayable in accordance with the terms specified by the Plan. The Plan reserves the right to change the ability to borrow or the loan terms.

J. EXPENSES

A portion of the administrative fees presented on the accompanying statement of changes in net assets were paid to the related party. The Company, as sponsor, paid certain expenses of the Plan.
