Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on conducting our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Because of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, however, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion
As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note 3, which was certified by Principal Life Insurance Company, the trustee of the Plan, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements. We have been informed by the plan administrator that the trustee holds the Plan's investment assets and executes investment transactions. Reasonable Cause:

Prior to the involuntary conversion of Bynum Transport from a "hard-copy" data reporting client to an "electronic" data reporting client (required by our third-party administrator) filed returns were timely or acceptably extended. Bynum Transport, Inc. was required to supply the data in paper format, and did so annually, and the TPA would enter and produce the necessary documentation for audit and reporting requirements. This facilitated Bynum Transport's reporting in comparison to electronic filing, as our payroll software data and reports were in UNIX format, and our software did not include any utility software to convert data files to alternate formats for electronic filing compatible with our TPA's application. Our TPA's decision to require all compliance data be electronically reported and their refusal to accept flat files, and our inability to produce correctly formatted electronic files has required us to attempt to report all necessary data employee via the TPA's web-site application, literally one employee at a time, subject to the speed of the internet access and web-site application. The reporting of accurate information on wage and deduction mounts required an inordinate number of hours, and difficulties associated with staff training, turnaround and errors and software inflexibility (e.g., re-hires and terminations required extensive intervention to the reporting process by our TPA, and as a transportation company with 75 – 100 % turnover and in some cases multiple re-hires of the same employees in one plan year, this inflexibility and associated errors was compounded) added to our inability to file timely and accurately. Reporting annually all employee wage and compliance data, as was done when reporting to the TPA on paper, simply was not practical when filing data electronically, however the years of the delinquent payrolls were already past, and we continued to struggle with the web-site reporting.

These problems have been communicated multiple times to the Department of the Treasury and the Department of Labor and they have accepted our explanation as reasonable cause for late filing.
