Re: Bay City Marine, Inc. 401(K) Profit Sharing Plan
FEI 94-2781210

To whom it may concern:

Enclosed is a copy of the 2012 Form 5500-SF for Bay City Marine, Inc. for the tax year ended December 31, 2012. We respectfully request a waiver of late filing penalties for this return based upon reasonable cause.

Bay City Marine, Inc. is a small organization which sponsors a 401(K) Profit Sharing Plan. The officers of BCM were not familiar with administration of retirement plans and relied on ADP Retirement Services for the administration of this plan. ADP handles the corporate payroll, deductions for the 401k, deposit of 401k contributions, management of the 401k assets, maintenance of 401k plan documents and preparation of the annual Form 5500-SF. The corporate officers reasonably believed that this representative had handled all administration of the plan including filing necessary tax returns.

We recently received a letter from the IRS indicting that the 2012 tax Form 5500-SF had not been filed. Since the 2012 Form 5500-SF was prepared by ADP, we had reason to believe that ADP had filed this return.

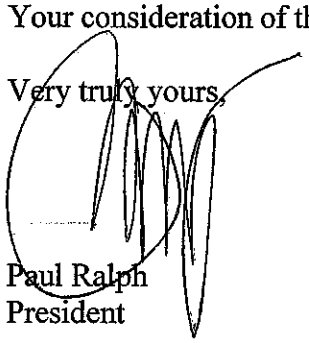

Bay City Marine relied on an outside professional administrator to meet all the documentation and filing requirements for the plan. We have through-out all years of the plan including the year 2012 made timely transfers and contributions to the plan and has properly notified participants of their account information. Clearly there has not been willful neglect with respect to this matter. This is further evidenced by the immediate response to this notice when it was learned that the IRS had no record of the 2012 return.

We respectfully request a waiver of all penalties based upon the reasonable cause outlined above.

Please note that all prior tax returns for Bay City Marine have been timely filed. Additionally assessment of penalties would be inequitable and cause financial hardship to the plan sponsor.

Your consideration of this request is greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Paul Ralph
President
